THE IMMACULATA 1957

Presented by the Senior Class
Trenton Catholic High School

500 CHESTNUT AVE., TRENTON, N. J.

Laughter—suspense—conflict—surprises. These are elements which contribute to the making of a fine drama. How often in our four-year career here at Trenton Catholic did we experience these emotions! They cannot be numbered, yet we know we possess an unspeakable satisfaction and have a mature, rich wealth of experience gained from acting out our small parts in the drama of high school life here. We expect no "rave notices" for our performance on and at this stage of life—we realize that ours, in general, have been "bit parts," but we can be sure that the small roles we have attempted here will fit us for the "lead parts" in the tremendously important drama of our future life. This program or yearbook, if you will, records then that key performance, the happy ending of which we are confident we can supply in the years ahead.

LET US PRAY

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen.

Oh God, help me to be this day and every day of my life in every way a man. Help me to govern my thoughts and actions according to the highest standards of unselfish manhood. Help me to do nothing of which I should be ashamed to have those dear to me know. Help me to keep ever before my eyes the goal of a life of service and the fitness to serve.

Lord make me an instrument of your Peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love, where there is injury, pardon, where there is doubt, faith, where there is despair, hope, where there is darkness, light, and where there is sadness, joy. Oh Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand to be loved, as to love, for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

DEDICATION

FATHER ALLEN BOLAND, O.F.M. CONV. — teacher extraordinary, competent play director, friend, man of God — terms inadequate to portray a fitting sketch of this beloved priest. He has been all of these to us, and his untimely death left us bereft of a true friend and guide. Our yearbook is truly his, for Father Allen planned it, saw it under way and worked hard at it. It is only proper, then, that we humbly and gratefully dedicate it to his memory. His departure is the tragedy in our drama.

Herein we set our scene and gratefully acknowledge those who have directed and guided our performance.

ACT I — Page 36

Our opening act is devoted to those extra-curricular activities which help to solidify our knowledge of the parts we play.

ACT II — Page 64

This portion of our drama gives us the polish and confidence we need when we appear before the public eye, activities to acquaint us with others.

ACT III — Page 92

The long hours of rehearsals for the perfection of our parts are reflected in the practice and performance of sports.

CURTAIN CALLS — Page 134

Support given by secondary characters gives depth and body to a drama, and here we introduce those who vitally aid our efforts — the underclassmen.

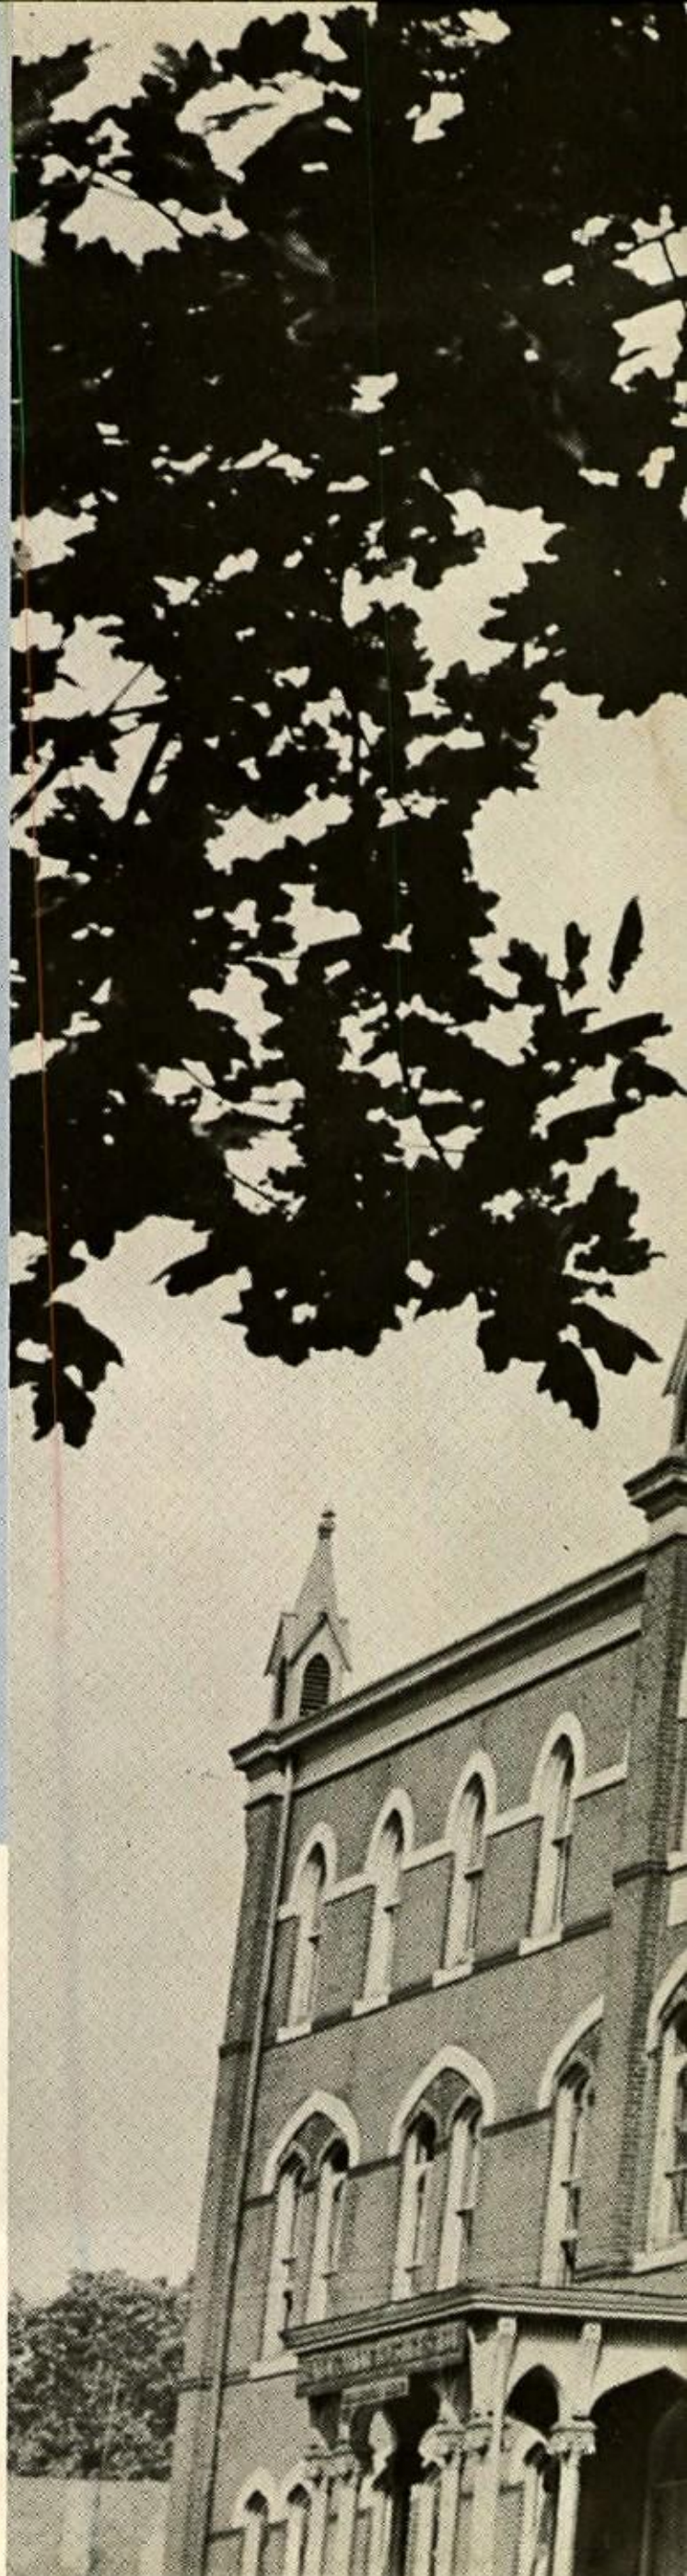
SENIORS — Page 154

Now we reveal the main characters along with their record of performances.

ADVERTISERS — Page 192

To be produced at all, a drama must have financial support. We gratefully acknowledge the "angels" of our production, our advertisers.

WHERE THY GLORY DWELLS



The background of our play is set about four familiar buildings — the Administration Building, Austin Hall, the Gym Building, and the Church of the Immaculate Conception. This is Trenton Catholic. Within these hallowed walls we have found knowledge in the untiring efforts of our Franciscan Fathers. Here, in church and chapel, we receive spiritual guidance and strength in this troubled world. In the Gym Building we matured physically for the road ahead. We shall never forget our beloved high school, for here we went from boyhood to manhood in the drama of life.

BACKSTAGE

A sincere interest in the personal welfare of every actor is imperative to the successful completion of any stage production. The same is true in our four years at Trenton Catholic.

To this cause are dedicated thirty excellently trained Franciscan Fathers. Assisting them in their duties are six lay teachers, who have shown to us through their sincerity and generosity more than is implied in the dry term "teacher."

The collective aim of the faculty is the material and spiritual development of the Catholic Youth in Trenton Catholic.

Their working time is devoted to us — in instruction. Their spare time is also ours — in extra-curricular activities.

The untiring efforts shown by these men have given us the example by which we should pattern our lives. From consultation to coaching, these Friars are doing the work of God "to teach and sanctify."

THE MOST REVEREND GEORGE W. AHR, D. D.

Bishop of Trenton, New Jersey

Always deeply interested in our education and the various other activities which are a part of our school, our beloved bishop has been active in education since he served on the faculty of Seton Hall University and as Rector of Darlington Seminary. With such a profound background in teaching and religious training, His Excellency has contributed heavily to the production and success of our drama.

THE ADMINISTRATION

They Guide Our Way to the Drama of Life

For a stage production to become a unified effort, it is necessary to have a director or coordinator to whom all are responsible and from whom proceeds the actual production itself. So it is in the drama of high school life. Father Robert, with the capable assistance of Father Bartholomew and two secretaries, sees to the efficient operation of the nerve center of the whole school, the office. To Father Robert we are eternally grateful for all he has done for us, for the patient training and guidance shown us from the moment we first stepped on the stage of Trenton Catholic to the moment of our curtain call. May we show our gratitude by our performance in the years to come.

I

At this point in our play, we wish to show you some scenes which we think to be of vital importance. Together they show what common effort can do, both spiritually and materially, in cementing together those individual parts which make up school life. Although they are not strictly a part of our curriculum, they are necessary adjuncts to our course. The fact that they borrow part of our after-school free time is not a hindrance at all. We gladly give up these hours for such worthy endeavors because we know their value to us.

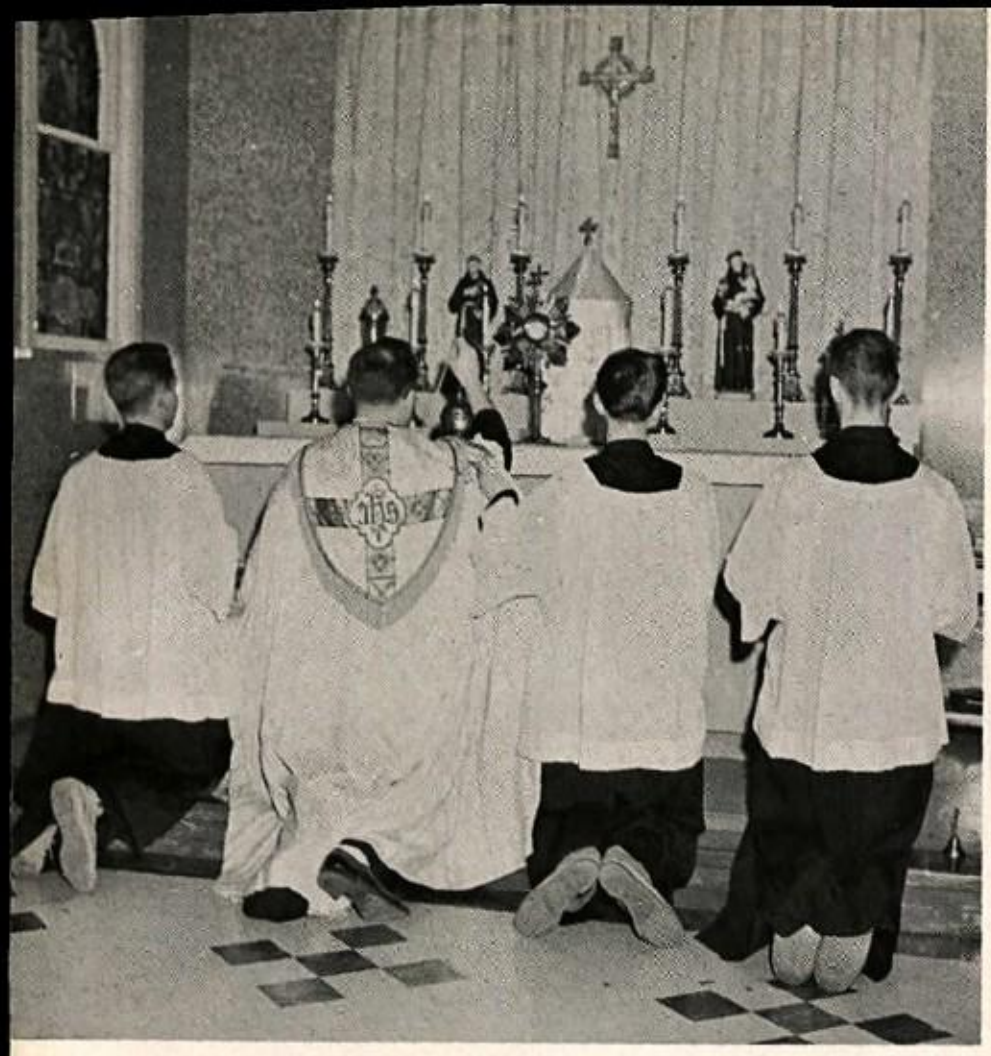
THE THIRD ORDER

Show Me, O Lord, The Way of Life!

As the rehearsals proceed, we visualize a different kind of rehearsal—the preparation of one's soul for his part in life's drama. This end is aided by the Third Order of St. Francis, St. Thomas More Fraternity. It challenges the idealism of youth with sacrifice for the cause of Christ by offering a script for character.

The Third Order in rehearsal for the Divine drama also strives for the salvation of others. Countless pamphlets and Catholic magazines have been distributed in hospital waiting rooms, doctors' offices, and the state prison in hope of auditioning for souls to fill God's cast, as well as donating food baskets to the needy at Christmastide.



Father Howard, moderator of the Third Order, presides at Benedicton during one of the regular meetings.

E. D'Aquili, J. Kushner and W. Pearman make sure that the pamphlet rack in Austin Hall is well stocked.

Father Howard invests new members with the familiar scapular of St. Francis. (W. Pearman, J. Dorner, P. Robb and H. Zealand receive.)

Thrashing out plans for a future project are three senior representatives—S. Ehrengruber, R. Ference and R. Sarafin.

As a unit, the Student Council here pictured has accomplished much for the school and its students.

Father Gregory instructs J. Tozzi, S. Ehrengruber, R. Sarafin and Student Council President R. Ference in the fundamentals of the polio drive.

STUDENT COUNCIL

That I May Learn to Govern Myself

The elected group of representatives whose primary function is the betterment of school relations both among the students themselves and in their relation with the faculty and administration — that's our Student Council. Under the capable direction of Father Gregory for some years, this body is forever expanding in activity. It conducts our Student Court wherein minor infractions of the school rules are handled. Pep rallies are sponsored by the group as well as dances, skating parties and numerous poster contests. Truly interested in everything that goes on at Trenton Catholic, our Student Council even lends to the physical improvement of school property.

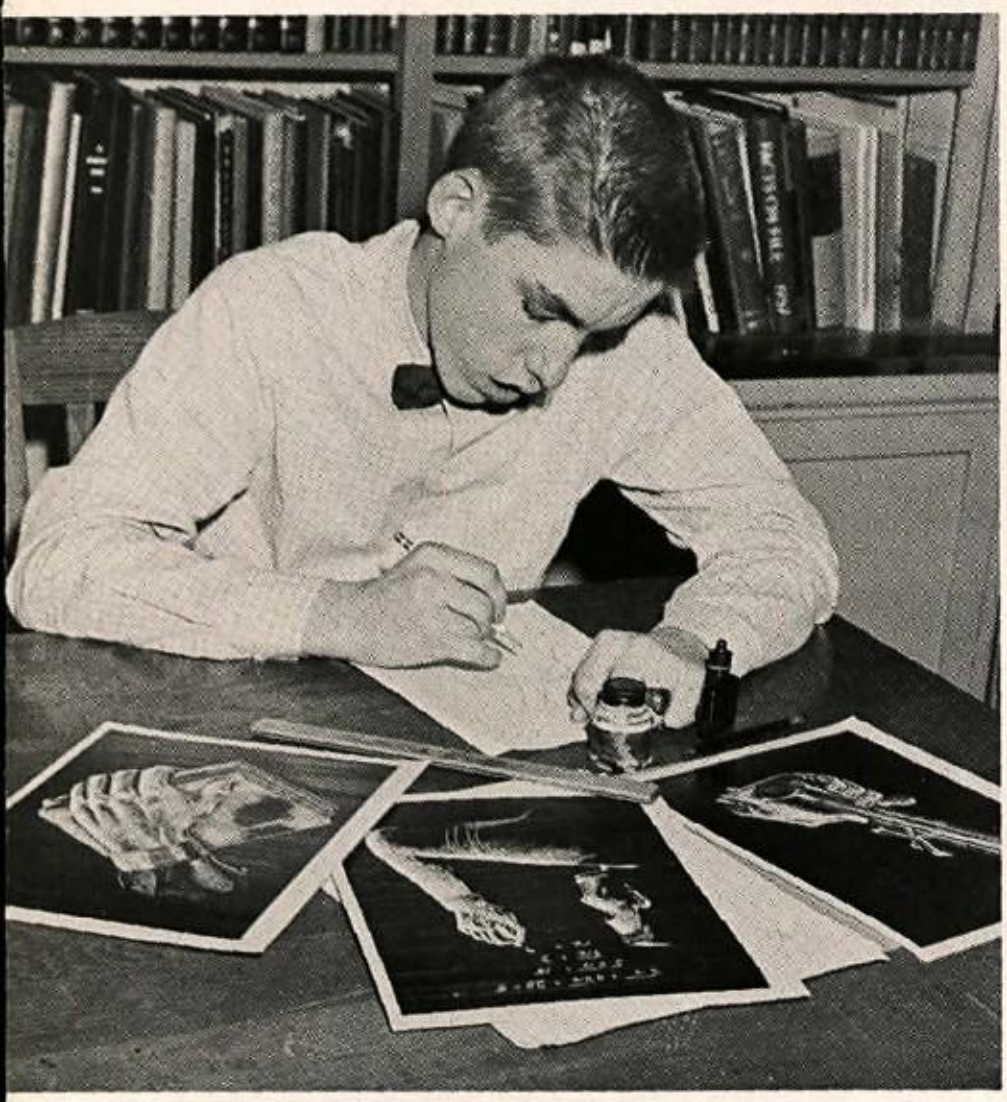
The editorial staff has its headaches identifying the million and one photos.

1957 IMMACULATA

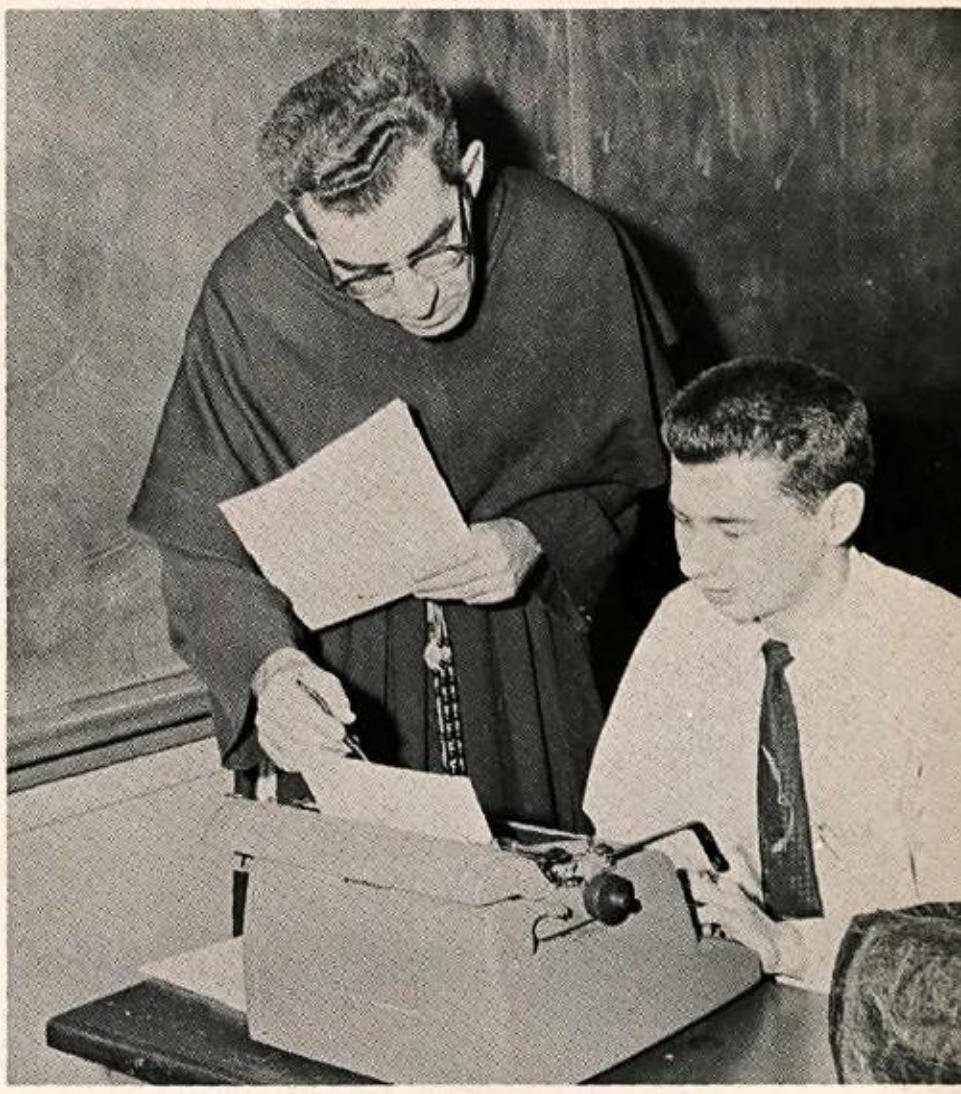
We Leave This Record of Our Performance

After our drama is performed we shall read our reviews. And yet who wrote the reviews? If one were able to see behind the closed-door meetings, he would observe the compiling of this publication. He would see the hours of checking proof after proof, writing and rewriting. He would see that the yearbook is more than a mere matter of composition. He would realize that this endeavor must have spirit and inspiration. This is accomplished by the energetic staff under the capable guidance of Fr. Angelus.

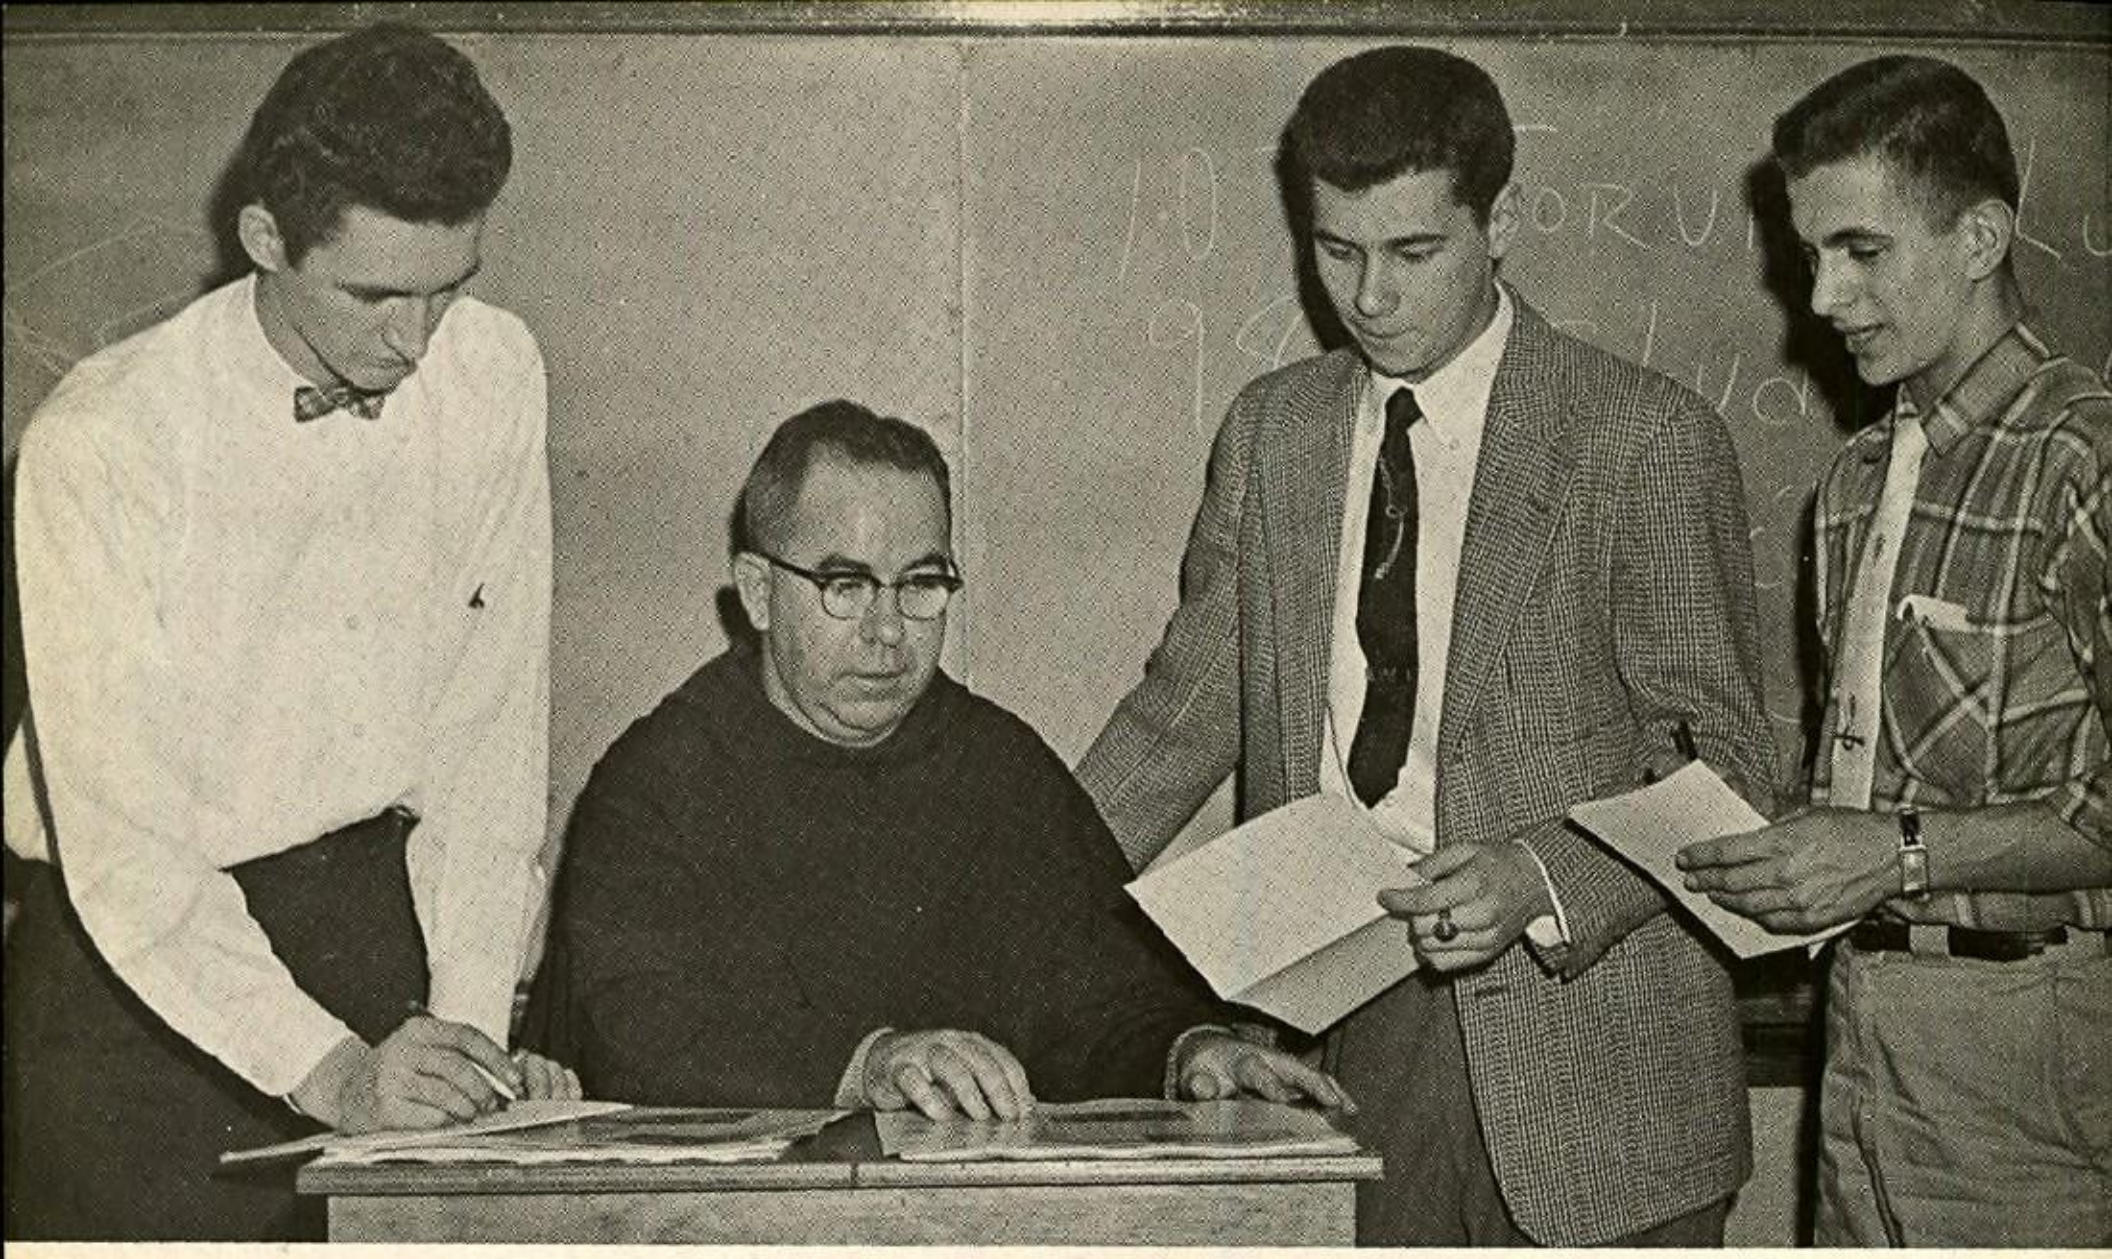
There's never an end to the typing to be done on a yearbook. (Busy at the keyboard are R. Ference, M. Cody, R. Woelfling, C. Harvison and J. Zeyack.)



Working up a sketch for the '57 Immaculata, R. Humphrey keeps us supplied with the art work.

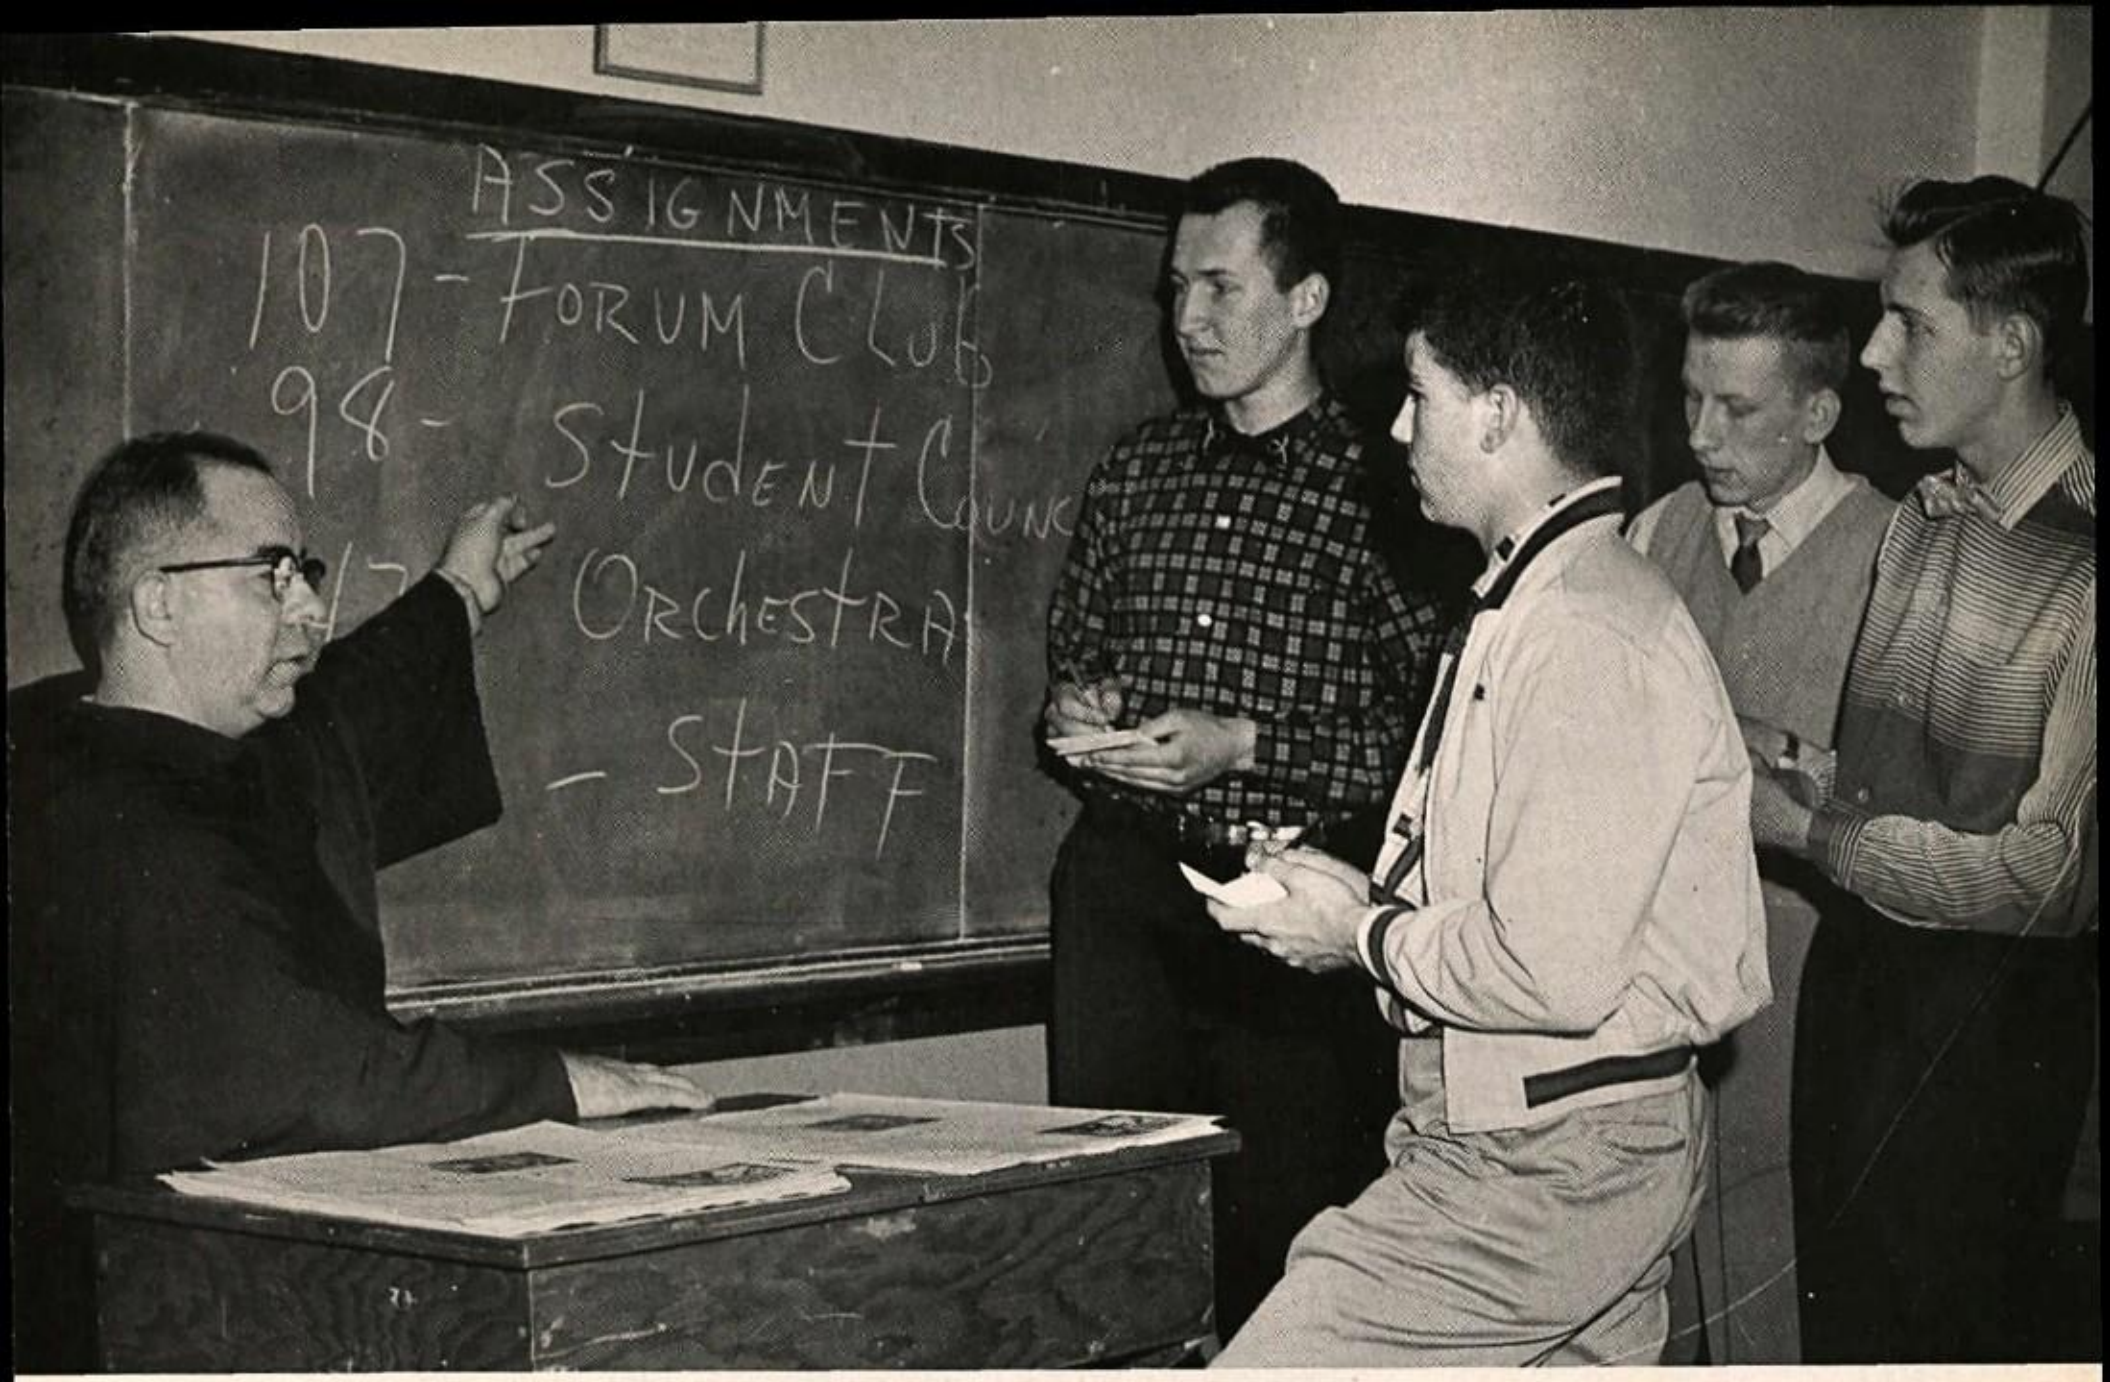


All written work in a yearbook must be done exactly and accurately as Father Angelus points out to R. Ference.



E. Zier, R. Ference and E. Sadovsky listen intently as Father Bertin outlines plans for the next issue.

There's no doubt about the popularity of the Golden Wave with T.C. students.



Father Bertin assigns the actual articles that will appear in a forthcoming issue to R. Schnorbus, C. Harvison, R. Sagedy and A. Sykes.

THE GOLDEN WAVE

We Have Proclaimed The News

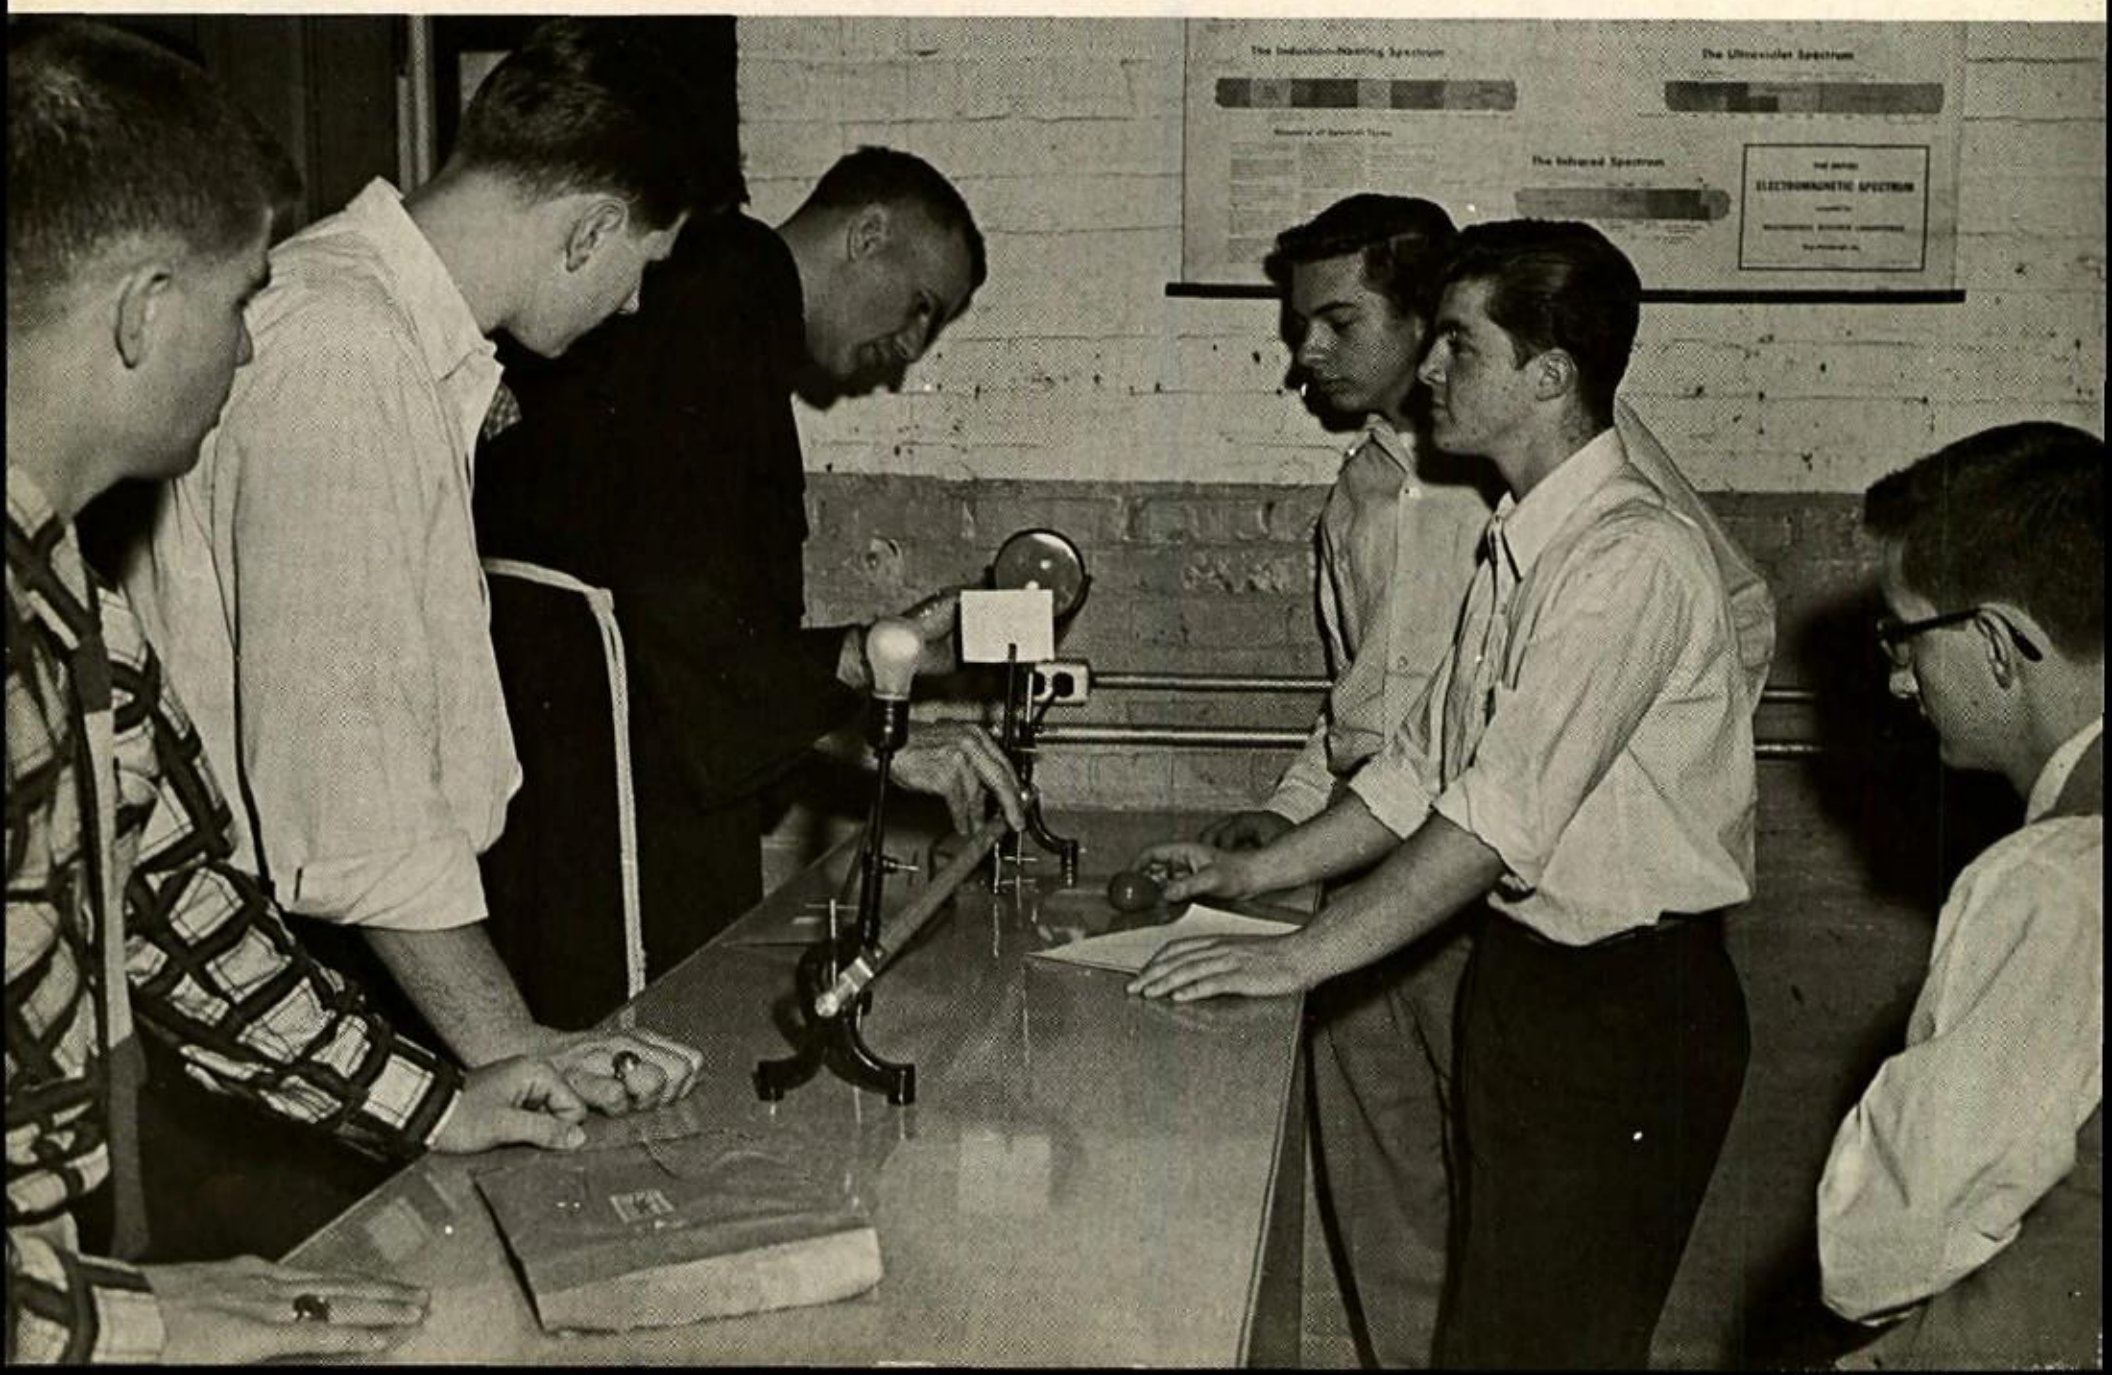
The official voice of the students at Trenton Catholic is the Golden Wave, our newspaper. Directed by Father Bertin, it is written entirely by the students themselves. A kind of playbill, it's primary purpose is to foster school spirit, but it also endeavors to reveal the latest activities, sports, and gossip from the students' point of view. Aside from the news, there are several standard columns which have stood the test of time. Among them are the "Voice Box," "Stag Lines," and the ever popular "Herodotus." With six editions the paper completes its year's work. We will always recall its never-to-be-forgotten memories as our drama of life goes on.

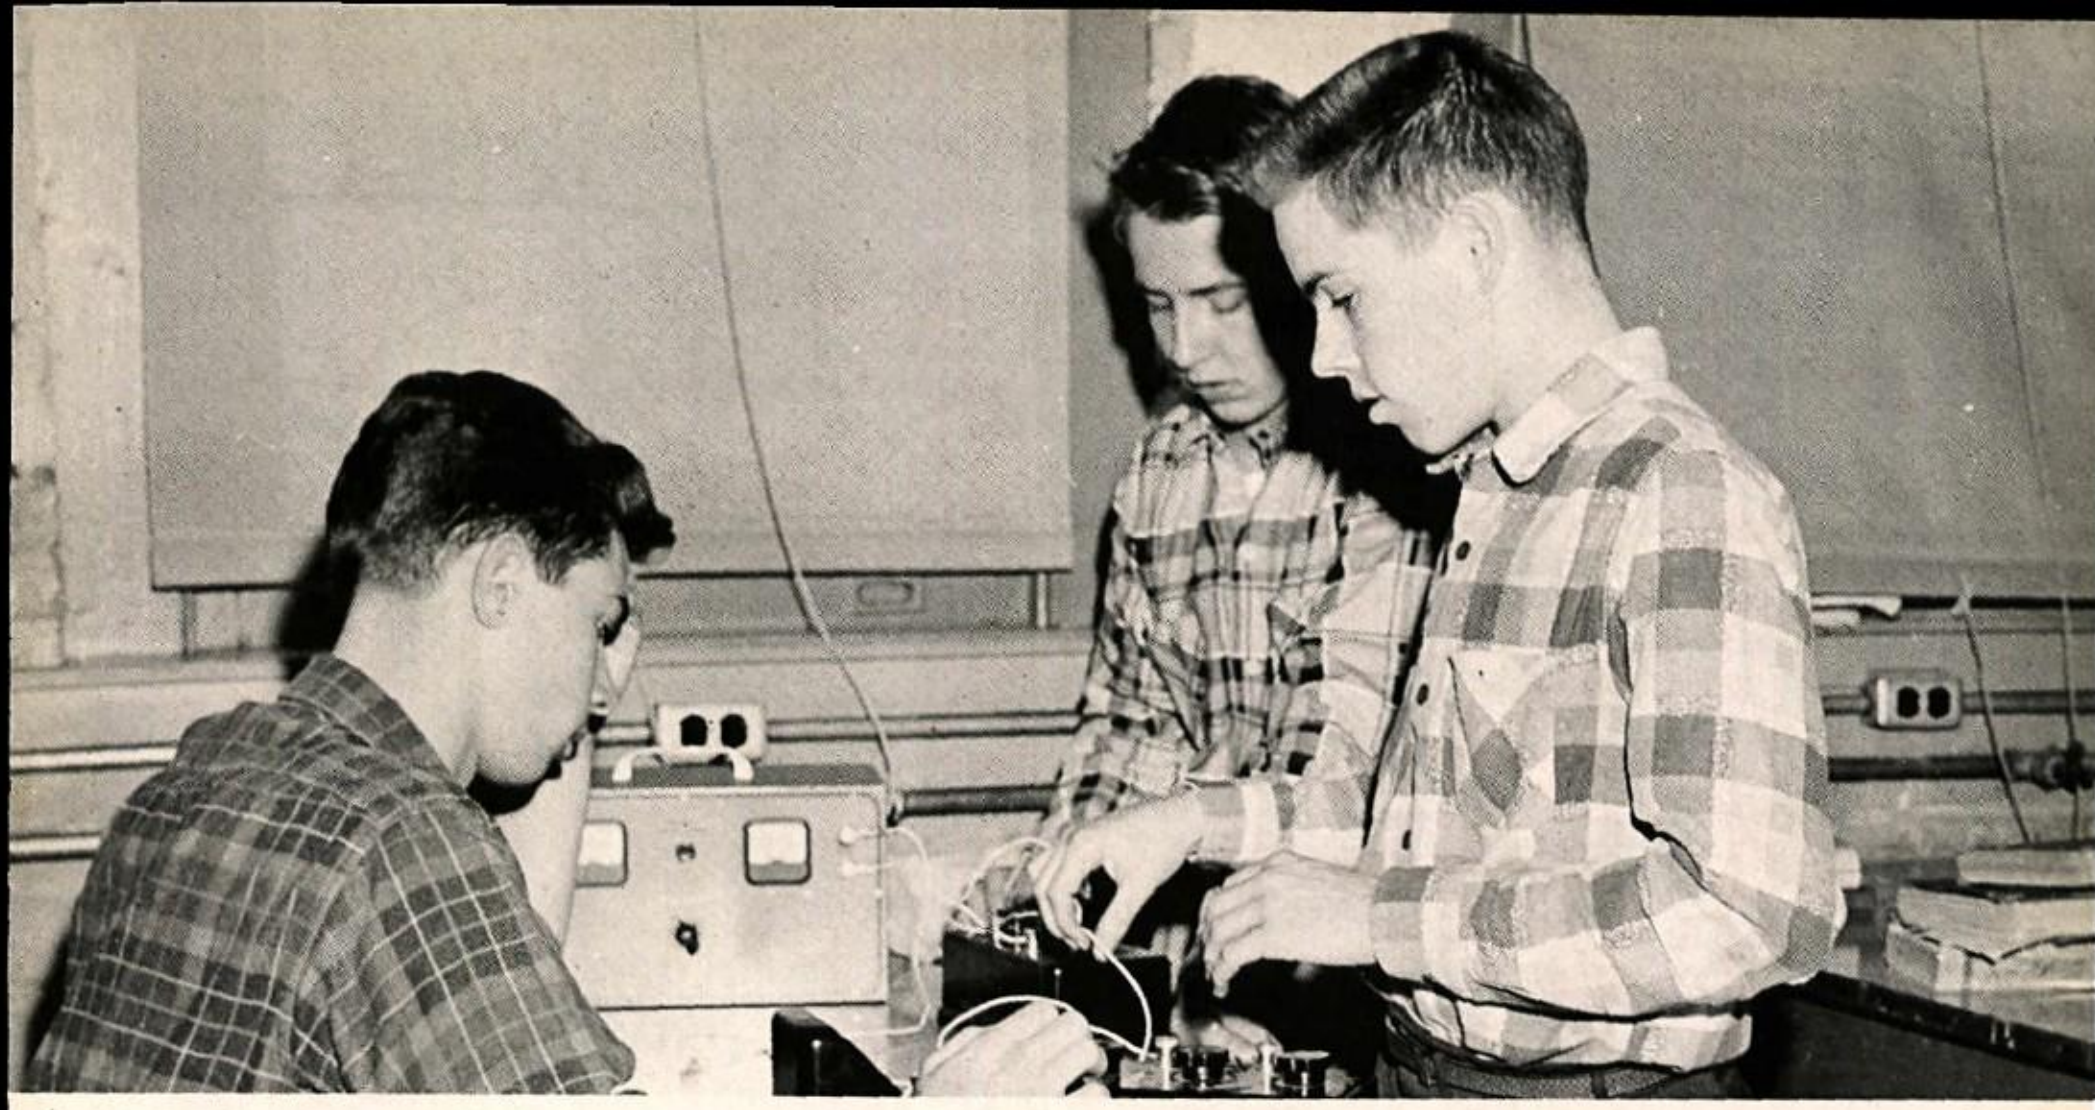
SCIENCE CLUB

By Constant Searching, We Thus Improve

A recently formed organization under the supervision of Fr. Quintin, the Science Club is composed of juniors and seniors. It is divided into two groups. One meets on Monday after school, and the other on Wednesday evening. The club is presently engaged in the assembly of an "Electronic Brain" and a 12" reflecting telescope. Facilities have been constructed for experiments. The Club not only provides a source of extra-curricular activity but also prepares these upperclassmen with added knowledge necessary for their college careers.

The use of the Bunsen Photometer is demonstrated to the Science Club.





J. Hearney, E. Hines, and M. Zolna calculate the output voltage in an electrical experiment.

Fr. Quintin explains to his members a basic formula in light.

D. Murphy sketches a scale model of the human eye.

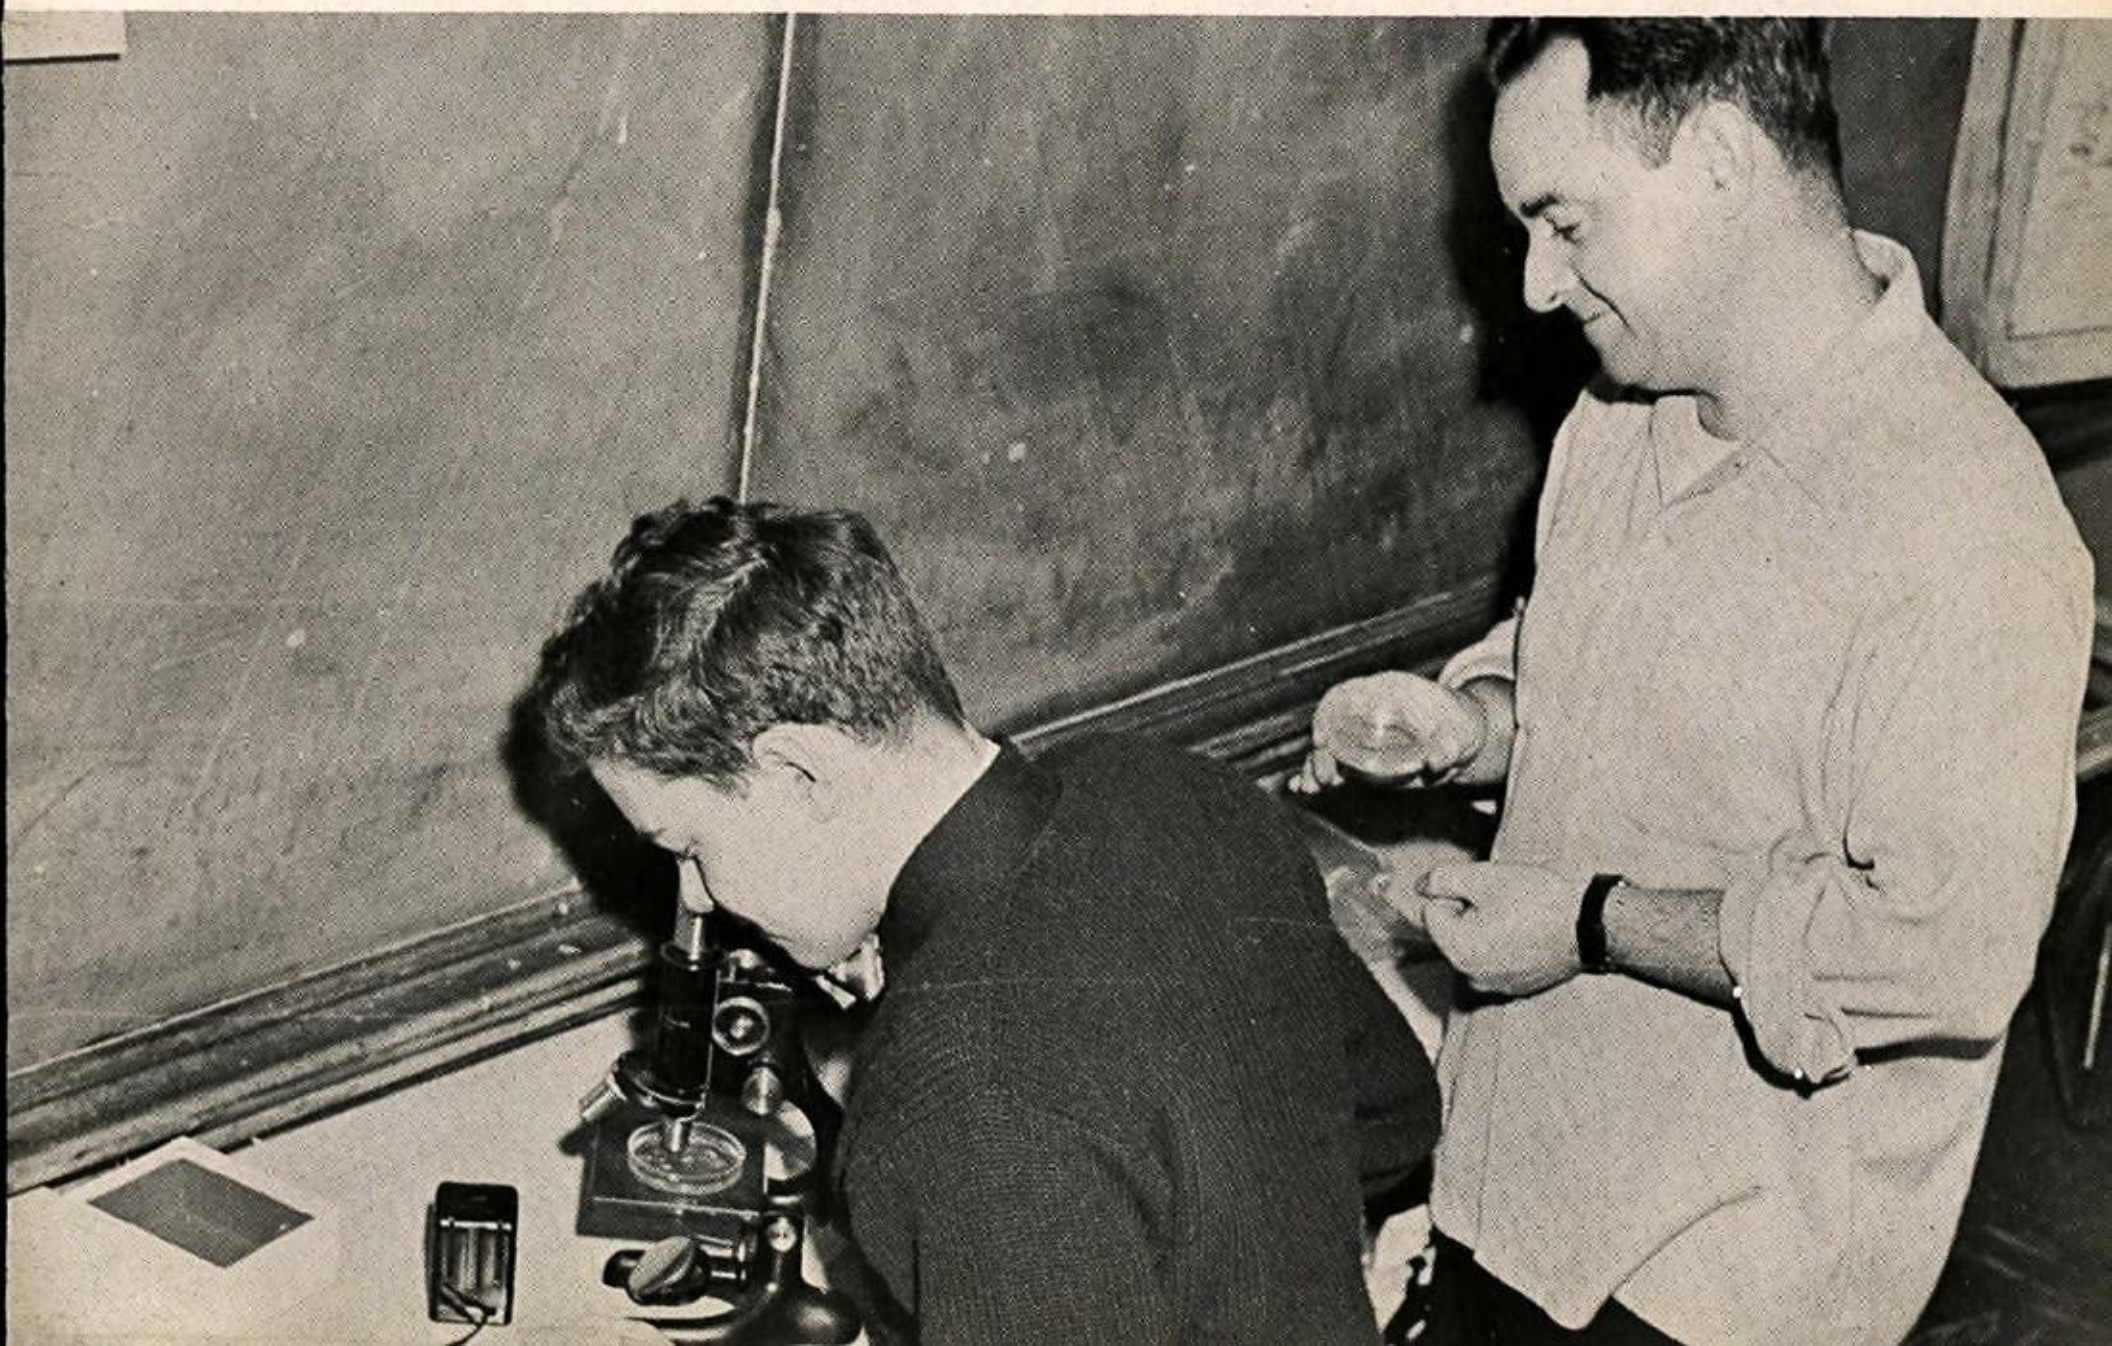
Father Venard assists M. McGroarty in his experiment showing the embryonic development of the chicken.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Under it All, Life is There For Us to See

The study of living things has fascinated man from the beginning. This year in particular, projects assigned to its various members have raised interest in the Biology Club to a new high. Capably directed by Father Venard, this group has the opportunity not only to solidify the knowledge given in the textbook, but also to work with apparatus that could profoundly influence the choice of a future scientific career. Life in all its various forms is really a quest or challenge to a young man as the club's members are willing to demonstrate.

H. Zealand explores a protozoan specimen under the approving eye of Father Venard.



We would be giving you only a portion of our presentation of the drama of high school life were we to omit the following scene. For here we present those clubs and activities which help us in school as well as in later life. Again they consume much of our free time, since most of them meet at night. They have their definite rewards however. We actually view them as much recreation or diversion as work, and once we found that secret, we went for them with a rare enthusiasm.

RADIO CLUB

The Wonderful World of Tubes and Wires

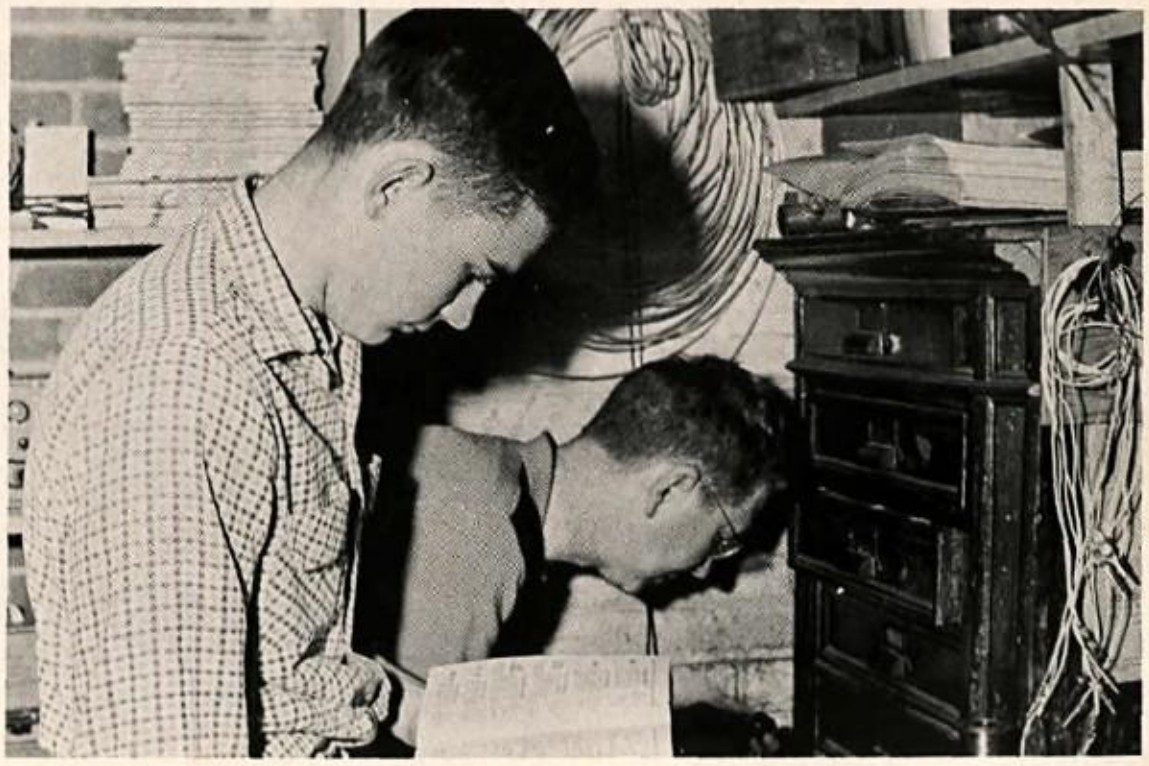
One of the most successful of all the organizations in Trenton Catholic is the Radio Club. Its primary purpose is to interest boys in the field of electronics, thus enabling them to work with modern radio and television equipment.

At informal meetings held weekly, students gather together and work on projects which range from the construction of small radios to the repair and maintenance of large television receivers. As in the past, Father Claude is the moderator of the club.

When in doubt, ask Father Claude to check the tubes.

M. Walsh, M. Lake and R. Traynor check the condensers of a homemade radio set.

W. Wenski makes adjustment on his cigar-box radio while A. Baier checks the circuit.



S. Toth and Fr. Claude probe the spare parts drawer for a much needed rectifier.

Club president E. D'Aquili, vice-president E. Petrus and secretary E. Sadovsky prepare their notes before the regular weekly meeting.

T.C. students take part in a student Congress at the Essex County courthouse.

Father Severin informs the members of their debate schedule.

FORUM CLUB

For All to Hear

The Forum Club, one of the oldest and best formative clubs in the school, is as yet carrying on its pleasant and highly vital task of developing the potentialities of our future leaders in government, community, journalism, business, world affairs and citizenship in general.

Its members study formal debate and learn to utilize in meetings, contests and preparatory sessions that vital right—the right to disagree.

Under the apt guidance of Father Severin, the group participates in Student Congresses and debates. The club does much declamatory, original and extemporaneous speaking. And of course there is dramatic, humorous and poetic interpretation.

By reason of these activities those students are becoming ideally progressive Trenton Catholic students and better citizens as well.

W. Dougherty listens intently as Father Severin interprets the proper inflection of an oratorical phrase.

Father Severin demonstrates the development of roll film by tank.

CAMERA CLUB

The Picture Worth the Thousand Words

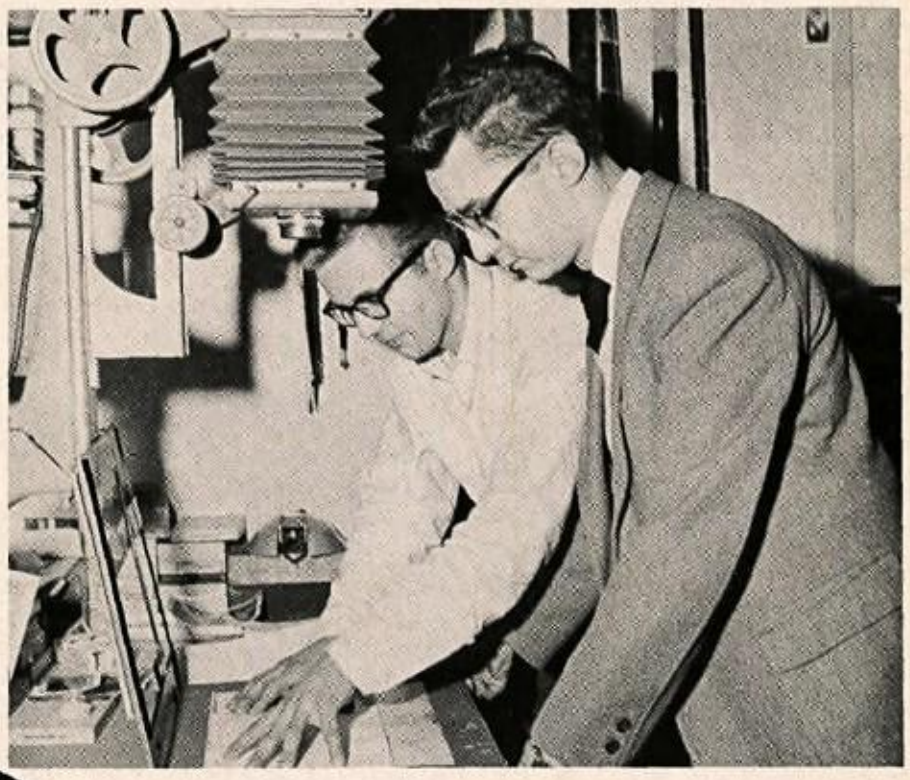
One of the most important organizations acting towards the ultimate success of the yearbook and the "Golden Wave" is the Camera Club. The Club is responsible for the hundreds of pictures in the award-winning Immaculata.

The organization, supervised by Father Severin, is divided into two separate groups. The first is composed of freshmen and novices, who are instructed in the rudiments of photography. The second, or more advanced group, is taught the technique of processing and enlarging.

The knowledge of both divisions of the Camera Club is supplemented with various lectures by trained technicians who from time to time make informal appearances at the regular meetings.

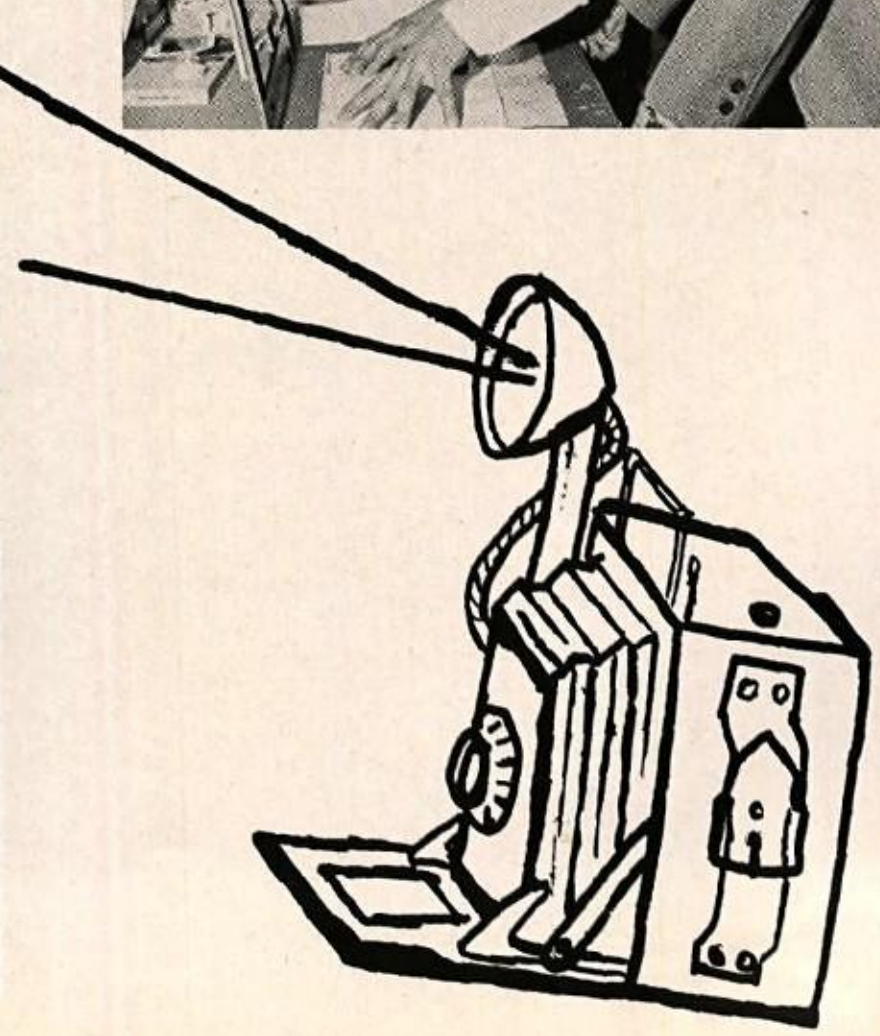
M. Zak, R. Mule, J. Boytos, and S. Balog examine a negative for contrast.

M. Zak and J. Boytos demonstrate the use of the Graflex Camera.



J. Wig and A. Kunter make enlargements in our well-equipped dark-room.

S. Balog and R. Mule seem pleased with the result of their efforts at enlarging.



Latin Club members with healthy appetites line up for their annual banquet.

No caption needed here!

Father Innocent shows E. D'Aquili, J. Kleiner, D. Pachuta, and J. Wagner one of the trophies their Latin Club has won.

LATIN CLUB

The Classics Are Not To Be Forgotten

This particular organization under the guidance of Father Innocent seeks to renew interest not only in the study of the Latin language, but to learn as much as possible of ancient Roman customs, Roman dress, their sporting events and in general their way of life. The value of such a club cannot be over-estimated since so much of our modern way of life—our laws, government and our customs—have had their origin in ancient Roman civilization. "Veni, vidi, vici" is still a good motto to remember when we face the difficulties of life in our times.

ACT II

Activities at Trenton Catholic are not limited to the classroom and clubroom. Many events take us into contact with parents, educators and business. Here associations help us to develop the poise and confidence necessary to our future success and happiness. Every experience we have is part of our education—social and academic. With this thought ever before us, we try to meet and greet these interested parties with appreciation and respect.

A Catholic high school graduate should be a well-rounded person. Therefore, our extra-curricular associations are varied. We try to keep abreast of fashions; we seek to attain the proper perspective of family life; we value religious experiences; we plan our post high school training. The value of these experiences is immeasurable.

ORCHESTRA

It Was Like Music From on High

The orchestra is an indispensable ingredient in the successful presentation of a musical play, and we at Trenton Catholic like to feel that our orchestra rates with the best. Composed of hand-picked talent under the direction of Mr. Joseph Mayer, these boys give many hours during the school year to the practice necessary for perfection in those things which good music demands. Every Tuesday afternoon finds them hard at work polishing and perfecting their timing and interpretation. A well-deserved hand for our orchestra and their conductor!

The Honorable Robert B. Meyner, governor of New Jersey, addresses the Fathers' Club as guest speaker.

Father Clarence congratulates J. Samonsky on his athletic achievements at the annual Fathers' Club Sports Banquet.

FATHERS' CLUB

An Important Part of Our Success

We like to think of this quiet and most-cooperative group of the fathers of Trenton Catholic students as the unsung stars of our production. Though relatively unpublicized, the combined efforts of these men do profoundly influence our life here at school. They actively support the school very literally by frequent financial contributions to its up-keep and improvement. The annual sports banquet is fortunate to have them for its sponsor and for several years they have maintained scholarships for worthy students. Every year too, all the fathers have a chance to make an annual day of recollection for their own spiritual improvement. These "men in the wings" truly have a part in the life and spirit of Trenton Catholic and are capably directed by their moderator, Father Bartholomew. Sincere thanks for all you have done for us.

Officers of the Fathers' Club are: (Seated) Mr. John Kurtz, Mr. John Pollard, Father Bartholomew, moderator, and Mr. James Meehan; (Standing) Mr. John Wilkinson and Mr. Paul Koenig.

The officers of the Parent-Teacher Association for this year are the following mothers: (Seated) Mrs. Joseph Piffat, Mrs. John Gallagher and Mrs. Julius Papp; (Standing) Mrs. Thomas Dunn and Mrs. Thomas Begley.

A Close Bond Between Parent and School

One of the largest and most active organizations in the entire school, the Parent-Teacher Association affords the perfect opportunity for bettering both the relations of parent and teacher and the scholastic improvement of the student concerned. To gain support for its activities, this devoted and well-directed group sponsors a fashion show and an annual Christmas party for the faculty among their events. It is truly a vital cog in the smooth administration of Trenton Catholic, and is well directed by our principal, Father Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kurtz confer with Father Armand to determine the scholastic progress of their son.

Advice and suggestions are given by Fathers Matthias, Howard and John Joseph to interested parents.

Despite bad weather, many parents and students came to hear the representatives of the various colleges and universities.

COLLEGE NIGHT

We are proud to say that Trenton Catholic gives every student intending to go on for higher studies a wonderful opportunity to obtain firsthand information on many colleges in New Jersey and the surrounding states. Personal representatives of these colleges and universities are invited to speak to possible prospects from the junior and senior classes and their parents, and to answer all their questions personally and completely. This is College Night at Trenton Catholic and we rightfully boast of the fact that T.C. has always had more than its share of students who go on to college. This program is ably conducted by Father Casimir, our guidance director.

A representative of Villanova University, Father John Klekotka, explains to his listeners the advantages, costs, etc., of his institution.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

The honor guard leaves the church after the Memorial Mass.

Trenton Catholic, like most other schools, has contributed her share of young men to the armed forces of our beloved country. In the fortunes of war, many of these former students have laid down their lives in the glorious cause of freedom, and here at Trenton Catholic they are not forgotten. Besides the constant remembrance of them in our prayers, we offer them our solemn gratitude with a special November Mass for the eternal rest that is theirs. Present students who are in the armed forces reserves act as a guard of honor at this memorial service which the entire student body attends as well as the parents of the deceased.

May their souls rest in peace!

Father Quintin, a reserve chaplain, reads the commerative prayers after the Mass of the memorial service.

SOCIAL CLUB

A Real Outlet for Fun and Dance

In sheer numbers alone, the Social Club of Trenton Catholic is by far the most popular organization in school. Dances throughout this school year have not been unknown to exceed a thousand teen-agers. Membership is limited to the students of Trenton Catholic, Cathedral Girls High and Villa Victoria Academy. On occasion, guests are admitted to the dances, the music for which is supplied by local orchestras. Very capably directed by Father Cecil, the club furnishes light refreshments and games for those who "care to sit this one out" or who cannot keep up the dancing pace. We might say that the Social Club is like an intermission between the acts of a play in which to pause and draw breath. Around the holidays, the Social Club dances look like "old home week," when many former T.C. students who are now in college drop by to spend a pleasant evening with some of their former schoolmates and teachers. May our Social Club continue to be as popular in the future as it now is.

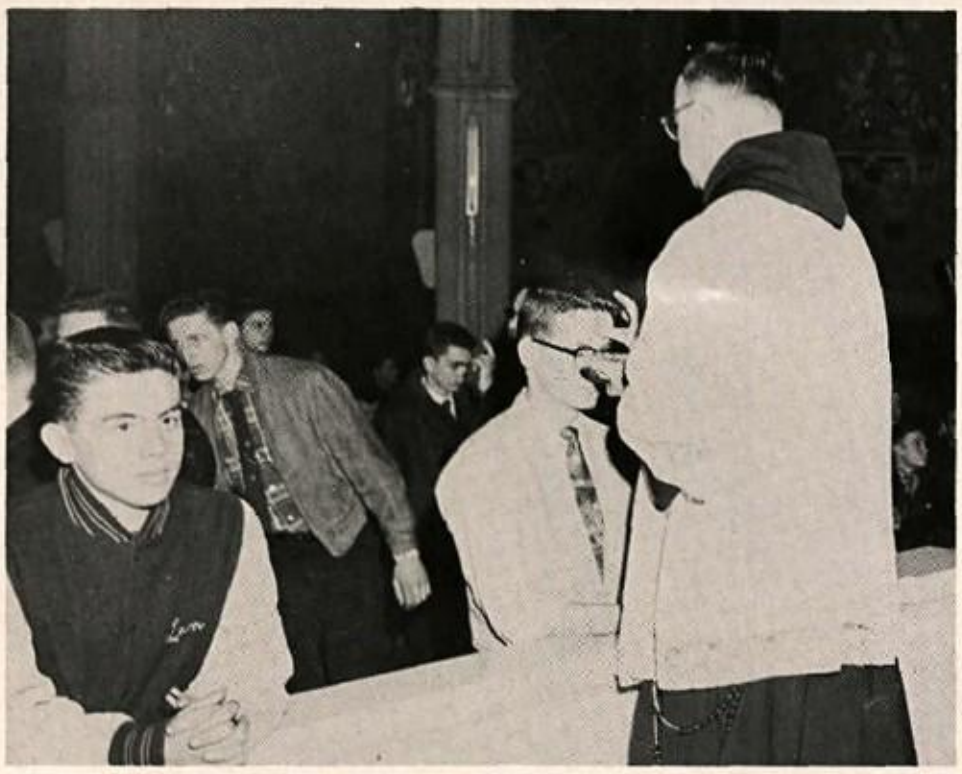
SPECIAL EVENTS

The everyday routine of high school is often broken. These frequent interruptions are both welcome and rewarding. They appear in the form of religious demonstrations, pep rallies, educational talks, etc. These special events are not connected with any club or organization because they are unique unto themselves. Therefore, we have prepared this section to highlight such incidents.



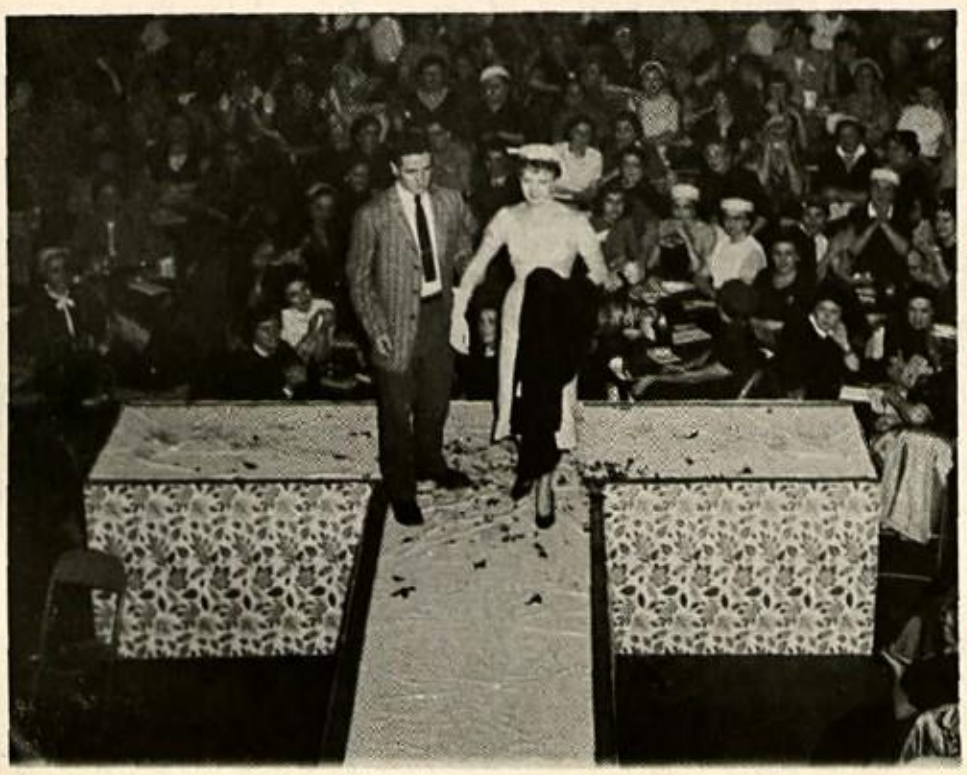
On Ash Wednesday, Father Rembert distributes the blessed ashes to M. Cody as L. Matysek waits to receive this sacramental.

The Glee Club of St. Joseph's College entertains parents and faculty as a special part of the March Parent-Teacher meeting.

It's always a special event when you have your picture taken with your date at the Junior Prom, as J. Tozzi will tell you.

J. Wagner and his partner meet with unanimous approval in their latest fashions.

George Lucas and Jo Ann Bresnen pause during the P.T.A. Fashion Show.



R. Pollard escorts Jo Ann Bresnen.

"It's back to the good old days!" Five Cathedral High girls renew memories of the "roaring twenties"—and beyond.

FASHION SHOW

Perhaps the most gala event of the school year aside from the Junior Prom is the Fashion Show. Under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association, this event strives to bring to the public eye the latest fashions in evening wear and fall and winter apparel. Most of the models were students from Trenton Catholic and Cathedral High School. The gowns, tuxedos, sports jackets and coats were loaned by F. W. Donnelly and Son. Many of the mothers too modeled exquisite fur wraps, stoles and coats of lush mink and muskrat. The evening was termed a big success by all who participated in it and the large audience who witnessed it.

Every successful school emphasizes close student-faculty relationship. This has typified our years here at Trenton Catholic.

This scene shows the joyous hours which have become part of our normal high school life. The senior trip—the Junior Prom—the hours spent at these functions form memories which shall remain with us in later life, keeping us in close contact with our alma mater. The Band, where many musical vocations are born and fostered, has become a valuable and popular student organization.

In all these activities the ever-present hand of the Franciscan Fathers leads us along the road to a richer life.

BAND

One of the prime factors adding to the color and excitement of several of the school's activities is the school band. Under the guidance of Father Kenan and Mr. Joseph Mayer, this organization has provided fine entertainment for our students, especially at athletic contests.

This year's marching band, one of the largest in the school's history, provided many fine performances during the football season, concluding with the season's finale at the Trenton High School field.

A recent innovation at the student assemblies has been the playing of the Trenton Catholic Dance Band. This consists of a group chosen from the marching band to entertain the crowd with various selections from the field of popular music.

JUNIOR PROM

The Loveliest Night of The Year

With the staging of the Junior Prom, the social season of Trenton Catholic comes to its conclusion. The Prom is the last major social highlight in the high school days of the seniors. This is the part where he finds himself the honored guest. There is dancing into the late hours of the night and refreshments available for all to enjoy. Held every year on the Eve of Ascension Thursday, a "name" orchestra is engaged to provide the entertainment, and all in all, it is an event to be long remembered.

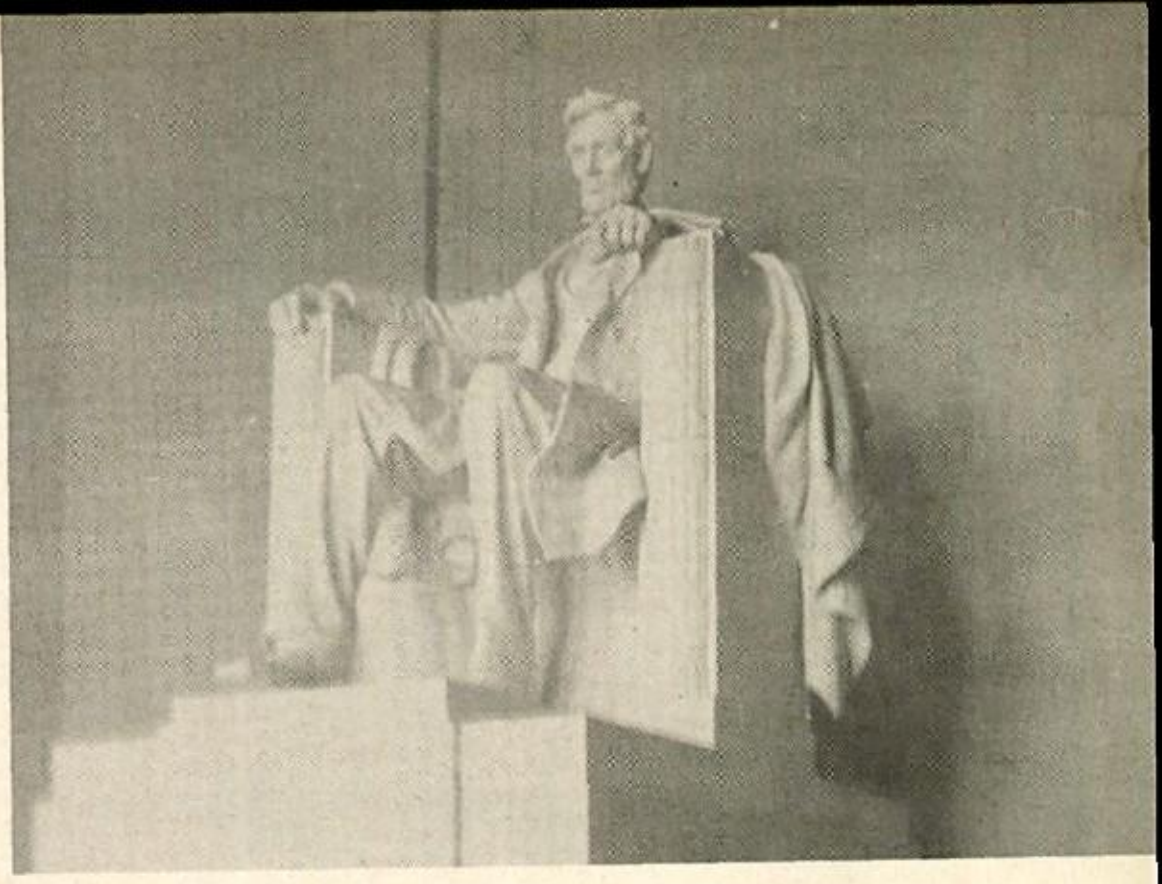
C. Bertolini and R. Mule offer their dates a refreshing glass of punch.

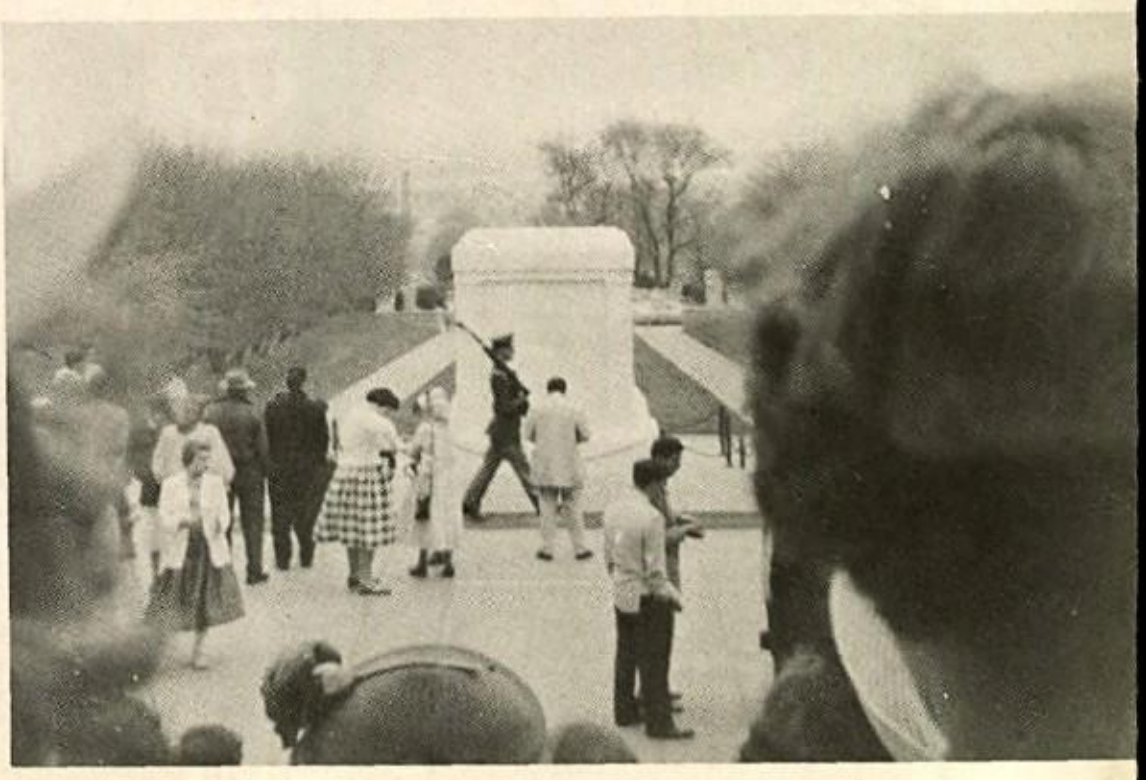
F. Chiantese, M. Angebranndt and H. DeGeorge and their dates "sit this one out" and chat pleasantly.

The Lincoln Memorial is one of the first stops on the Senior trip.



Always a beautiful sight is the Reflecting Pool and the Washington Monument.

Probably the most awe-inspiring sight on the whole itinerary is the changing of the guard at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.



SENIOR TRIP

The Senior Trip, during which many of our nation's foundling landmarks are visited, lasts four days during the spring of the school year. It is a time when the thoughts of graduation and the worries of school life are forgotten in preference to the carefree days of sight-seeing in our nation's capitol. For the most part, the seniors are taken on tours of the governmental buildings and the various museums and other points of interest throughout the capitol. Although much of the time is taken up by tours, there is some free time during which the seniors may see more of the city on their own. With the commencing of the senior trip, these upperclassmen have yet to look forward to graduation day and the completion of High School.

E. Petrus and R. Tiedemann pause on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial and chat about what they have already seen on their Washington holiday.

The crisp smell of burning autumn leaves and the tang in the air herald the advent of fall sports. The perennial favorite, football, dominates the scene. But we are proud too of another sport we enjoy here at Trenton Catholic, a game somewhat similar to football, but according to its adherents, much faster and livelier — that's soccer. The scores indicate little, for it is not the result on the score-board that determines the value of a team, but what that sport has given us and how we responded to both victory and defeat.

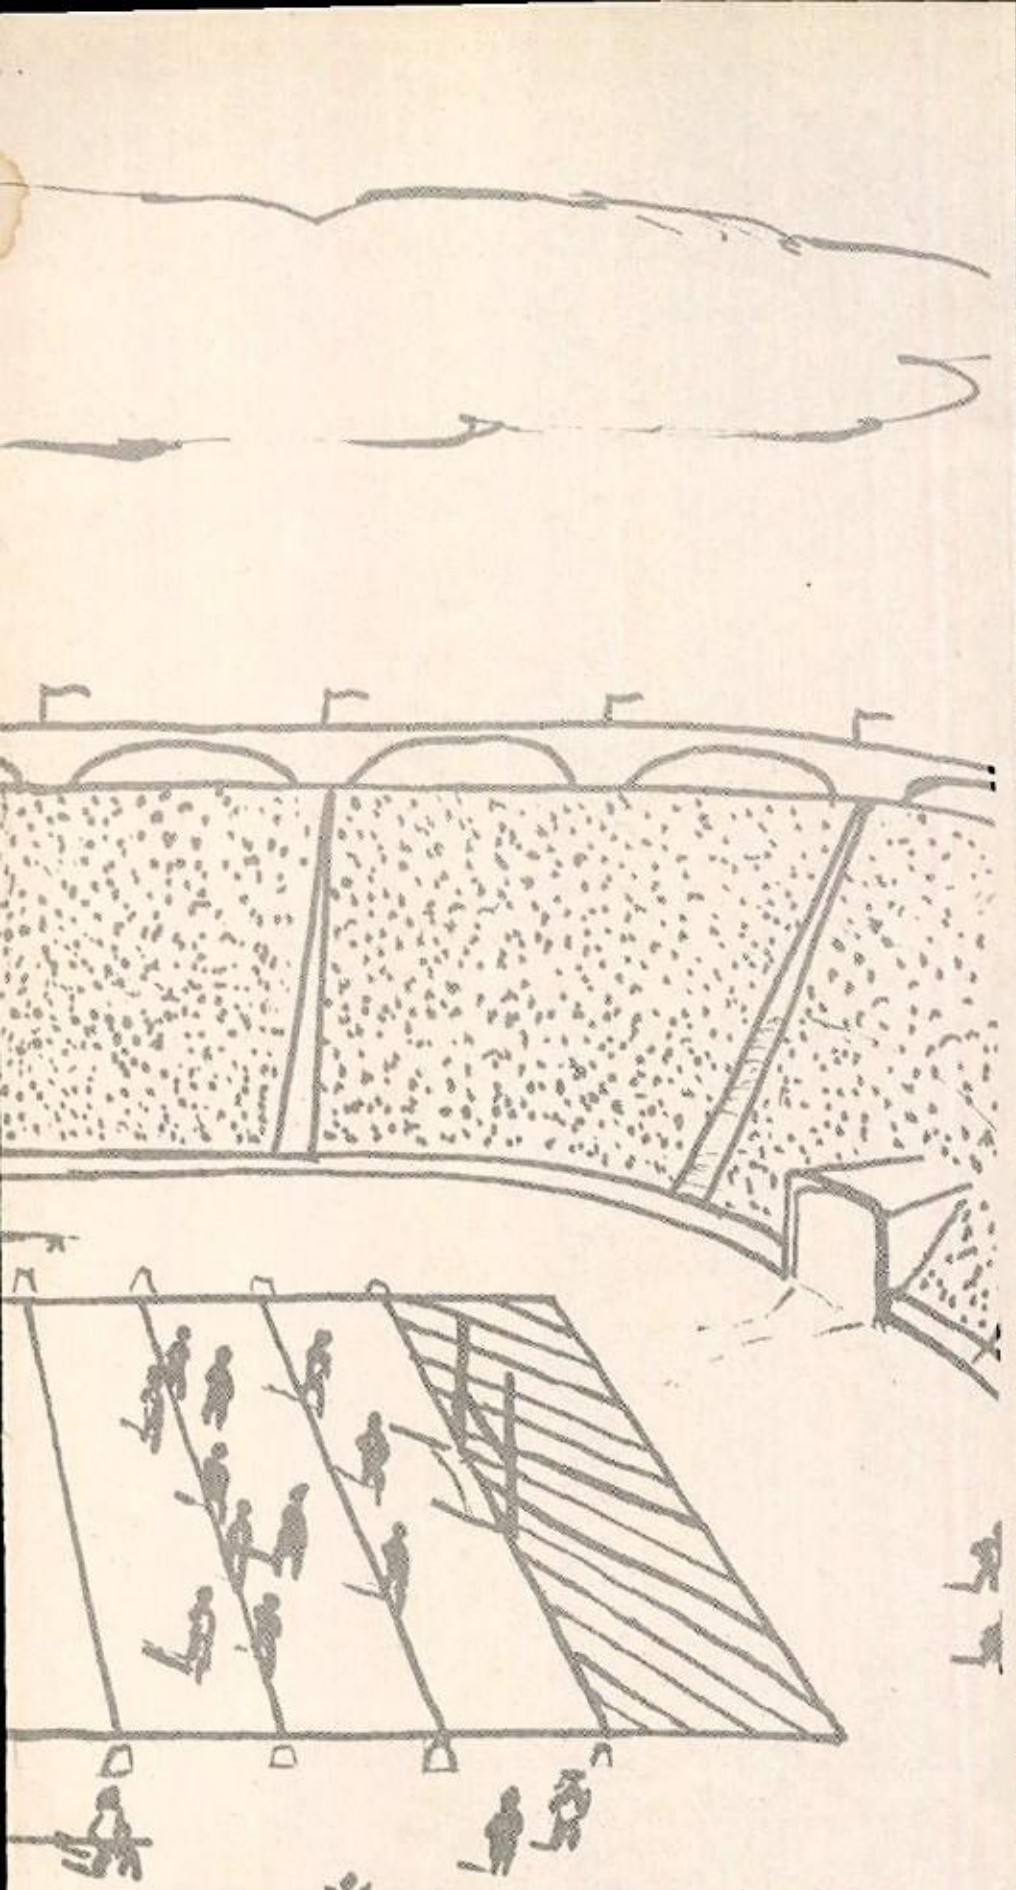
FOOTBALL



Hold that line! Block that kick! Familiar shouts as your team struggles for superiority on the gridiron. This year a new but capable coach directed a group composed mainly of underclassmen with sophomores predominating. He molded of them a unit which will know in the future much more of the sweet taste of success. They will see by their performance then what the rehearsals and performances of this year have accomplished.

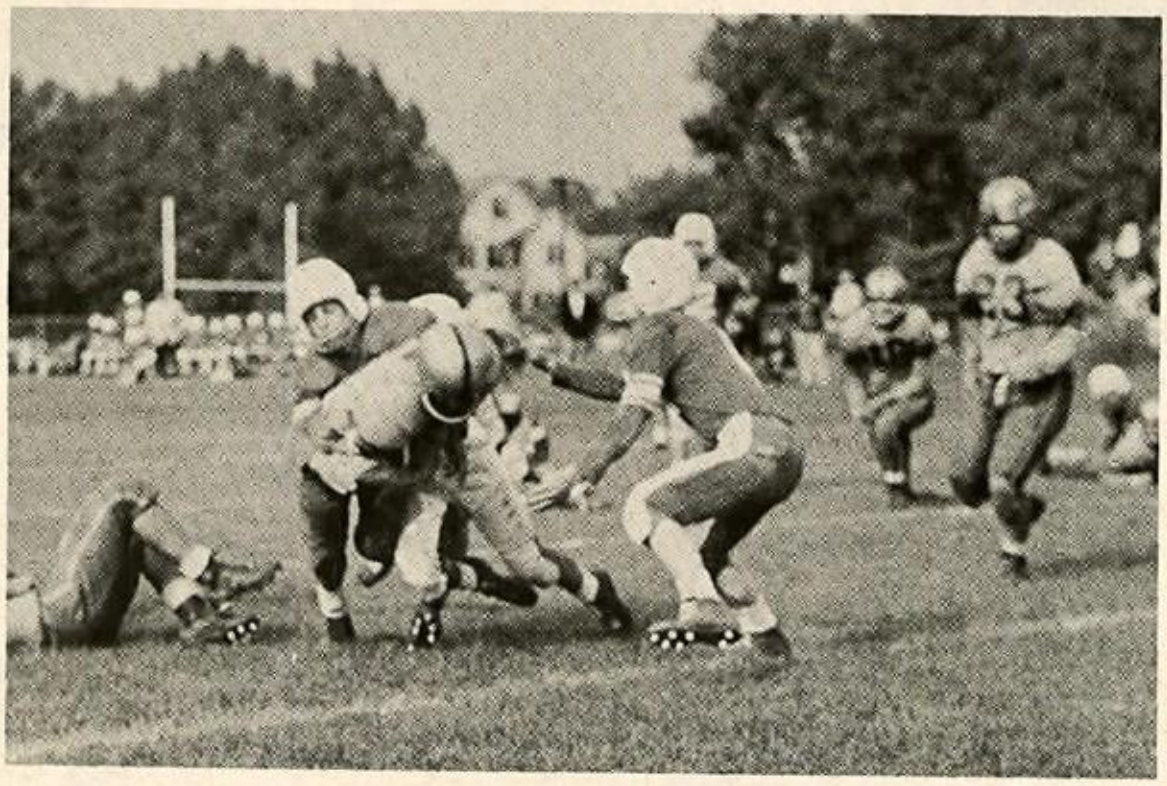
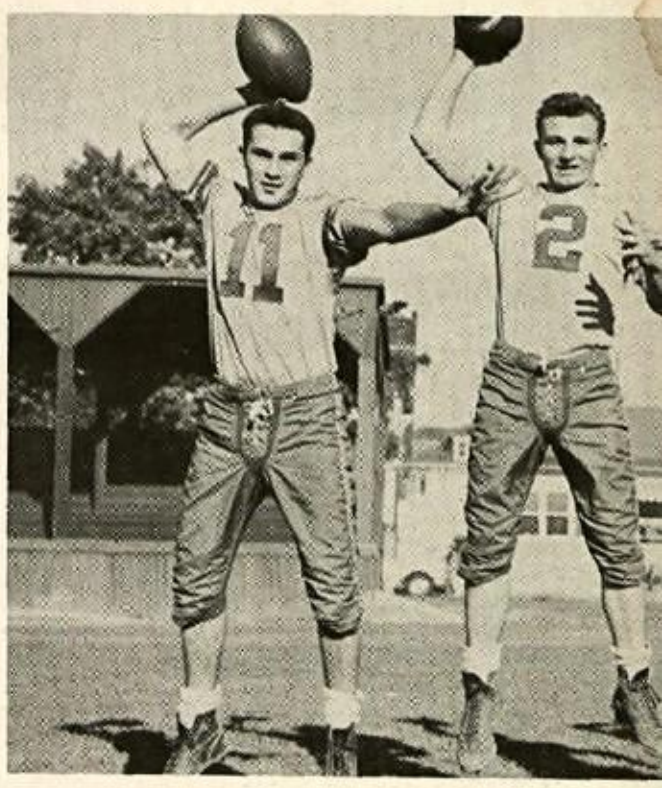
R. Vecchio hit hard as he meets onrushing Hamilton linemen.

Coach Cannone gives S. Doral a few pointers during the Seton Hall game.



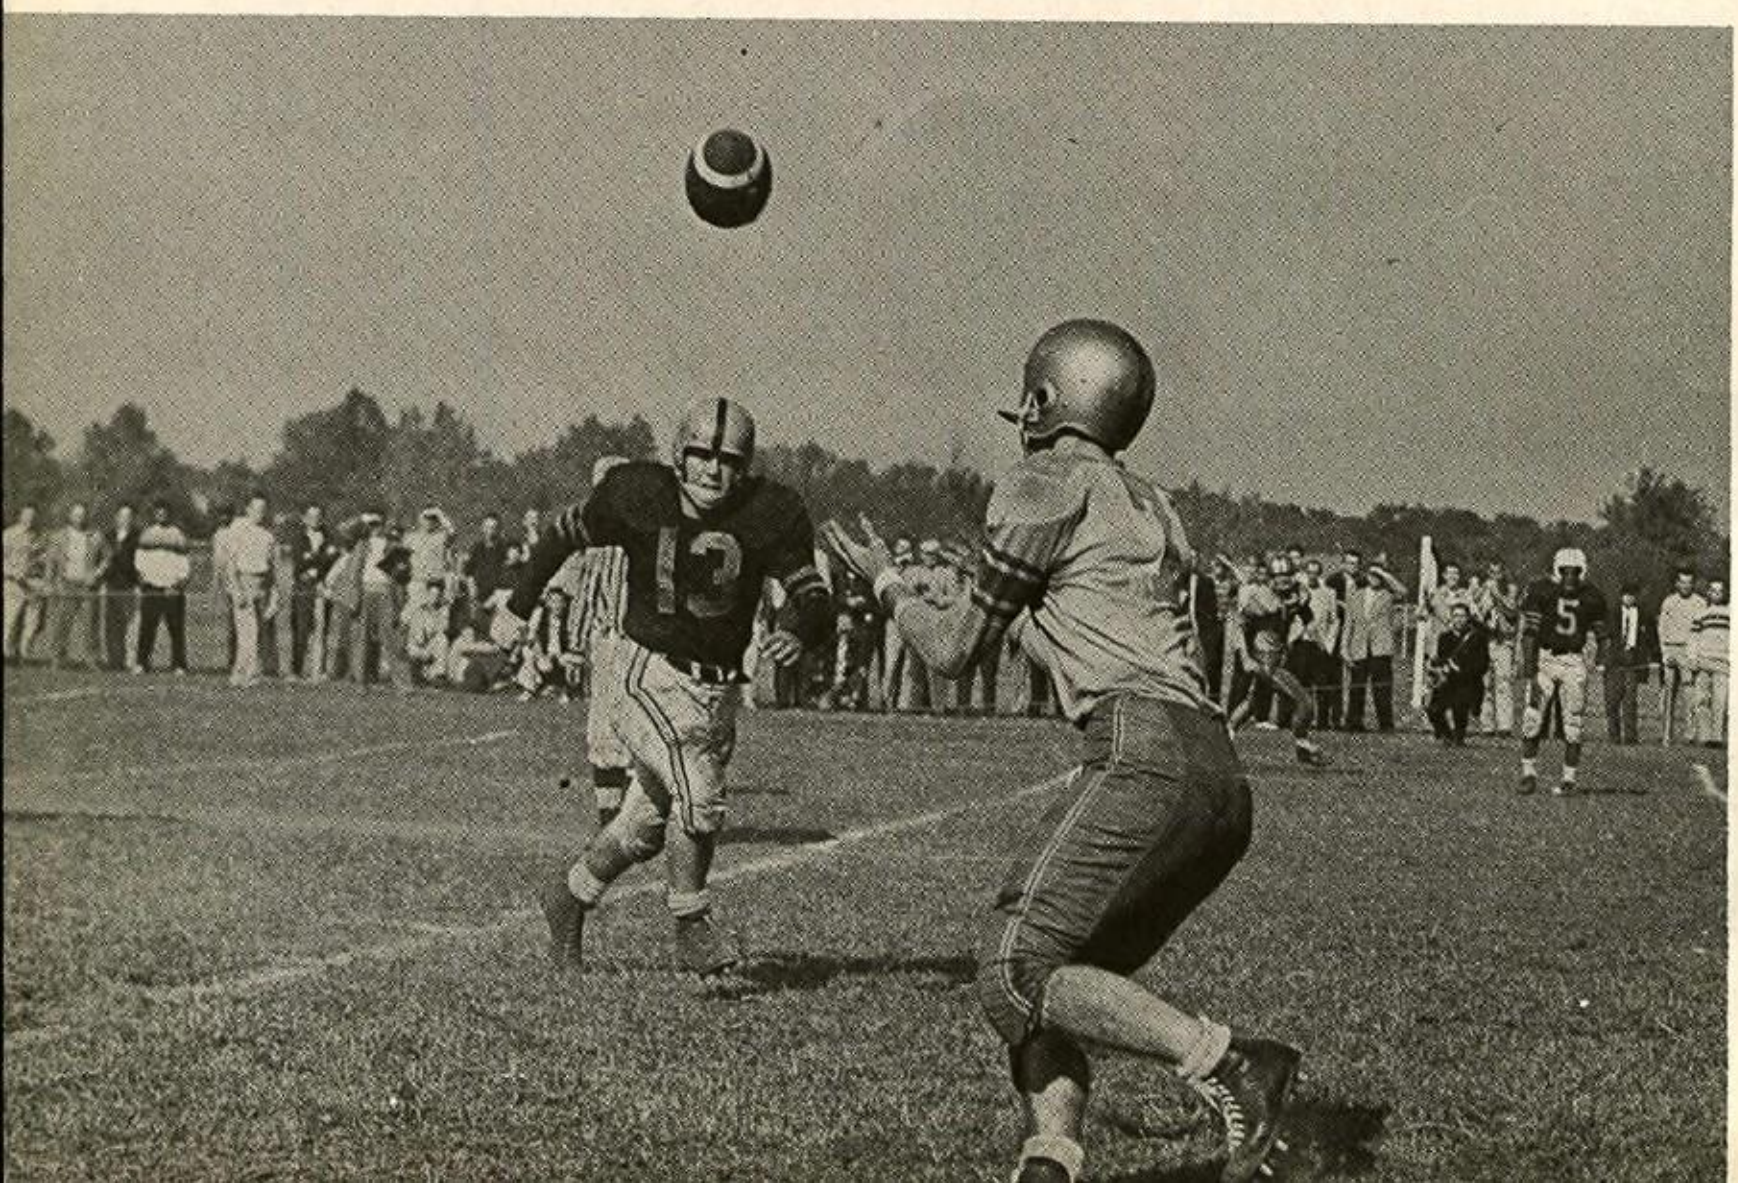
It's two to one against Joe Keevish, but he still makes gain against Seton Hall.



Zdanowicz, Tozzi, Vecchio and Murphy limber up on the practice field.

Get That Ball

It's Murphy to Doral again—this time good for 30 yards.



Hey Man! You don't swallow it—you catch it!

Block That Kick!

Seton Hall defender hits Vecchio as he scampers around right end for good yardage.

Coach Cannone instructs L. Gilbert and J. Hyska how to hit that dummy as L. Kelly illustrates.

Hit 'em Low and Hit 'em Hard!

There has never been a year in which the football team at Trenton Catholic has gone without one victory at least. To keep that record intact, this year's team took the measure of Red Bank Catholic in a show of fortitude and determination.

Somebody was tripped up, but who??

Loose Ball and Doral scrambles for the elusive pig-skin.

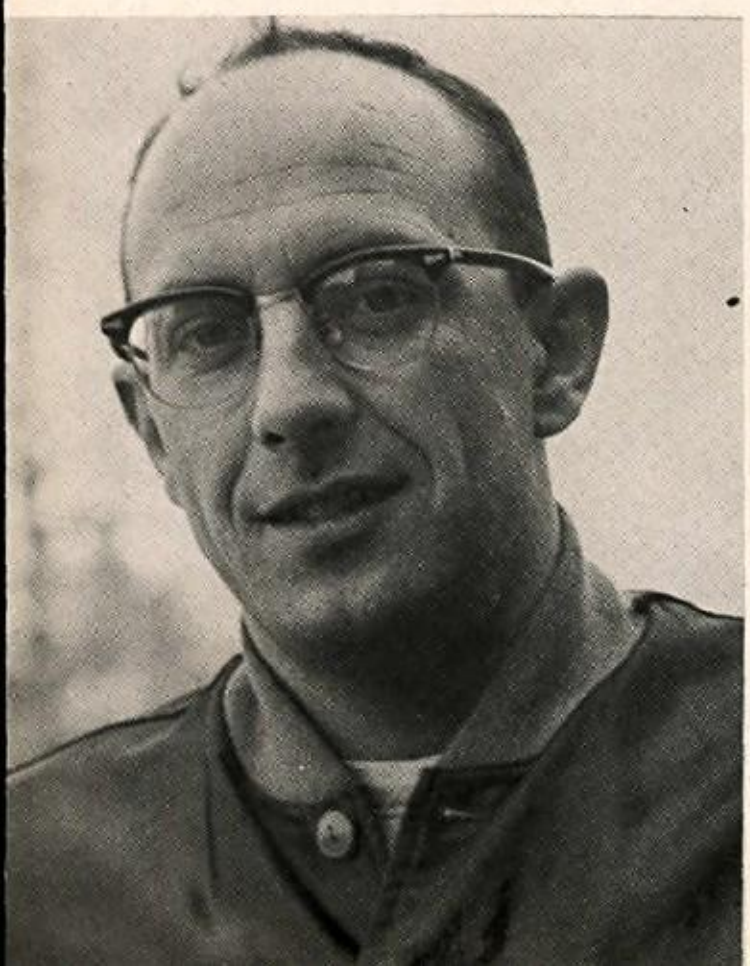
FR. NOEL — Freshman Coach



For enthusiasm alone, the freshman team is worth watching. Coached by Father Noel, the yearlings get their first real taste of football on the high school level. This is the beginning of a team whose performance is greatly influenced by a new idea—love for their new alma mater.

SOCCER

Directed by Father Marcellus and Father Leslie, the varsity and jayvee soccer squads showed to the fans of the area that this sport is again on the rise here at Trenton Catholic. As each new season comes, these teams seem to be making more of a name for themselves. We are proud to say that the coaching shown our soccer candidates has paid off both on the local and national scenes.

J.V.

Once the trees are bare and we know that ol' man Winter has arrived, the sports schedule takes us indoors—to the basketball court and the wrestling mats. We are proud to say that Trenton Catholic has met with more than its share of success here. The patient hours of practice have paid off—the roles we have rehearsed so hard for are now played to perfection.

While the wrestling season has been one of rebuilding, the basketball teams—varsity, junior varsity and freshman squads—had the ready material, went "over the top" and had a banner year. The winter of nineteen fifty-seven is one that will go down in the record books as a classic season and is one that will not be forgotten easily by the myriad fans of Trenton Catholic. You will see why on the following pages.

UNDEFEATED STATE CHAMPS!

VARSITY SQUAD
First row: J. Paulaski, F. Kokotajlo, R. Pollard, R. Piotrowski and C. Hess. Second row: S. Kardos, J. Reddan, J. Samonsky, J. Dempsey and C. Wrobel.

Just about every record in the books was shattered by this year's Trenton Catholic varsity basketball squad. If one were to review the local papers' headlines, he would read items like these—"Wave Still Undefeated," "City Champs," "County Champs," "Class A Catholic State Champs," "New Wave Record," "Catholic Dominates All-City With Three," and a host of similar headlines. All-State John Samonsky, varsity center since his sophomore year, went well above the one thousand point mark. Teammate Bob Piotrowski set a new individual scoring record for one season with five hundred thirty-nine points.

Trenton Catholic led the field at the twentieth Eastern States Catholic Invitation Tournament at Newport, Rhode Island, winning the championship for the first time and coming home with a host of trophies. All in all, twenty-five consecutive victories!

The future of basketball looks bright for us here too. Our junior varsity squad lost only one contest in its campaign and the frosh came through with its record unblemished. Congratulations to all three squads and their coaches, Father Clarence and Father Kenan, on the most victorious basketball season Trenton Catholic has ever seen.

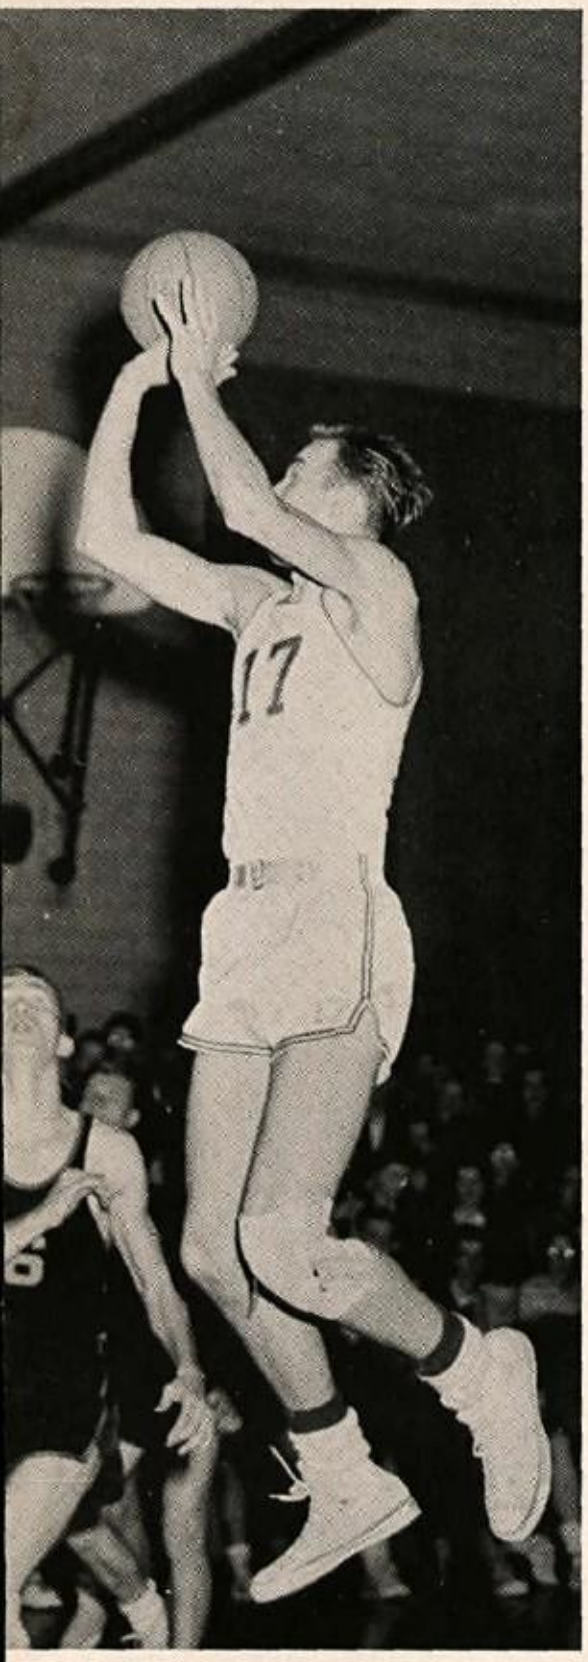
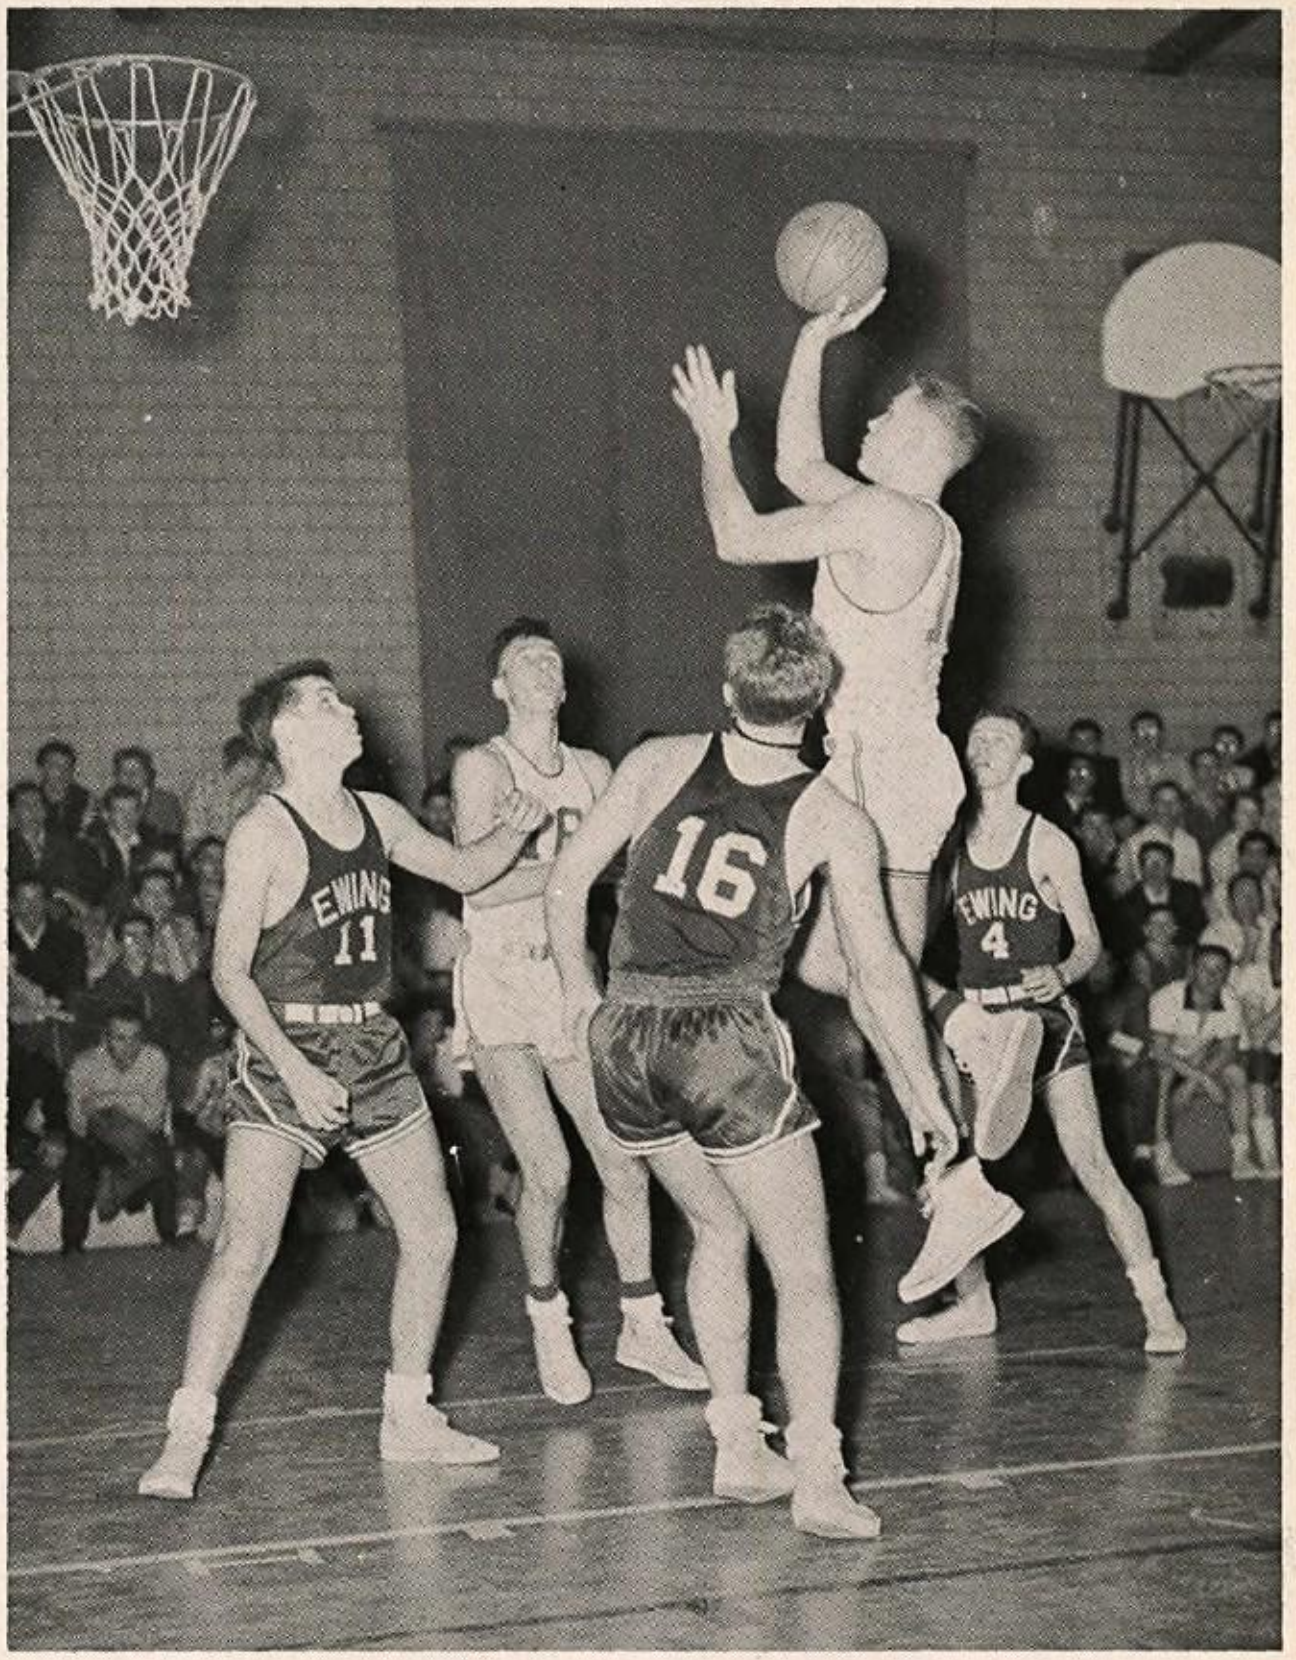
A BANNER YEAR

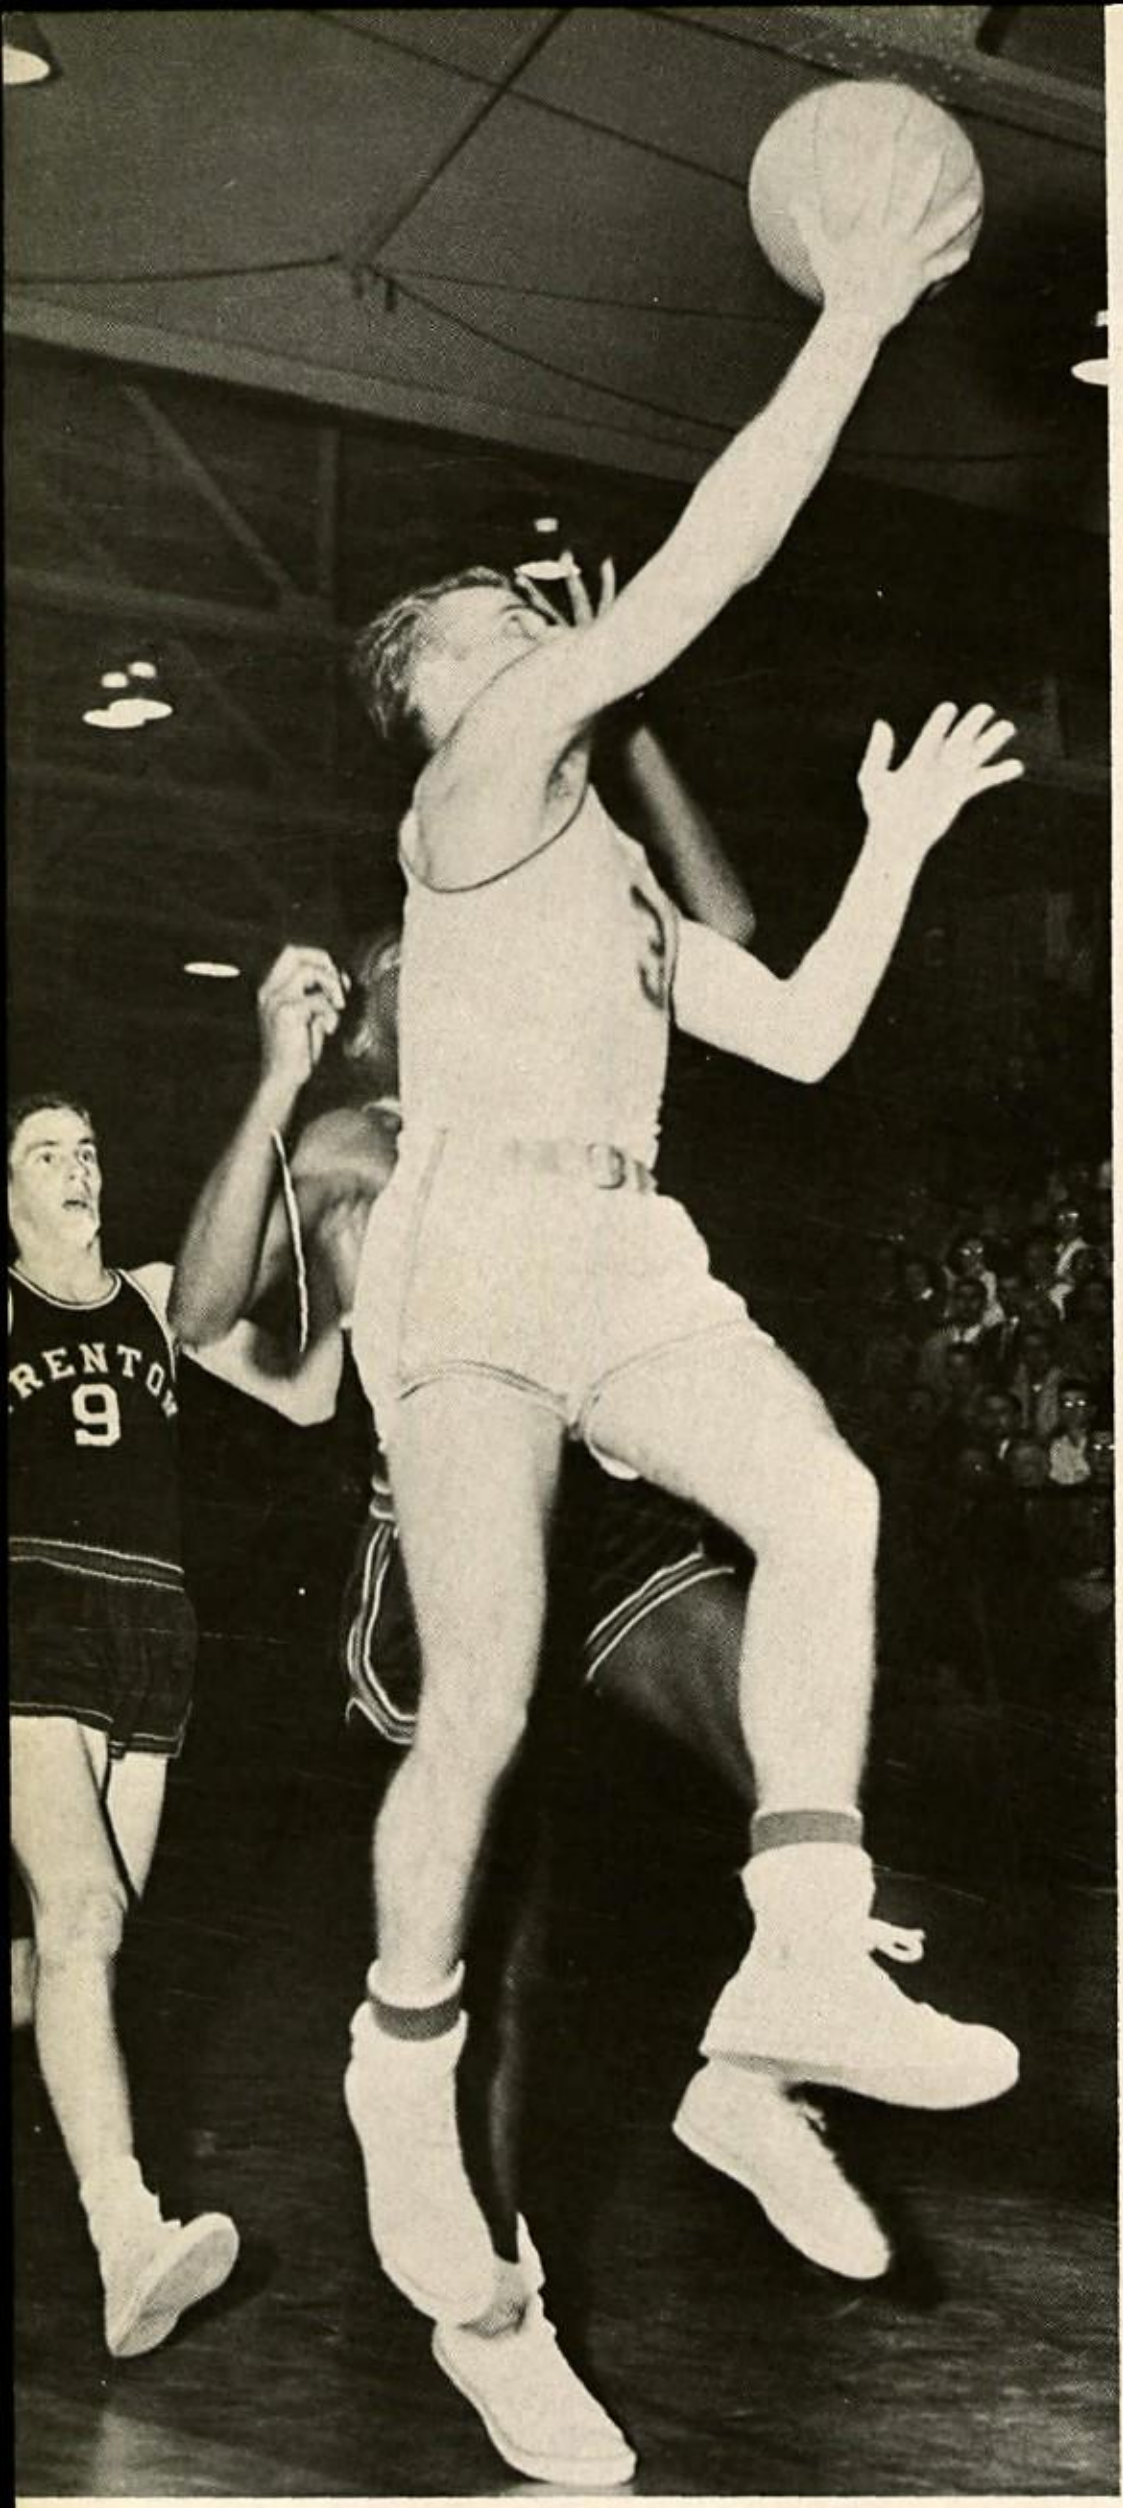
FOR THE GOLDEN WAVE



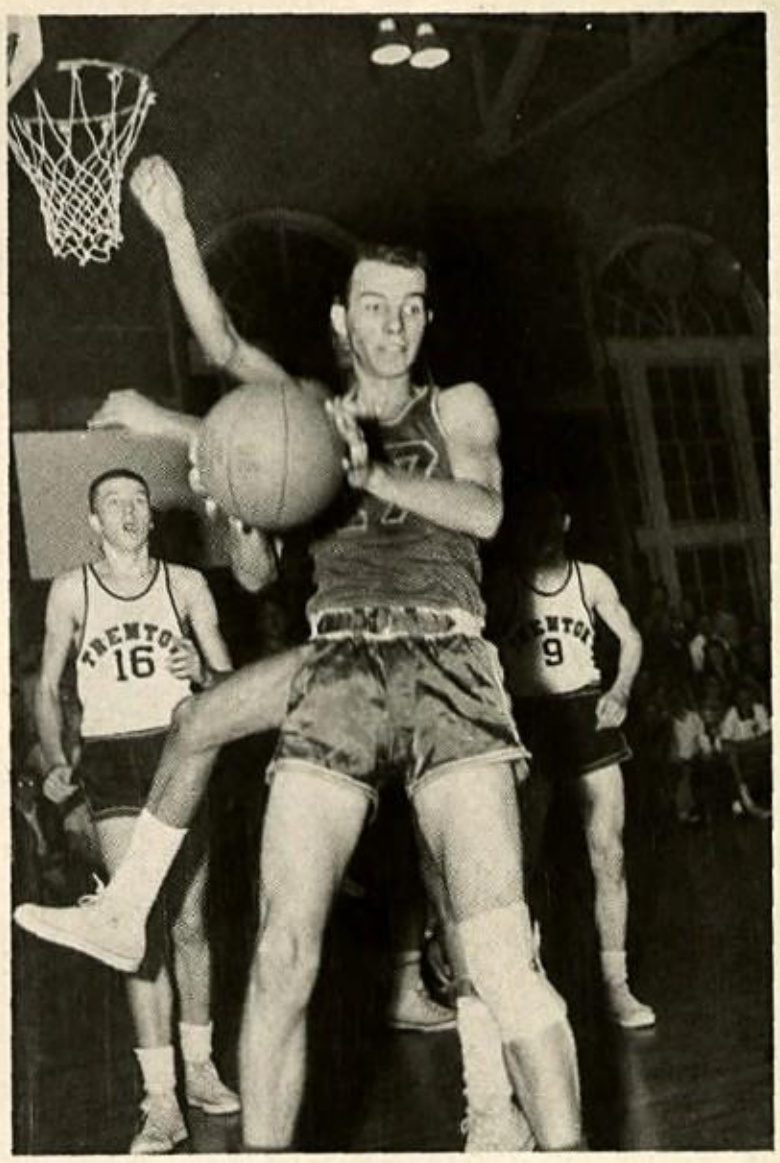


Eye on the basket, J. Samonsky hits on a jumper against Ewing.

Pandemonium breaks loose in the locker room after the last game of the regular season as the jubilant Wave players hoist Father Clarence to their shoulders.

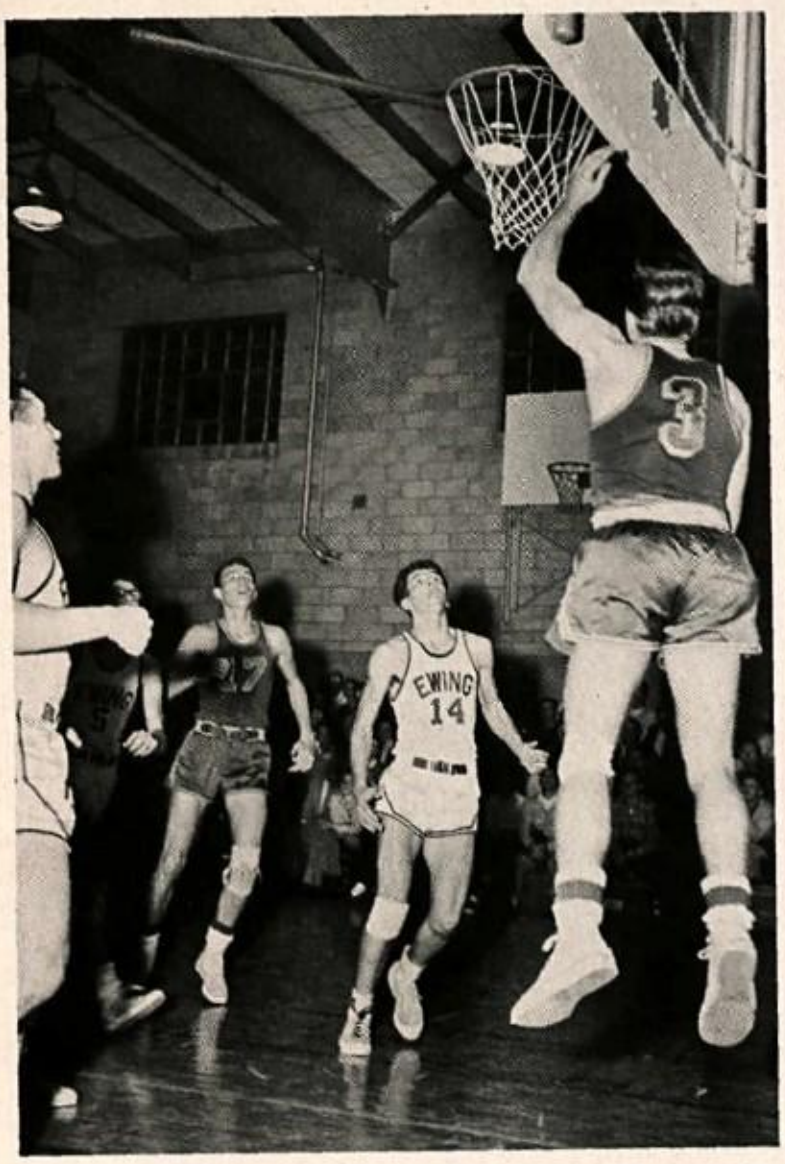


R. Piotrowski drives in for a fast basket.



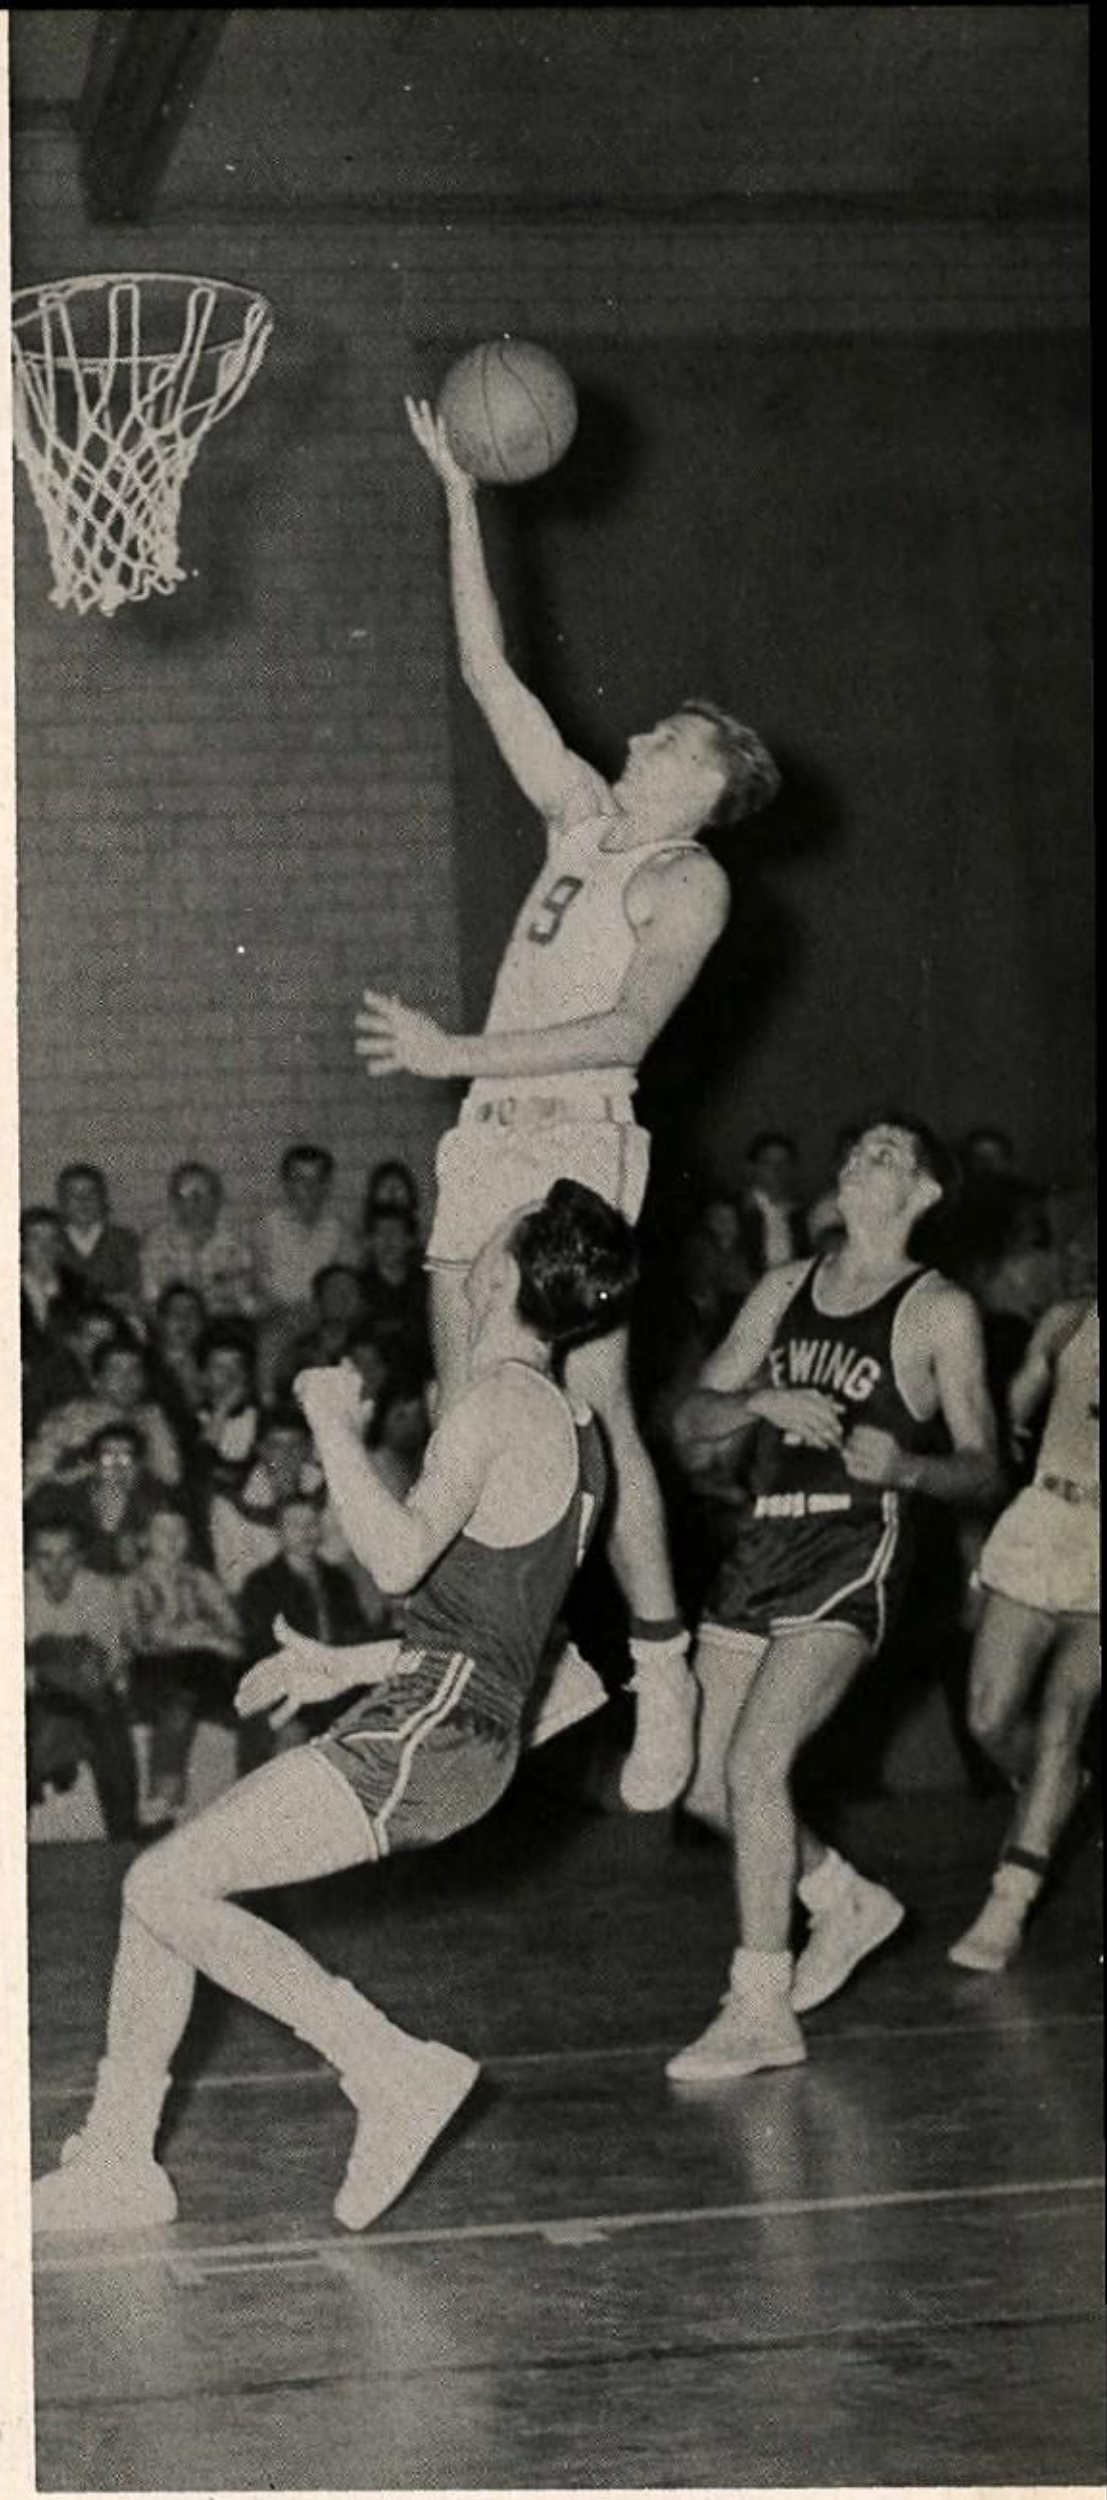
J. Dempsey takes one off the board much to his opponent's chagrin.

An interception by J. Reddan helps to change the complexion of the game.



It looks like R. Piotrowski came out of the bleachers to put in this two-point bucket.

J. Paulaski demonstrates the art of outside dribbling.

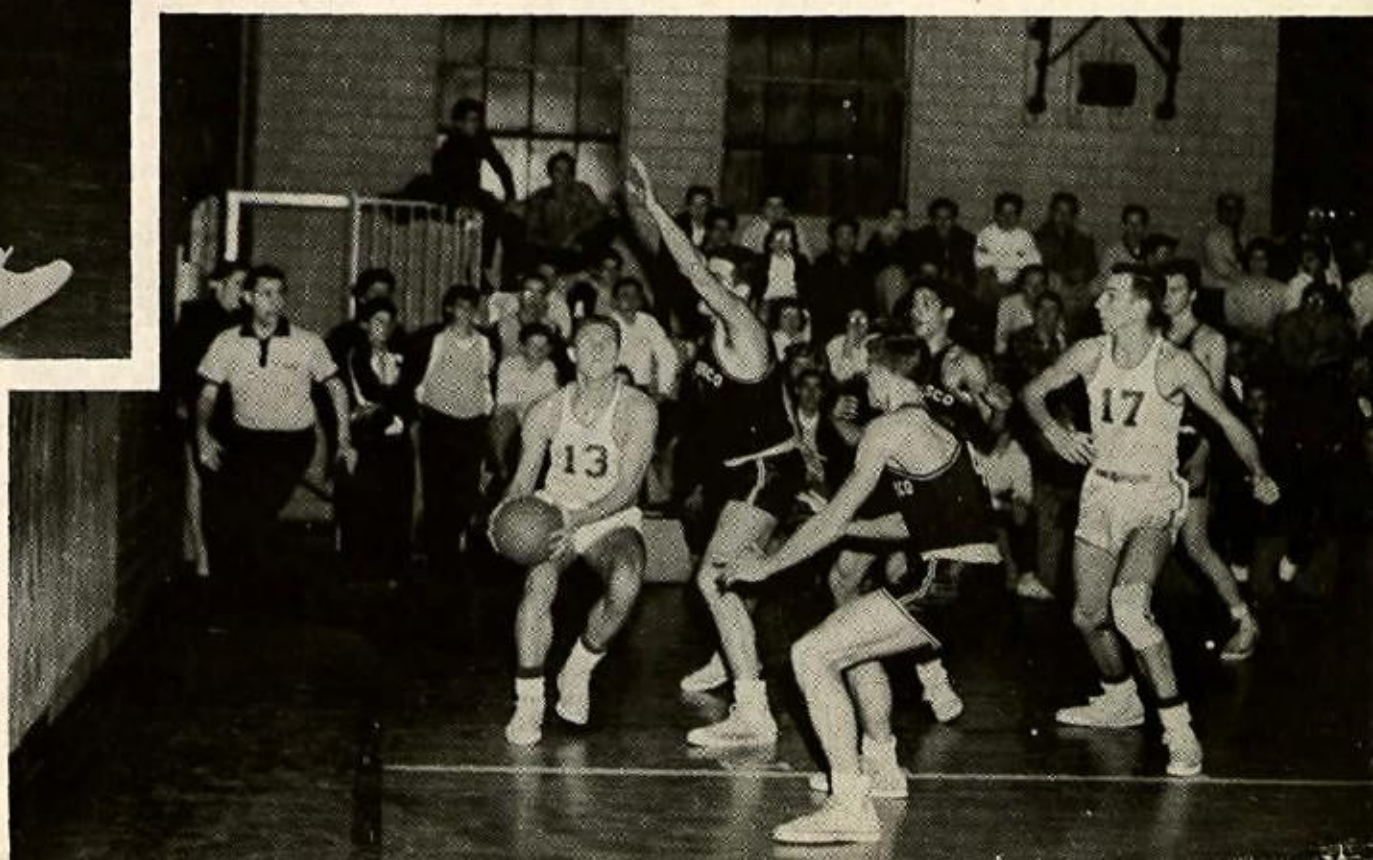


S. Kardos makes like a bird and sails up to lay one in.

C. Hess plays it close to the board for a fast push-up.

One of the best dribblers on the squad, R. Piotrowski gets an escort on his way to the basket.

Charging in from the side, J. Samonsky looks for his opening under the board.



R. Pollard lets fly with a long, high one-hand poke.

"Look, Ma, I'm dancing," says a T.C. opponent.

Tap-off of the final game for an undefeated season. (J. Samonsky does the honors against Trenton High's big Bob Bryant.)

JUNIOR VARSITY SQUAD

First row: E. Denahan, R. Plumeri and R. Hoffman. Second row: L. Gilbert, J. Cyborski, R. Chiorello and W. Warner. Third row: J. Sullivan and P. Kennedy.

W. Warner gets behind the defense and chalks up two points.

JV

Keeping up right on the heels of the varsity, our J.V. squad went through one of their best seasons with an almost perfect record. The only loss of the entire season, including their Christmas Tourney, came at the hands of a "red-hot" Trenton High team in their first of two encounters. With the return of several letter-men plus the "up-and-comers" from the J.V. squad, next year's varsity is already looking toward another undefeated season.

The greatest string of consecutive victories ever rung up by a Trenton Catholic basketball team is possessed by our freshman squad. The Wave yearlings over a stretch of four years have notched seventy-five straight wins—something of a record, we think. They and their coach, Father Kenan, deserve our heartiest congratulations on another undefeated season and the incredible skein of victories so far attained.

WRESTLING

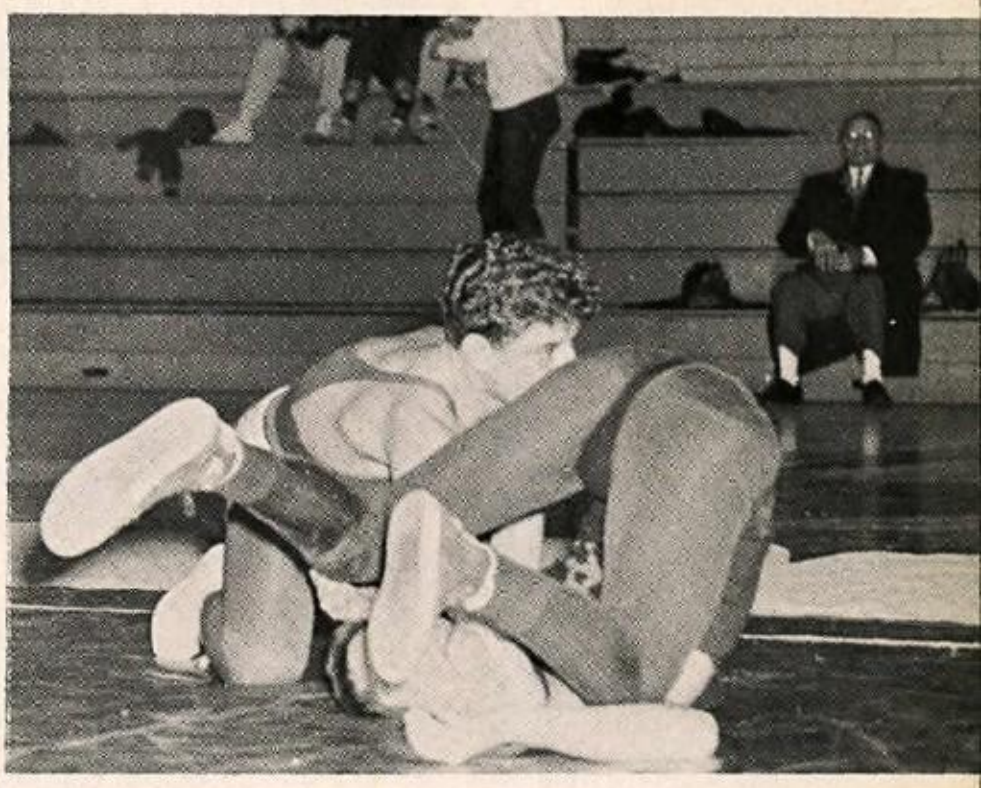
First row, left to right: J. Benedetti, P. Cavanaugh, D. Delate, N. Persichetti, P. Clarici and J. Murphy. Second row, left to right: R. Murphy, J. Cattani, R. Wisniewski, Coach Father Armand, E. Hutchings, C. Biter and W. Biter. Missing: L. Kelly.

R. Murphy struggles hard to get his man in pin position.



N. Persichetti throws his opponent before finishing him with a body slam.

J.V. SQUAD

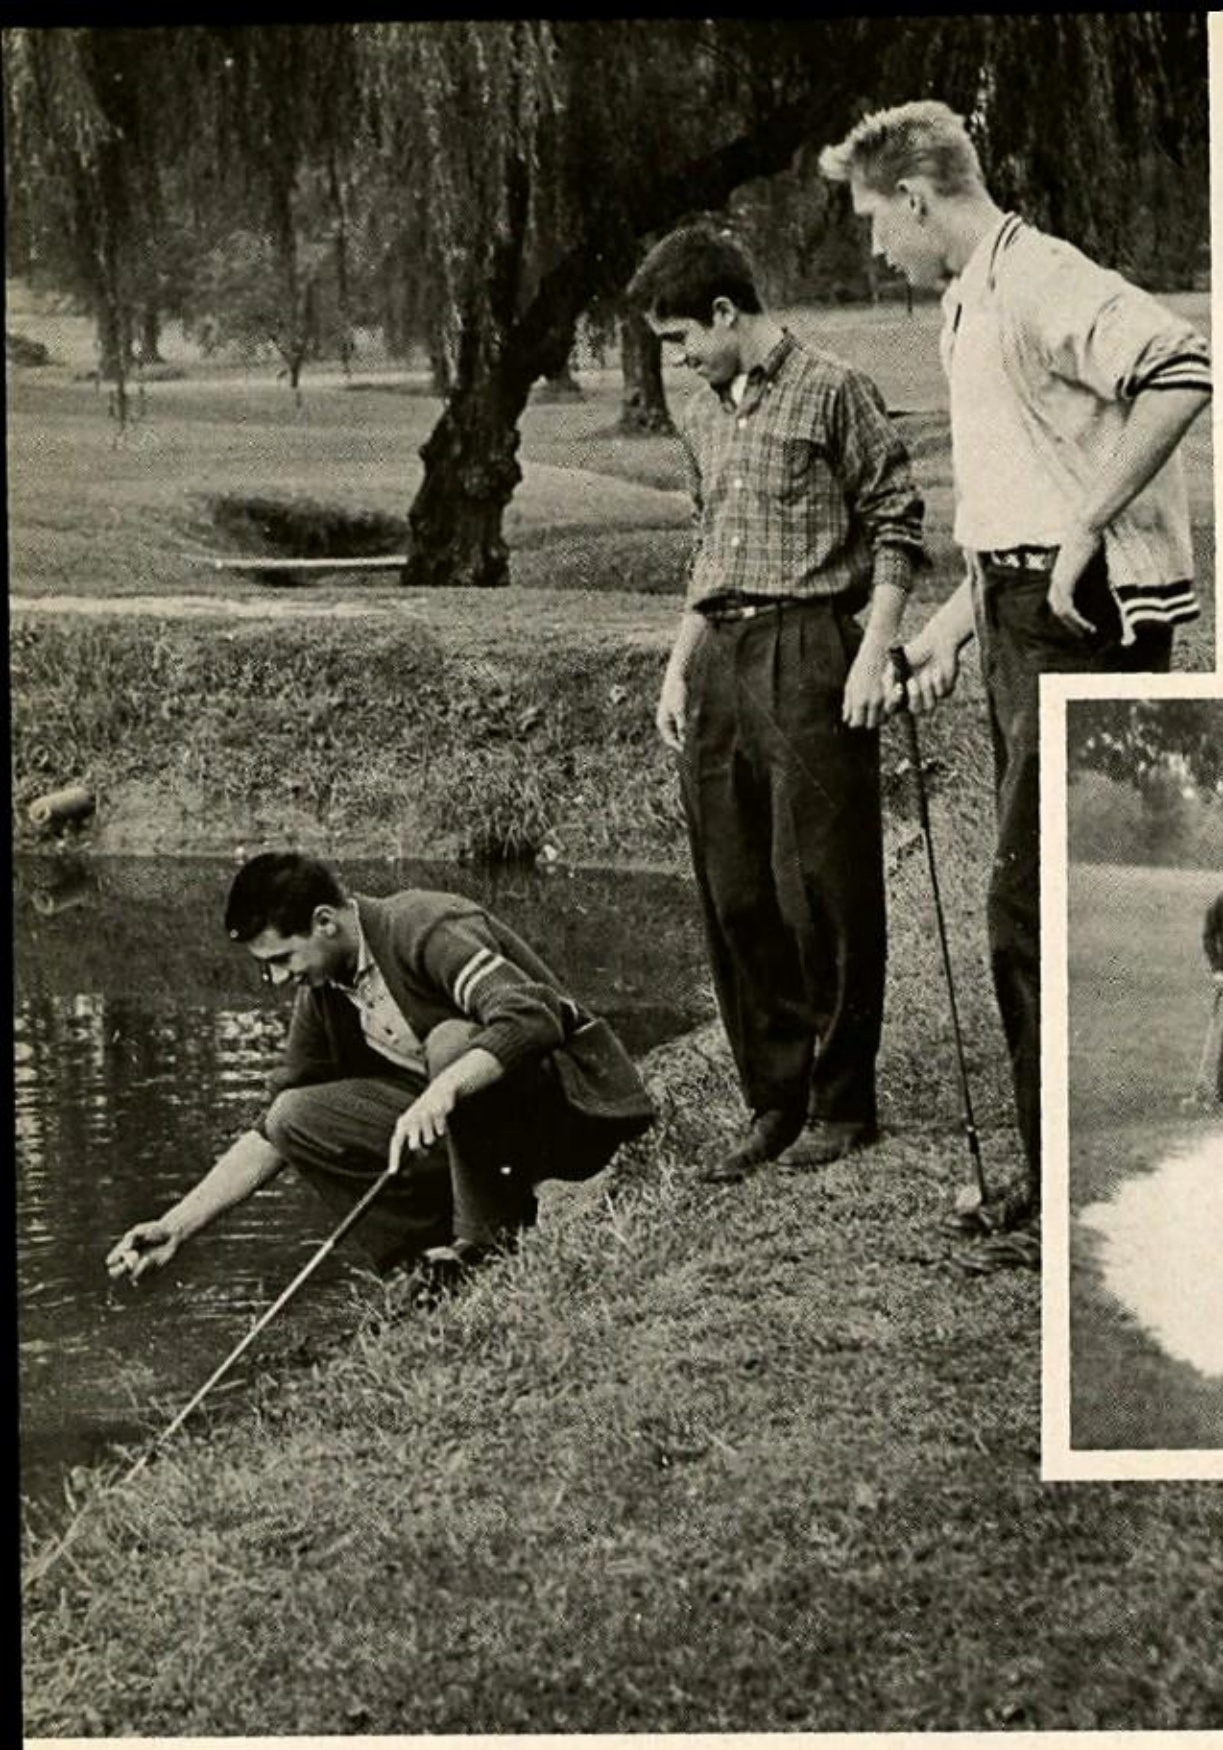
With increased student interest and participation, wrestling has gained in popularity and has carved its niche in the hall of Trenton Catholic competitive sport.

This year's team, while not sporting a winning record, served as a steppingstone to greater years. Coached by Father Armand, the team scored impressive victories over Camden Regional and Glassboro for its only wins of the season.

The fact that the mat squad will lose only three members by graduation gives promise for wrestling in the years to come.

Spring sports at Trenton Catholic take us outdoors once more and we find baseball at the top of the list. We might expect some argument on the latter point, especially from those who take part in the golf and tennis campaigns. We do not mean to underplay these sports or the effort that these teams put forth, but just as certain parts of a drama are emphasized more than others, so the latter sports play supporting roles on the schedule of our spring athletic activities. We can assure them all of our support and our best wishes for a successful season.

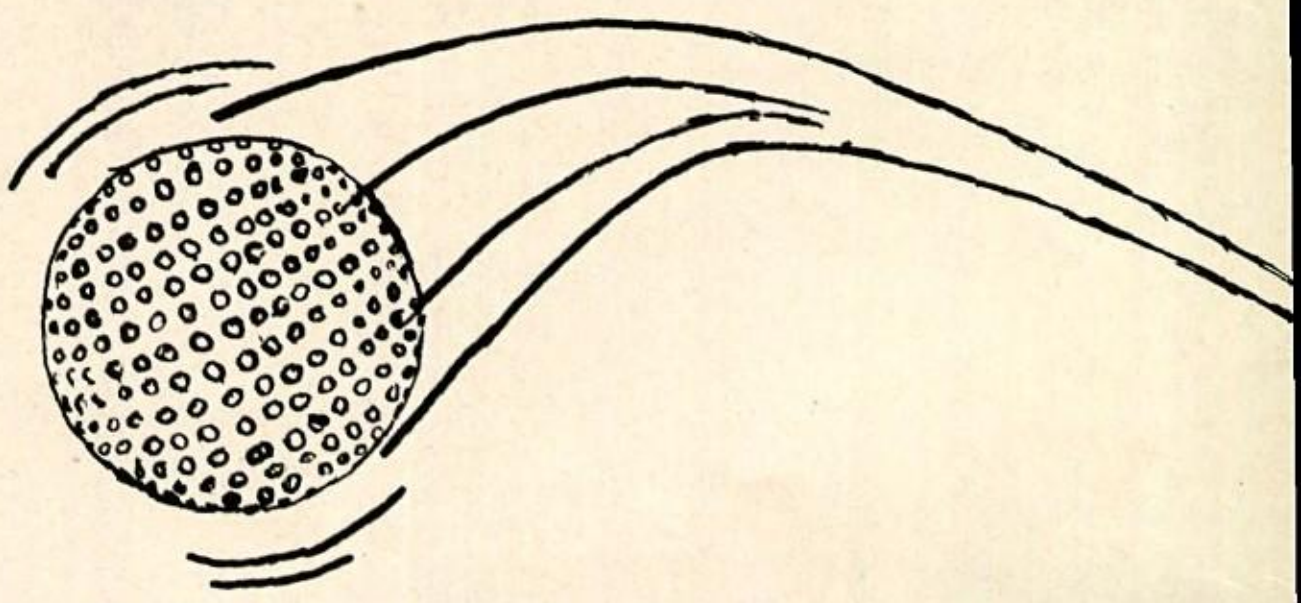
SCENE III

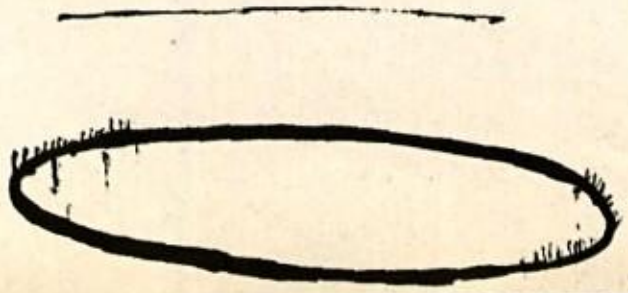


A perfect day for fishing—for golf balls, that is. (R. Ference angling, P. Ninni and E. Partyka gloating.)

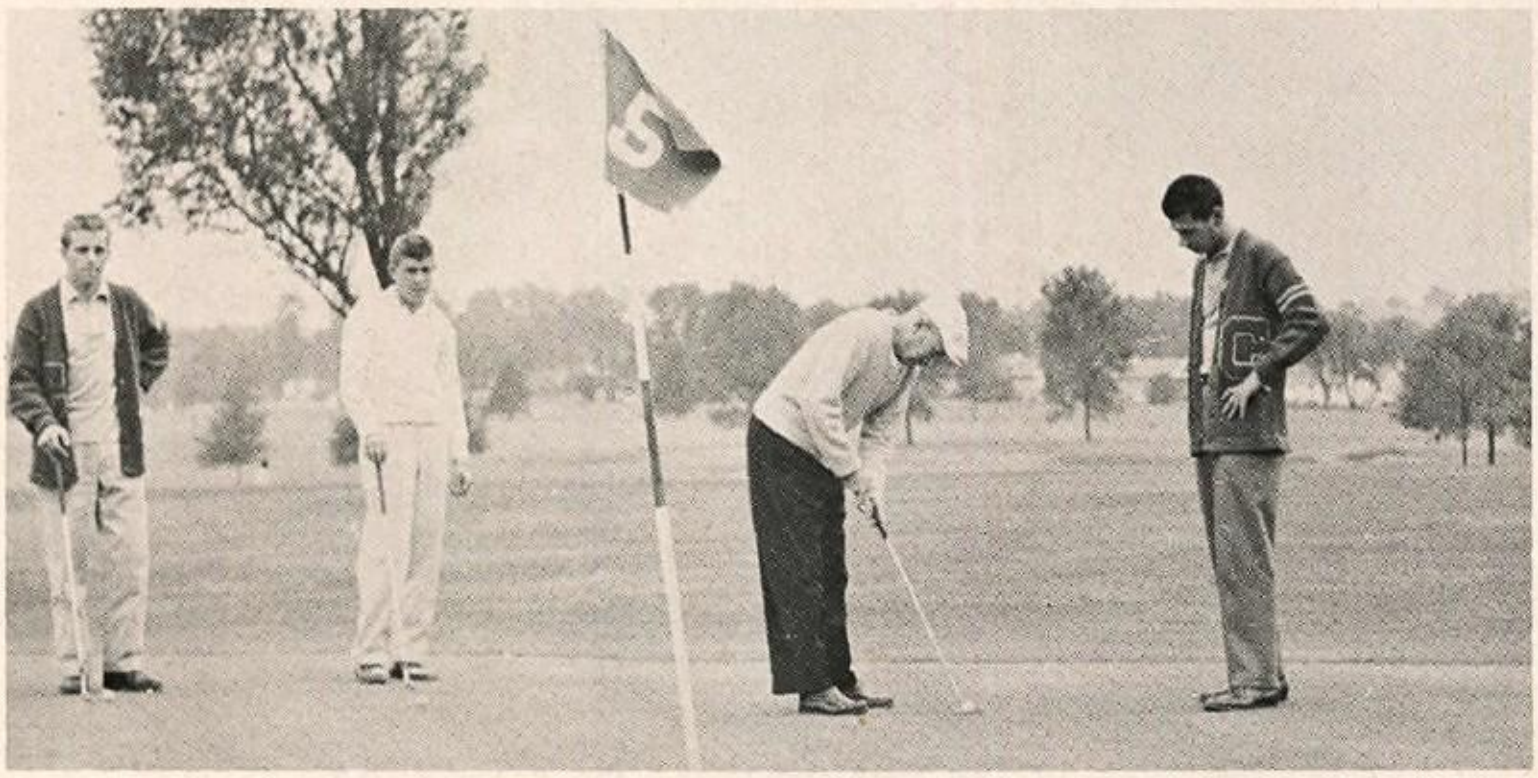
R. Piotrowski blasts away as R. Ference counts off—three, four, five!

GOLF

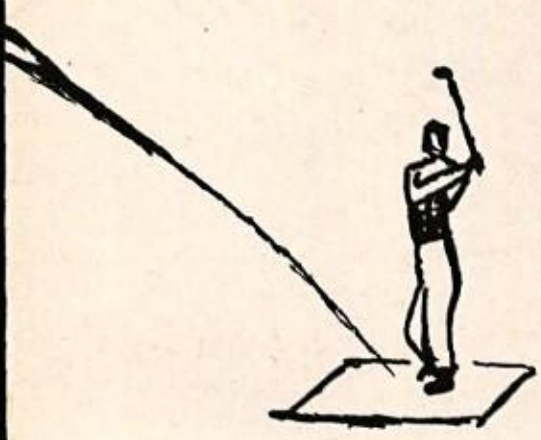




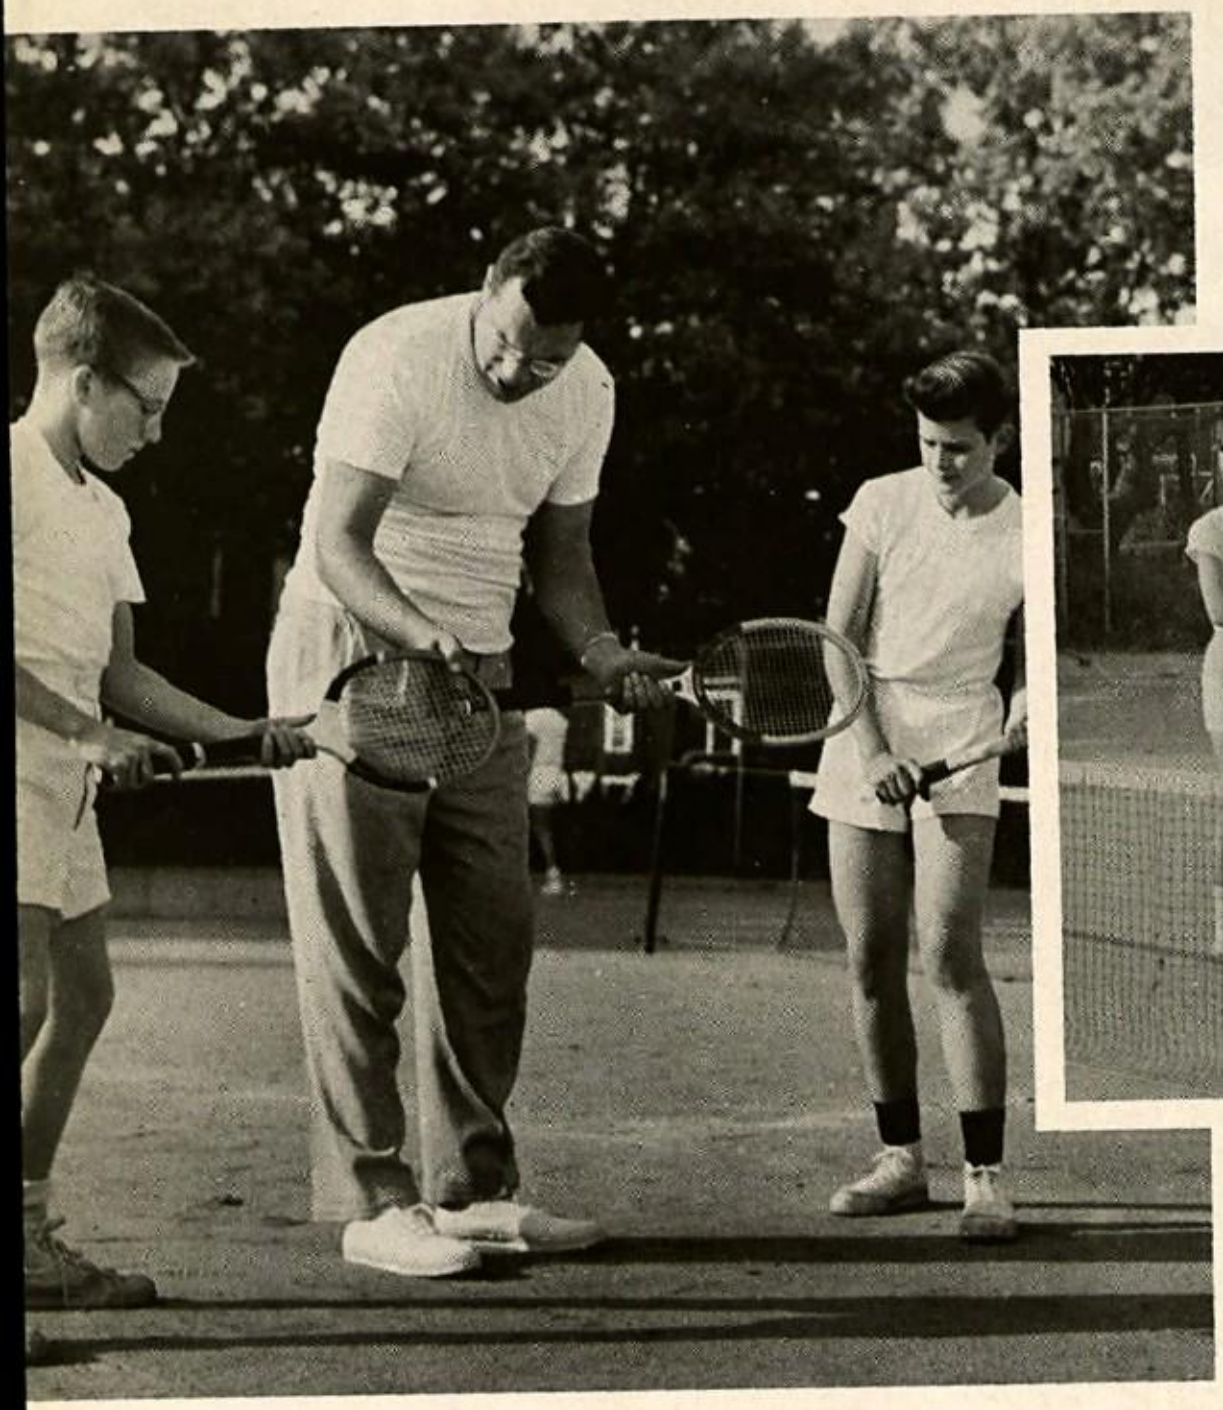
Golf Team: E. Partyka, A. Kosco, R. Ference, R. Piotrowski, P. Nini, T. Farley and Father Gregory.



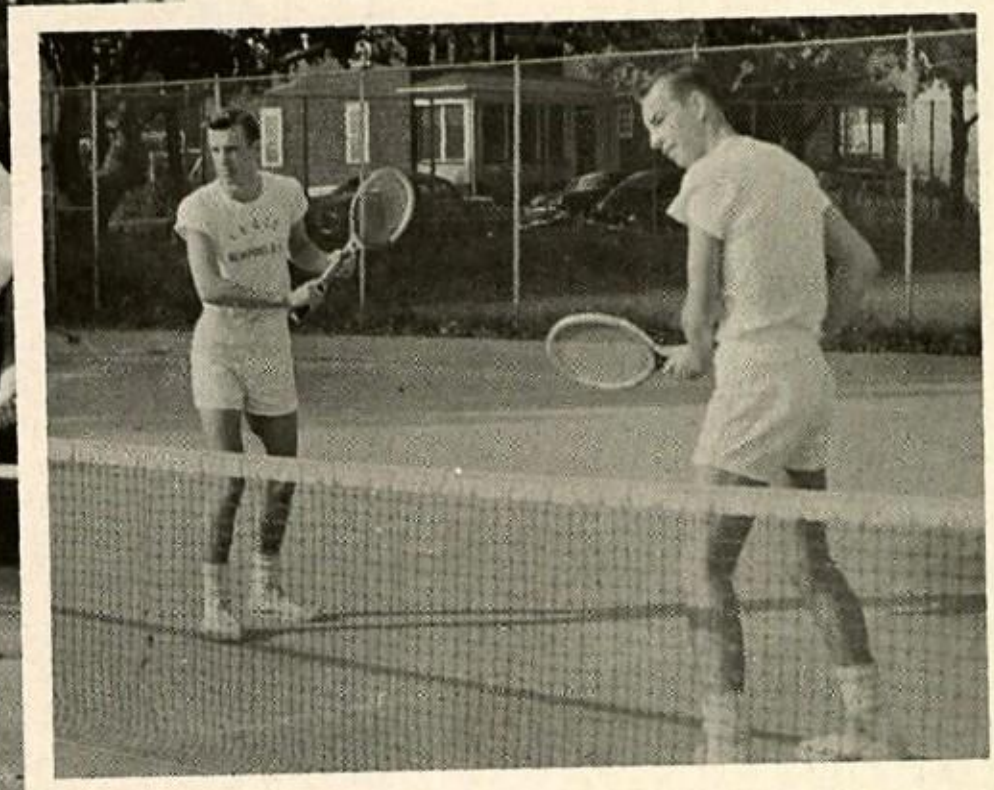
R. Piotrowski and A. Kosco watch Father Gregory line up a putt for R. Ference.



It's a sure sign of spring when you hear the bag of clubs rattle, the clatter of cleats, and the pop of a well-hit drive. This year's golf squad has ideas of its own of going a long way toward a perfect season. With the enthusiastic coaching of Father Gregory, Trenton Catholic's "representatives of the links" can be counted on to go all out despite the difficult schedule of matches that they always face.

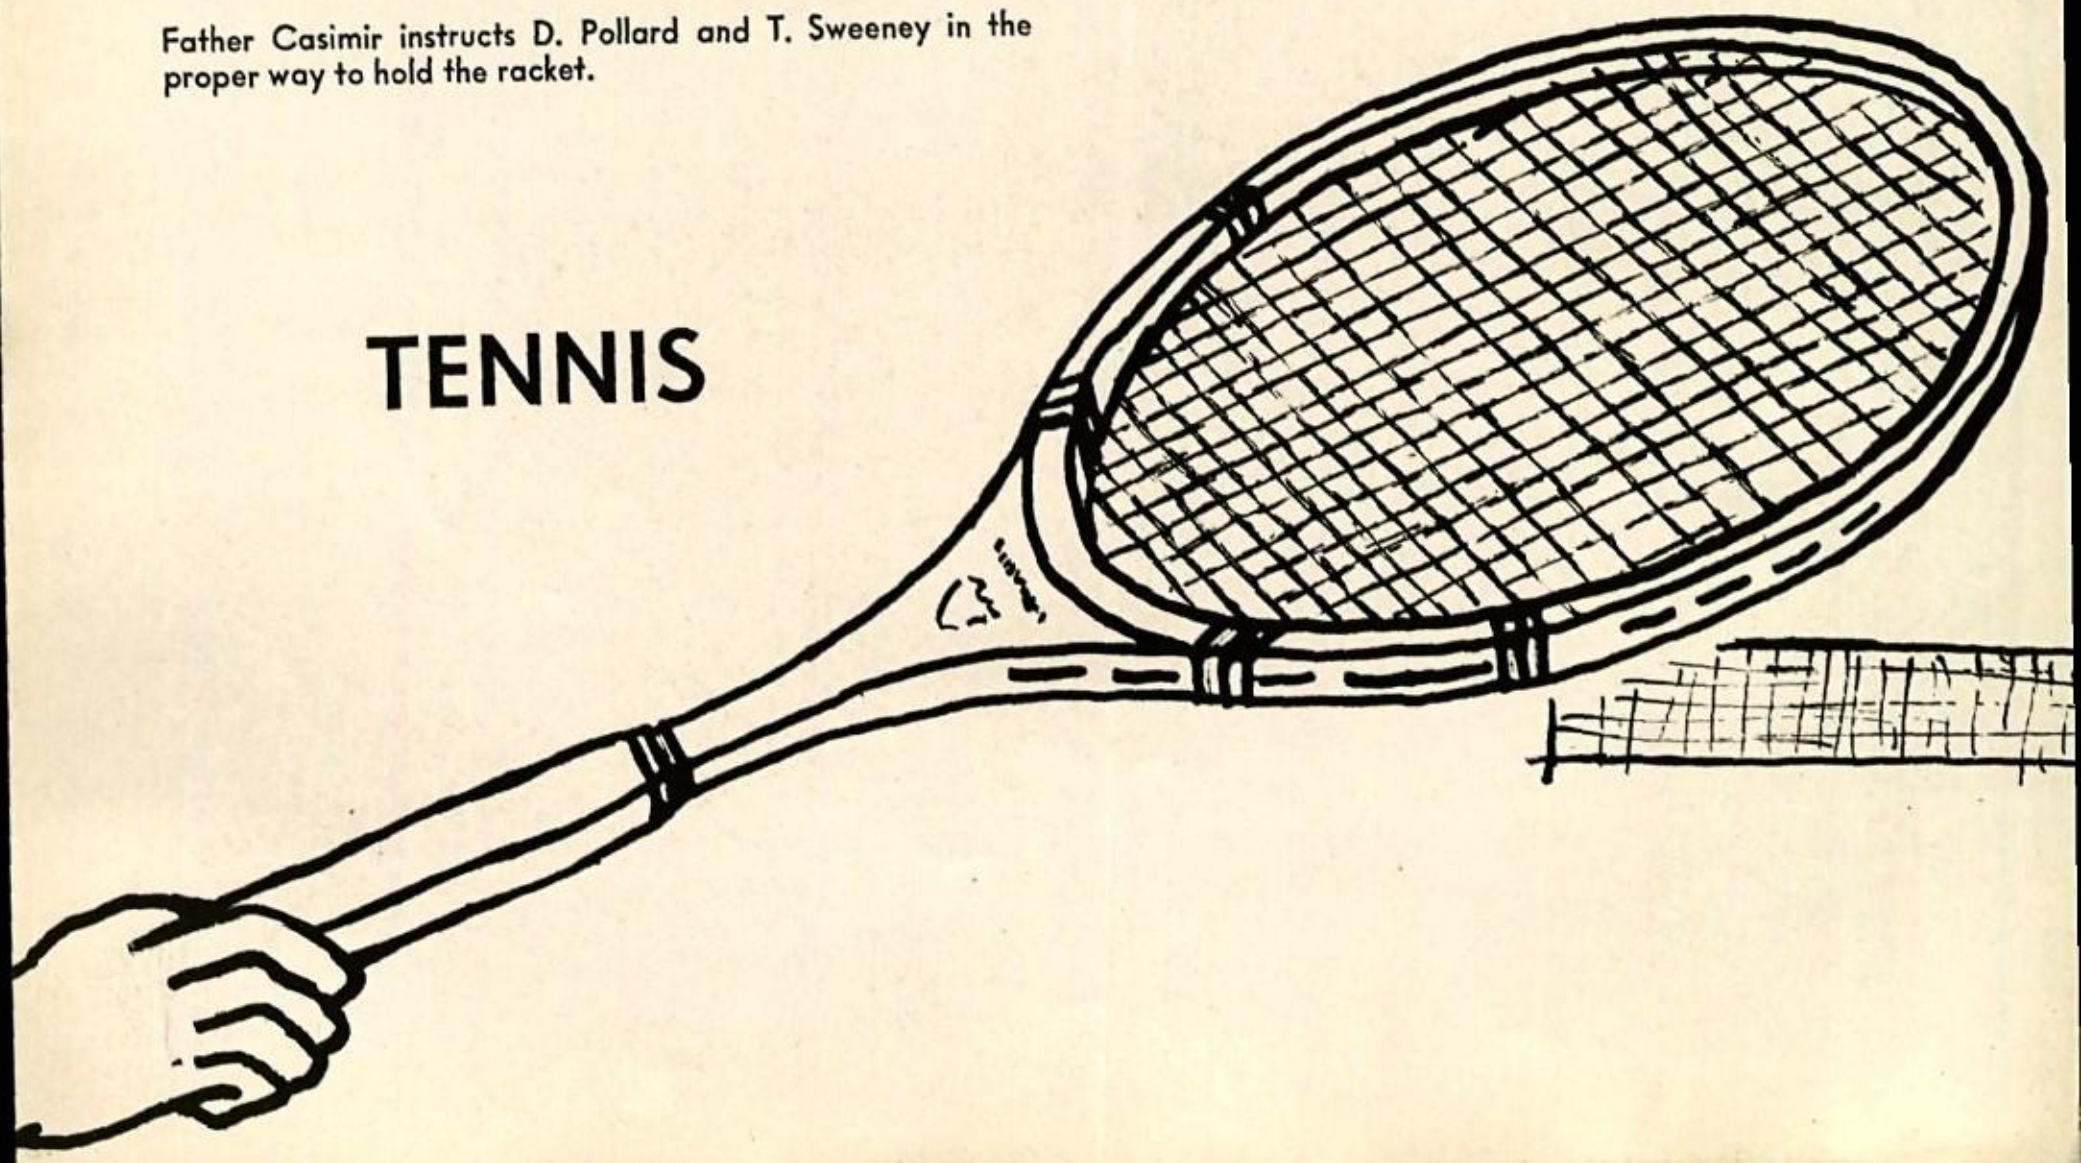


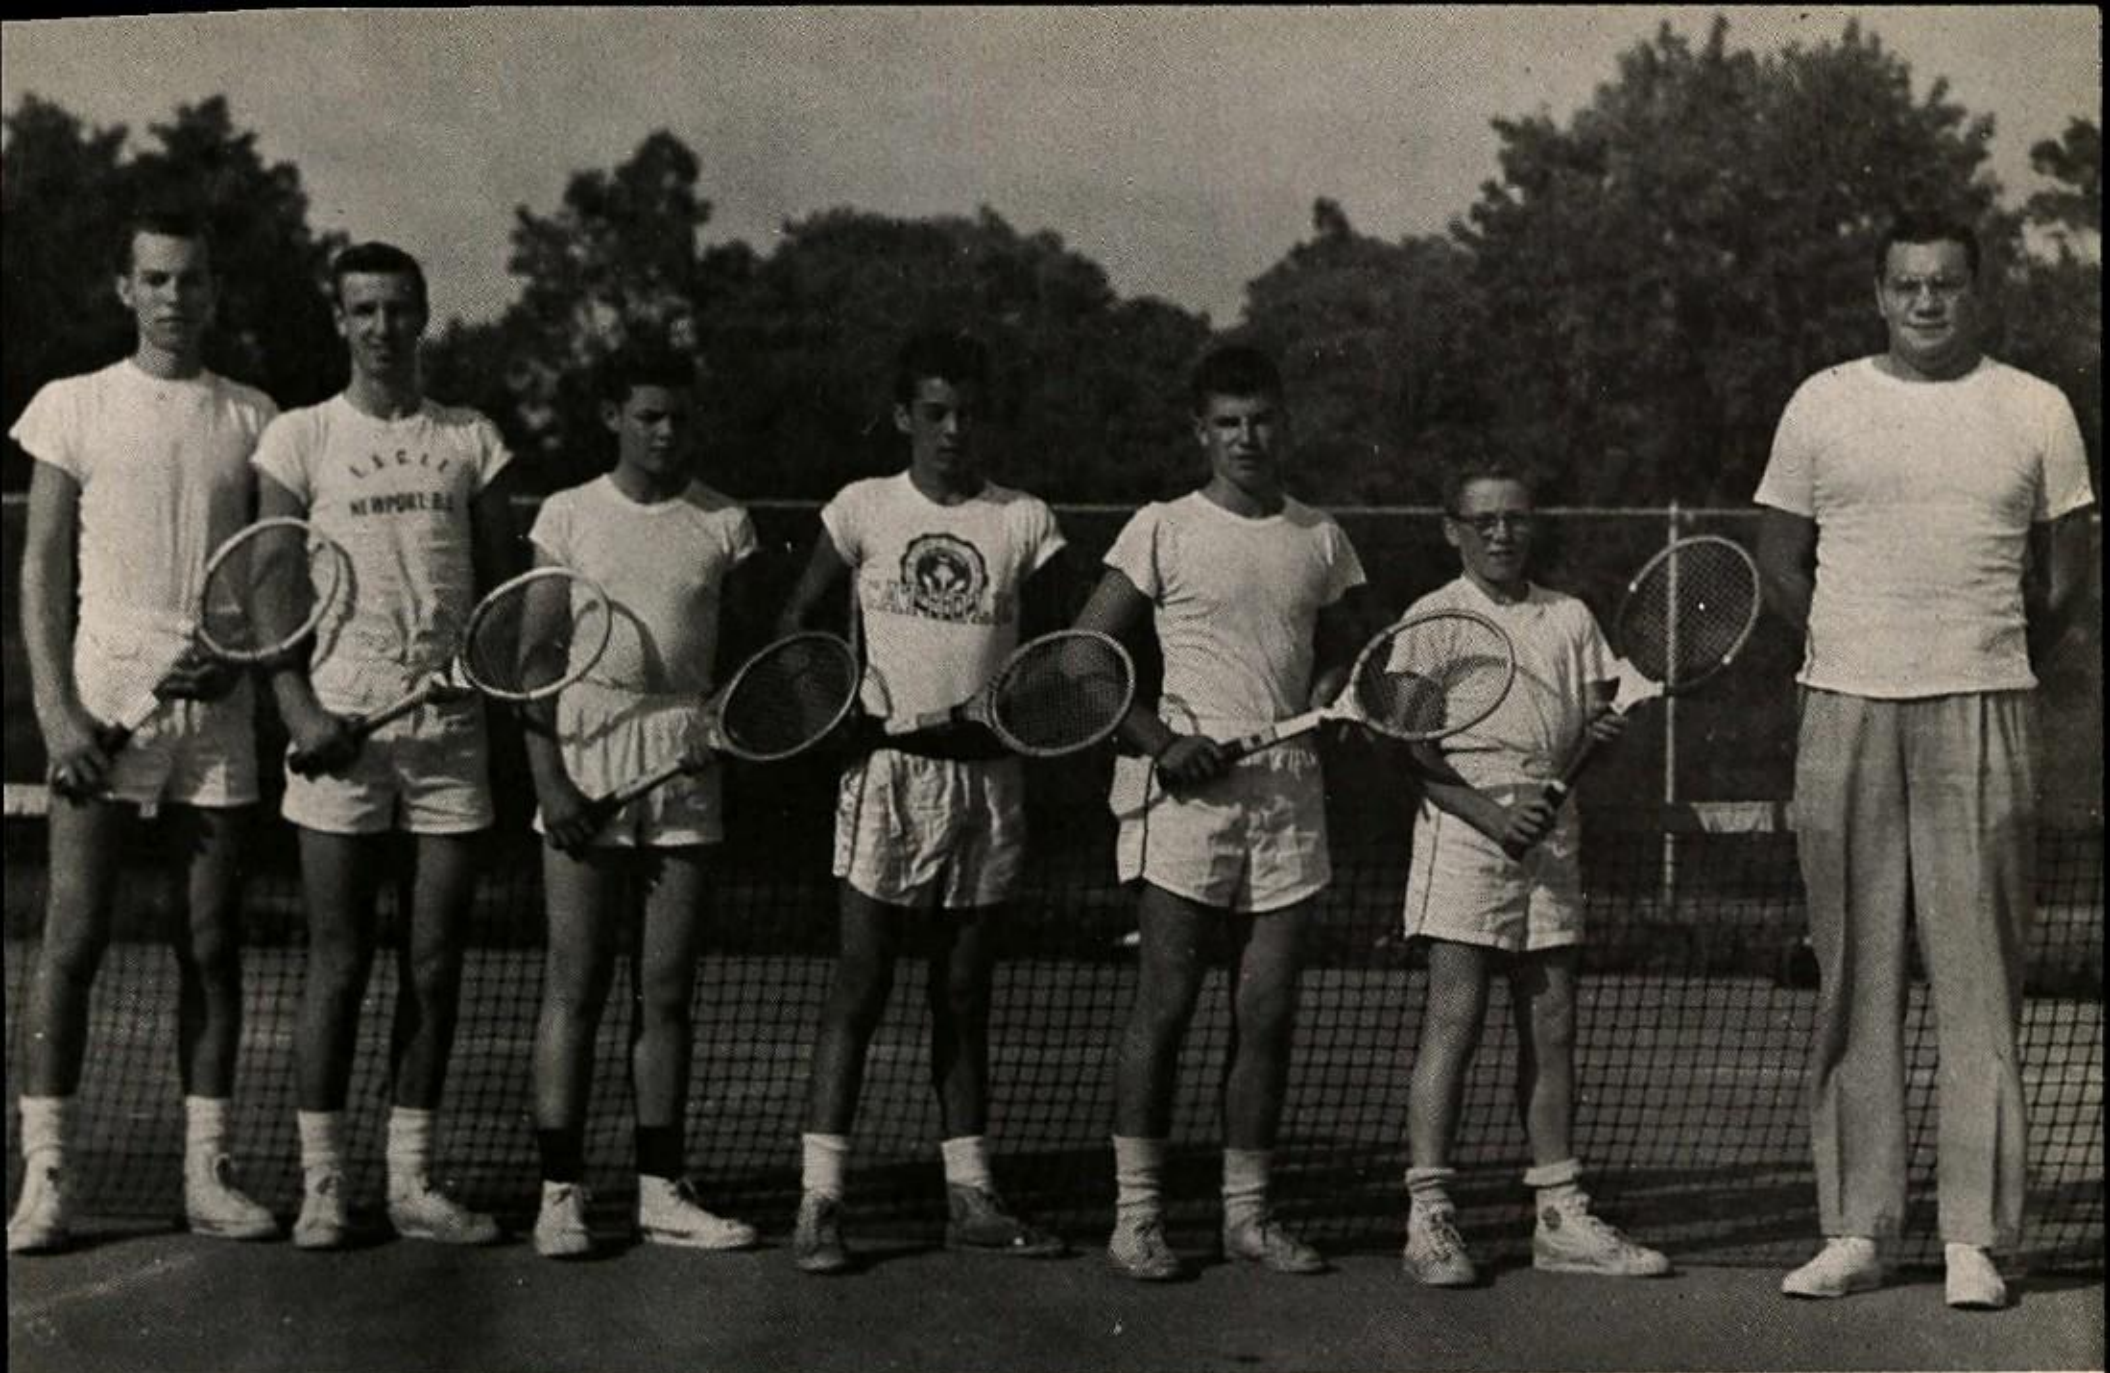
Father Casimir instructs D. Pollard and T. Sweeney in the proper way to hold the racket.



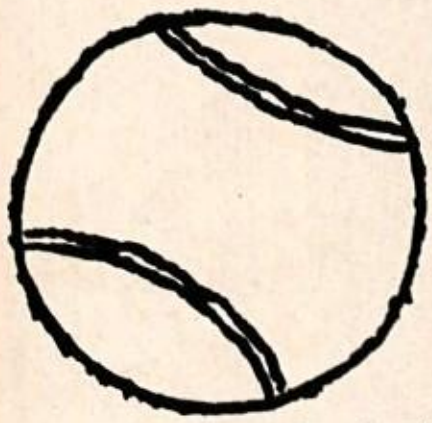
J. Paulaski and J. Dempsey together make one of the tallest doubles teams in the state.

TENNIS





The Tennis team: J. Dempsey, J. Paulaski, T. Sweeney, P. Consol, C. Harvison, and D. Pollard.

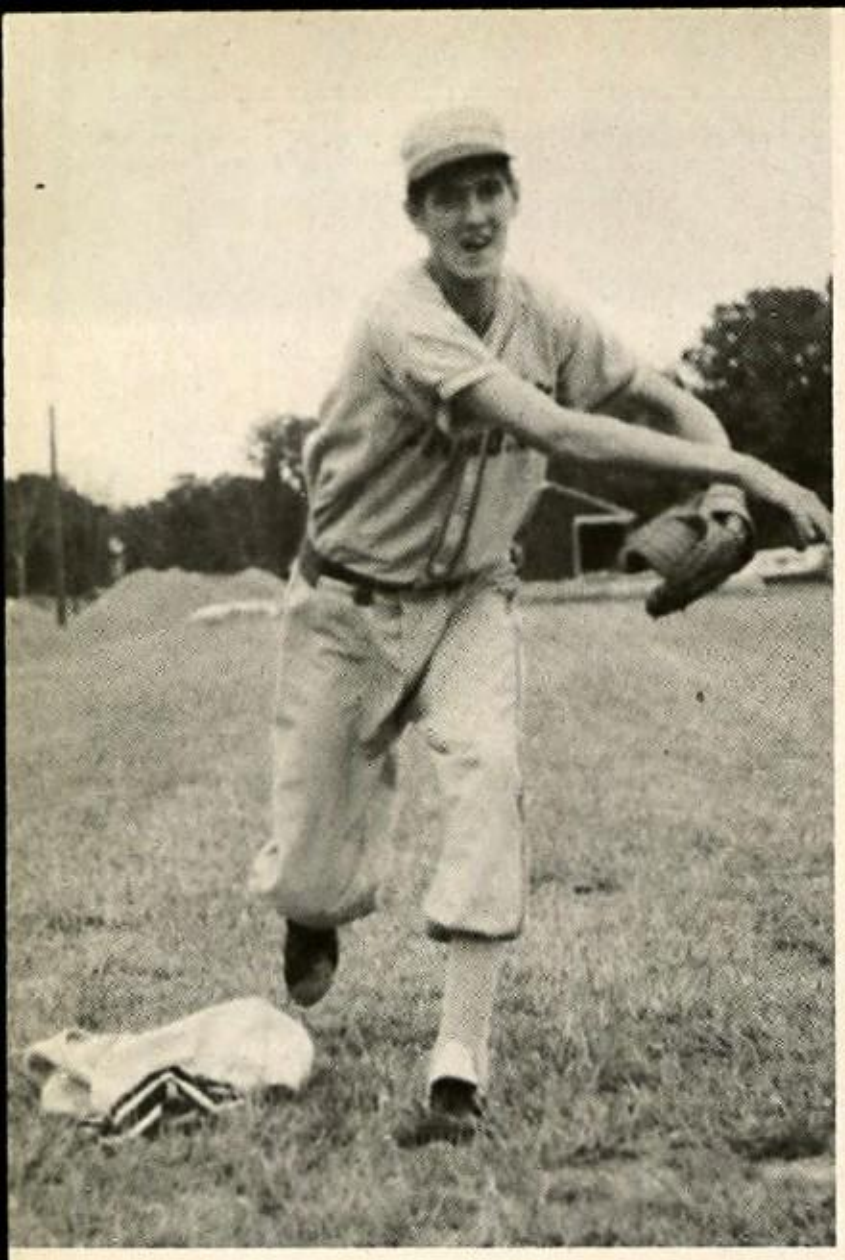


Despite the fact that last year's squad could not boast of an enviable record, another group of hopeful tennis enthusiasts is looking forward to the opening of the tennis season. With three lettermen returning and a new interest growing, this year's group hopes to improve upon the past.

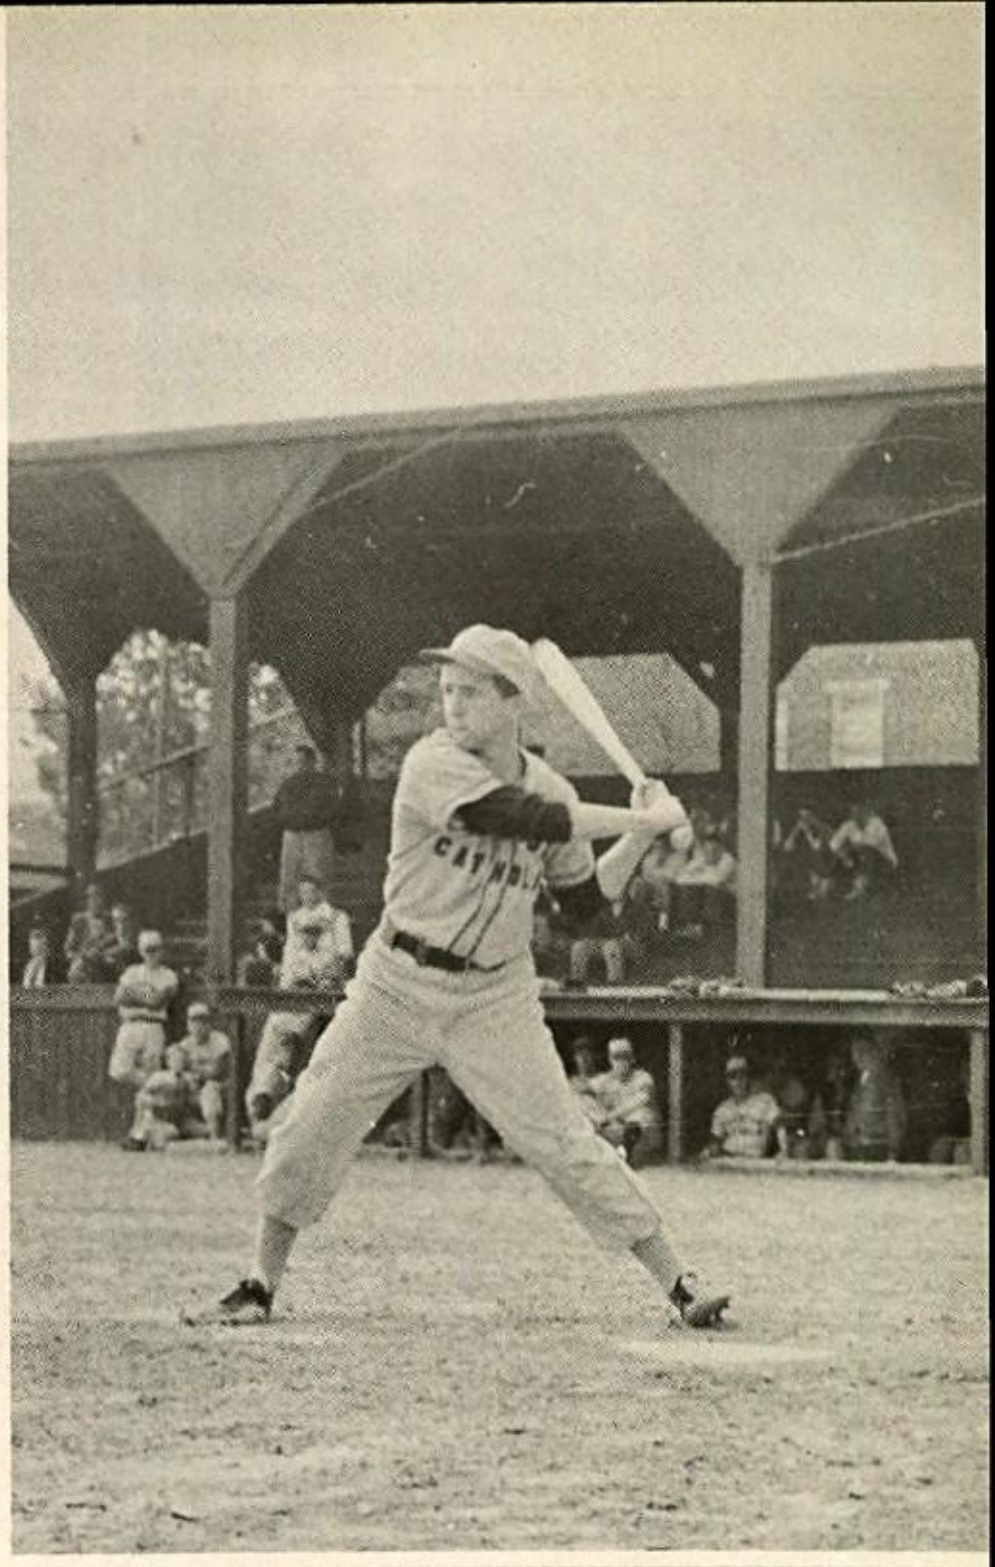
Led by veteran Cliff Harvison and ever improving John Paulaski, Paul Consol and Joe Dempsey, the squad will attempt to capture the spirit of other Trenton Catholic teams and go "all out" when the season begins. There will be no "standing room" crowds, no cheerleaders, but the spirit will be there.

New faces will dominate the clay courts and pose new problems for old opponents. Coach Father Casimir is hopeful of victorious results in spite of the handicap. Lots of luck, fellows.

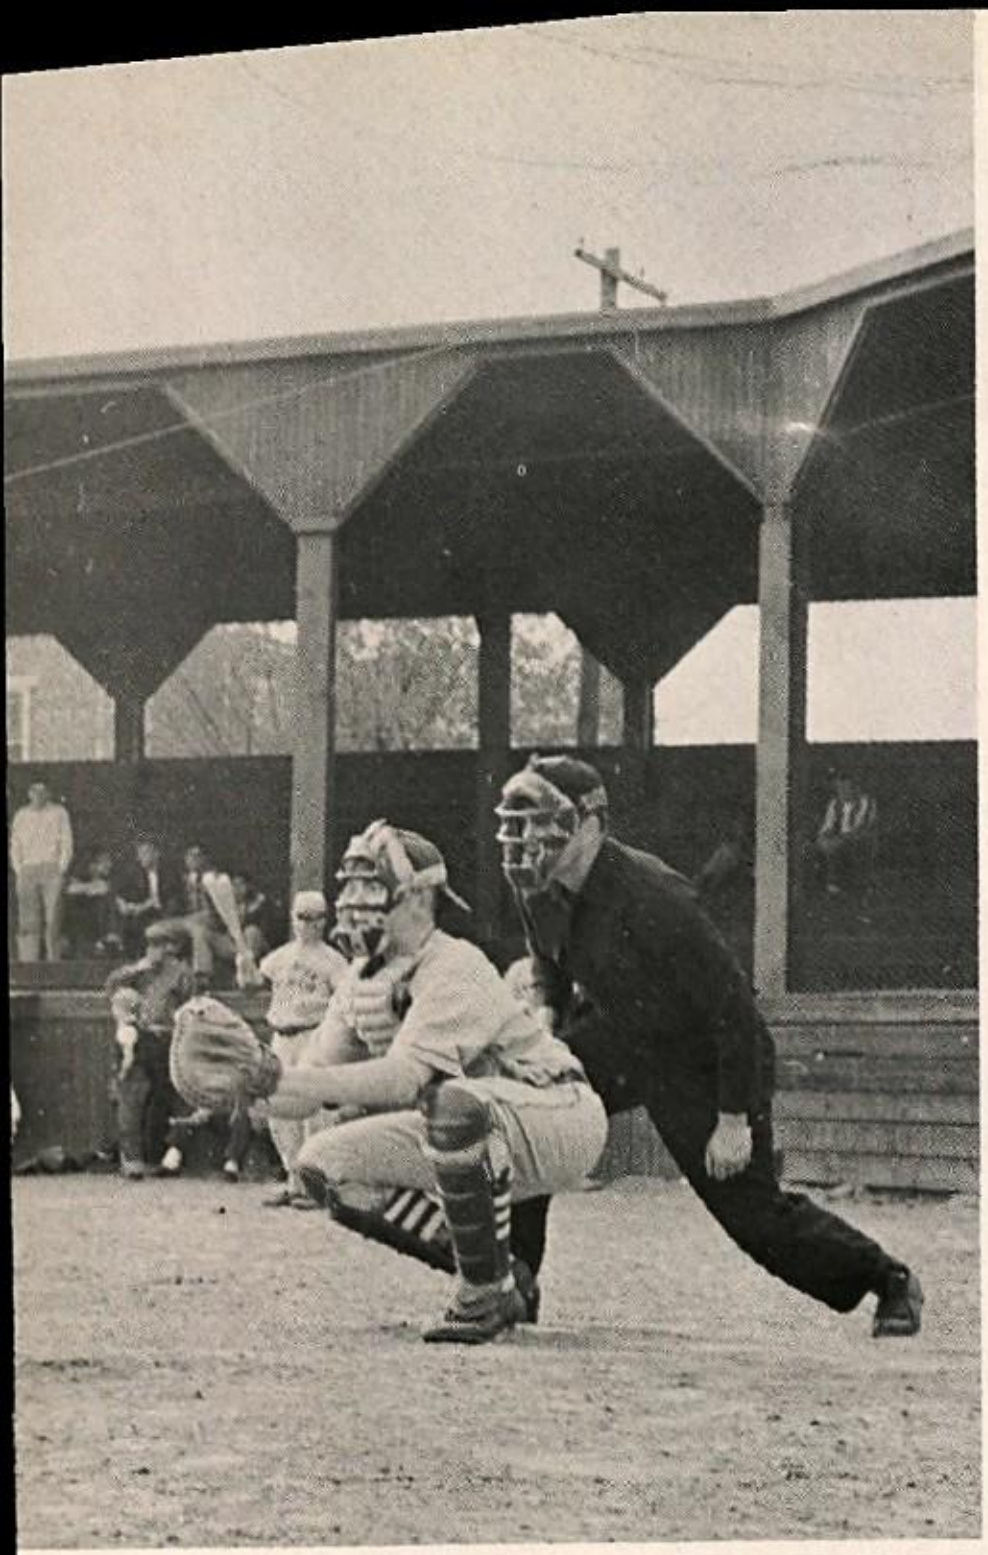
C. Harvison smashes one across at close range.

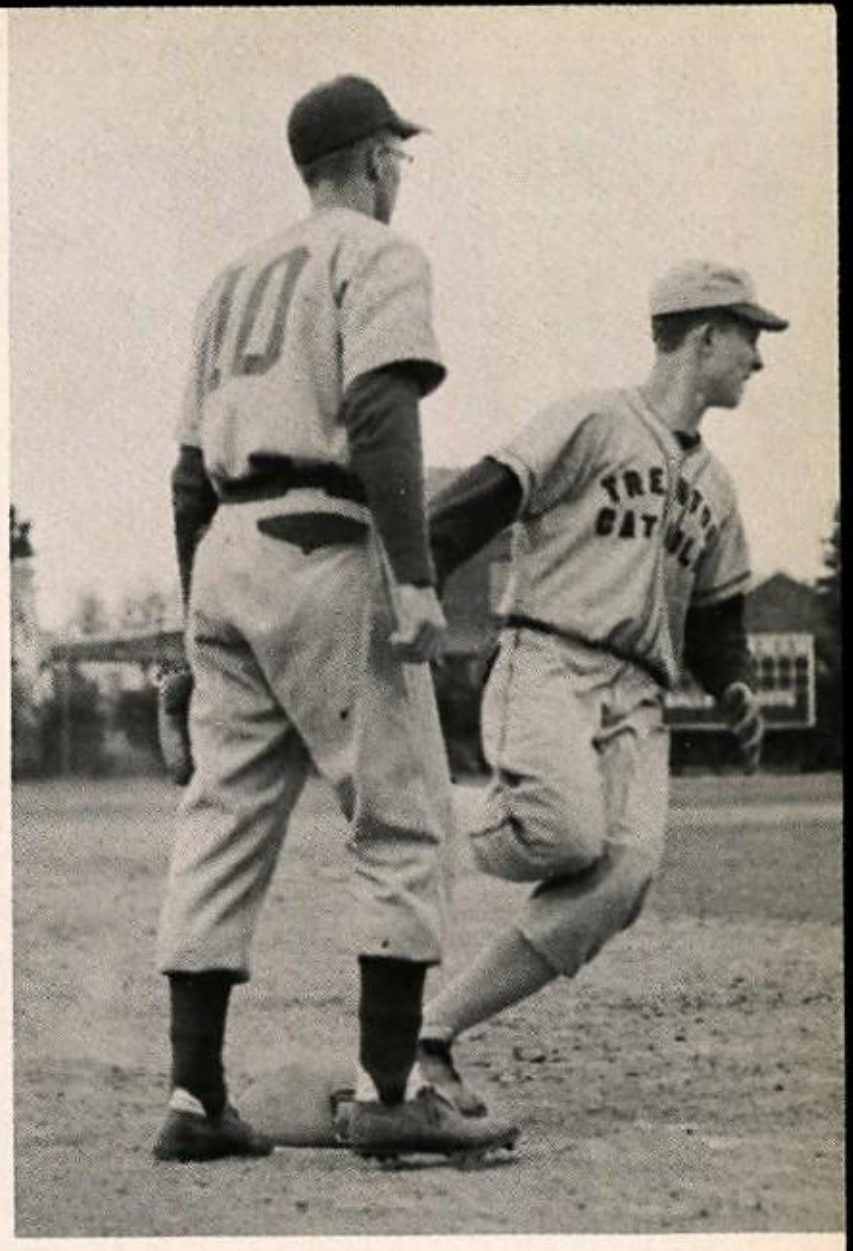


J. Gutowski loosens up in pre-game practice.



BASEBALL



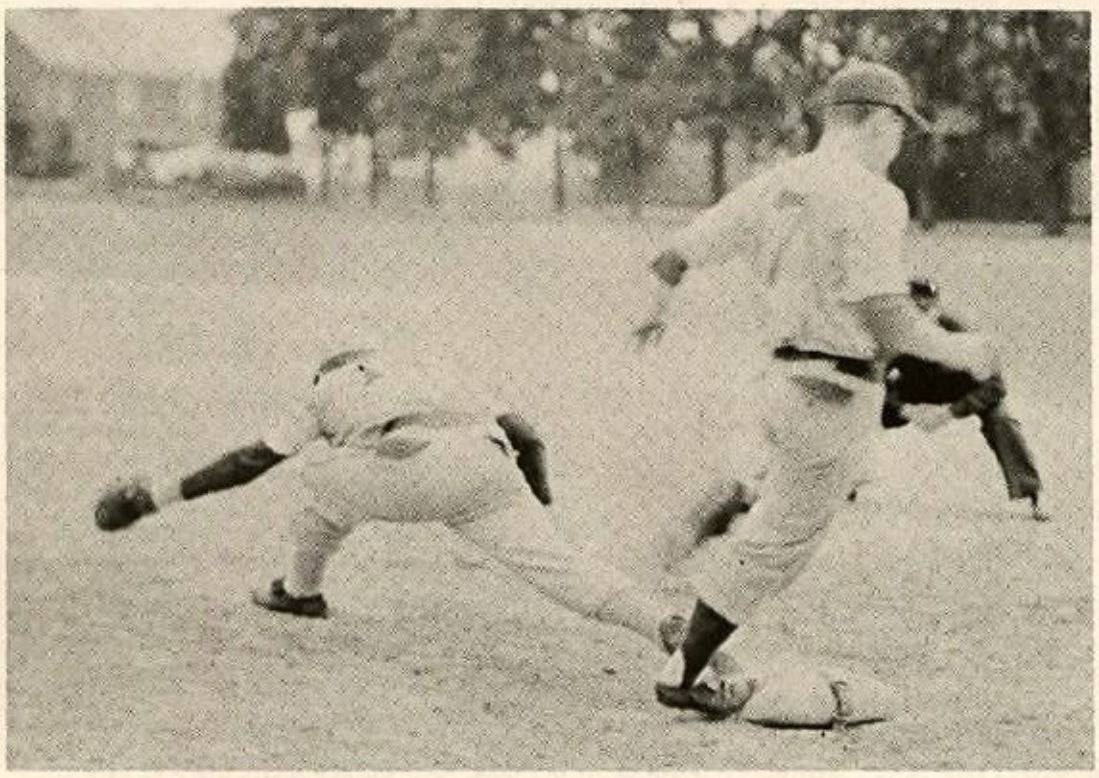


G. Chmielewski rounds third and heads for home.

D. Pollard gets set to belt that old apple out of the park.

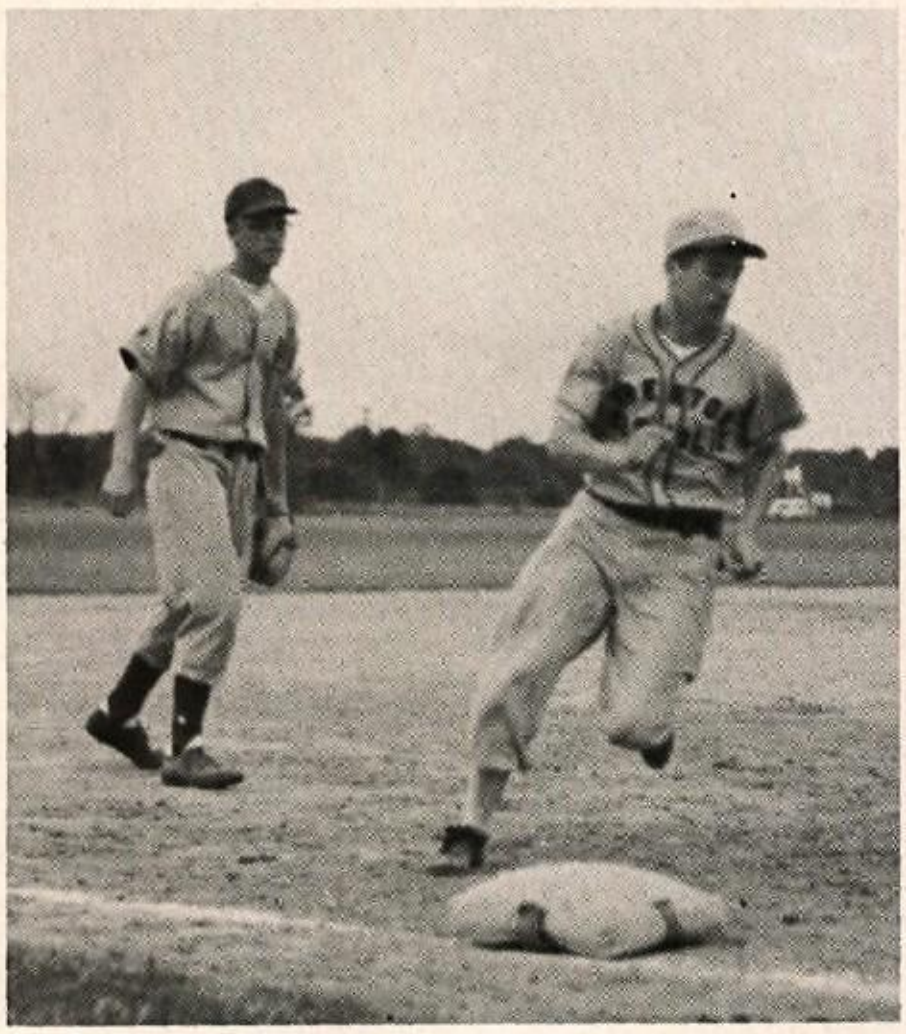
The sport that warrants the title of National Pastime in the tradition of competition represents our team's stamina and vigor on the diamond. Our team rates very high in the eyes of the student body. Every player is a link and when molded together forms a team that is determined to be crowned champions. They are fierce competitors and are hot contenders for the city title and state honors. The past records have proven the strength of our teams and this year is no exception. We all look forward to another great year, possibly an undefeated season.

RETURNING LETTERMEN FOR '57 — FIRST ROW: J. Tozzi, J. Samonsky, R. Gutowski, R. Pollard. SECOND ROW: L. Murphy, R. Meehan, A. Nitti, Coach Father Noel, J. Jable, J. Hughes, A. Giori, P. Ryan. MISSING: L. Sobkoviak.

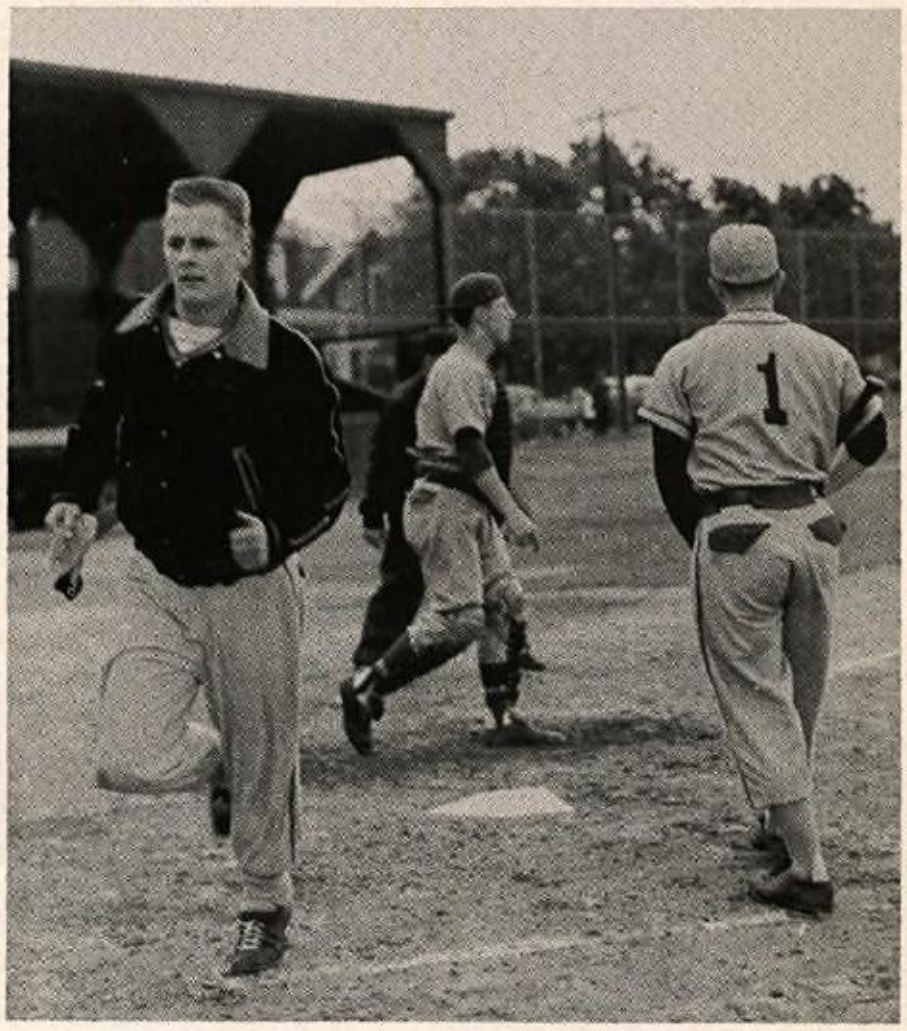


With a long stretch, J. Samonsky gets his man at first.

J. Tozzi beats the throw home and scores!



R. Pollard reaches third safely.



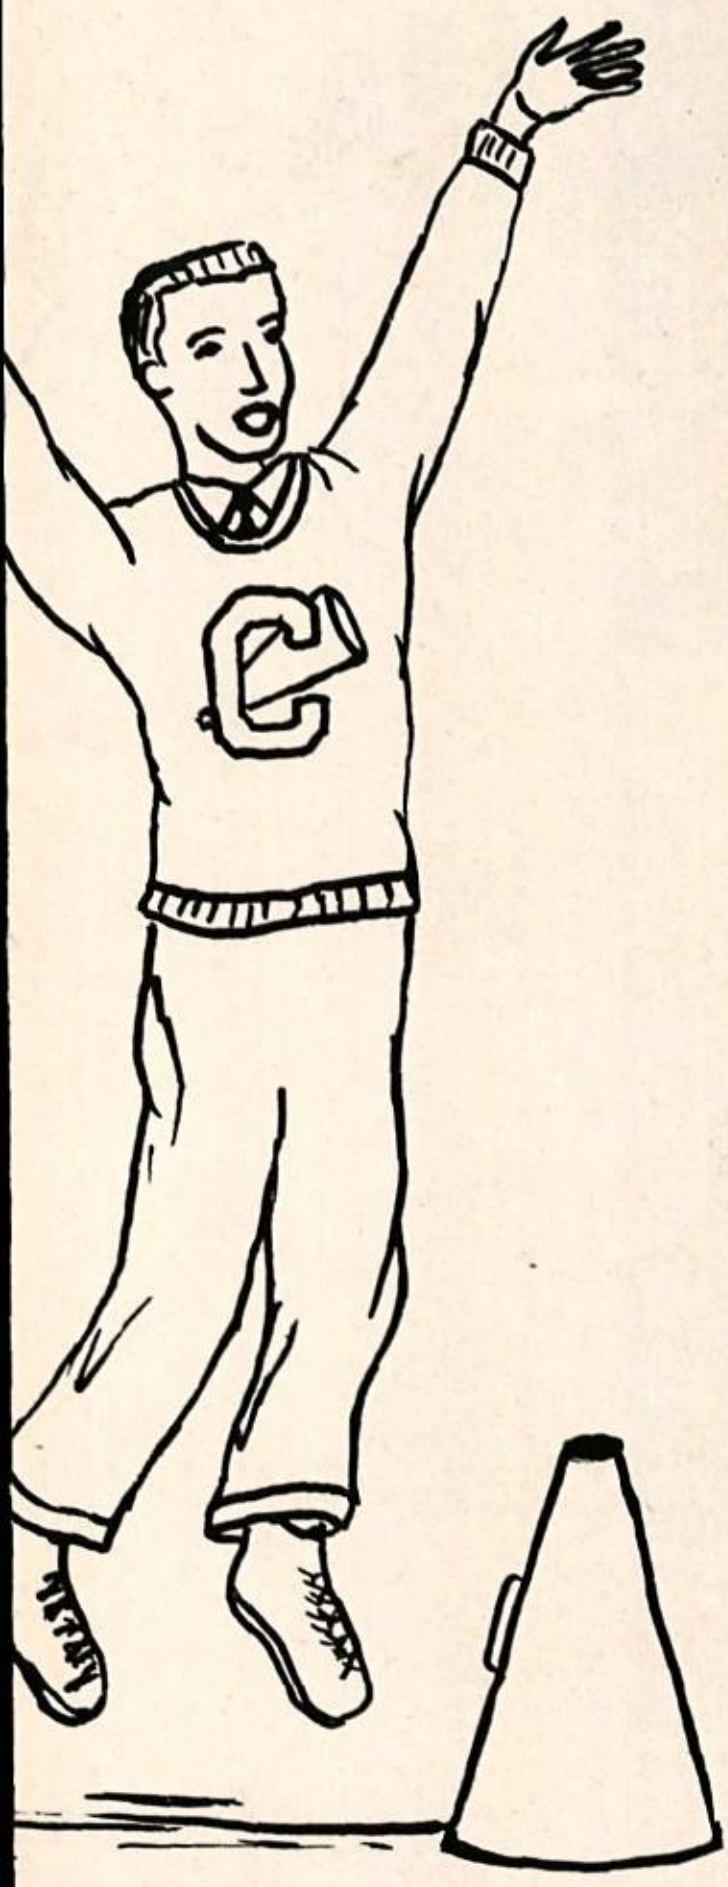
L. Sobkoviak easily crosses the plate ahead of the throw-in.

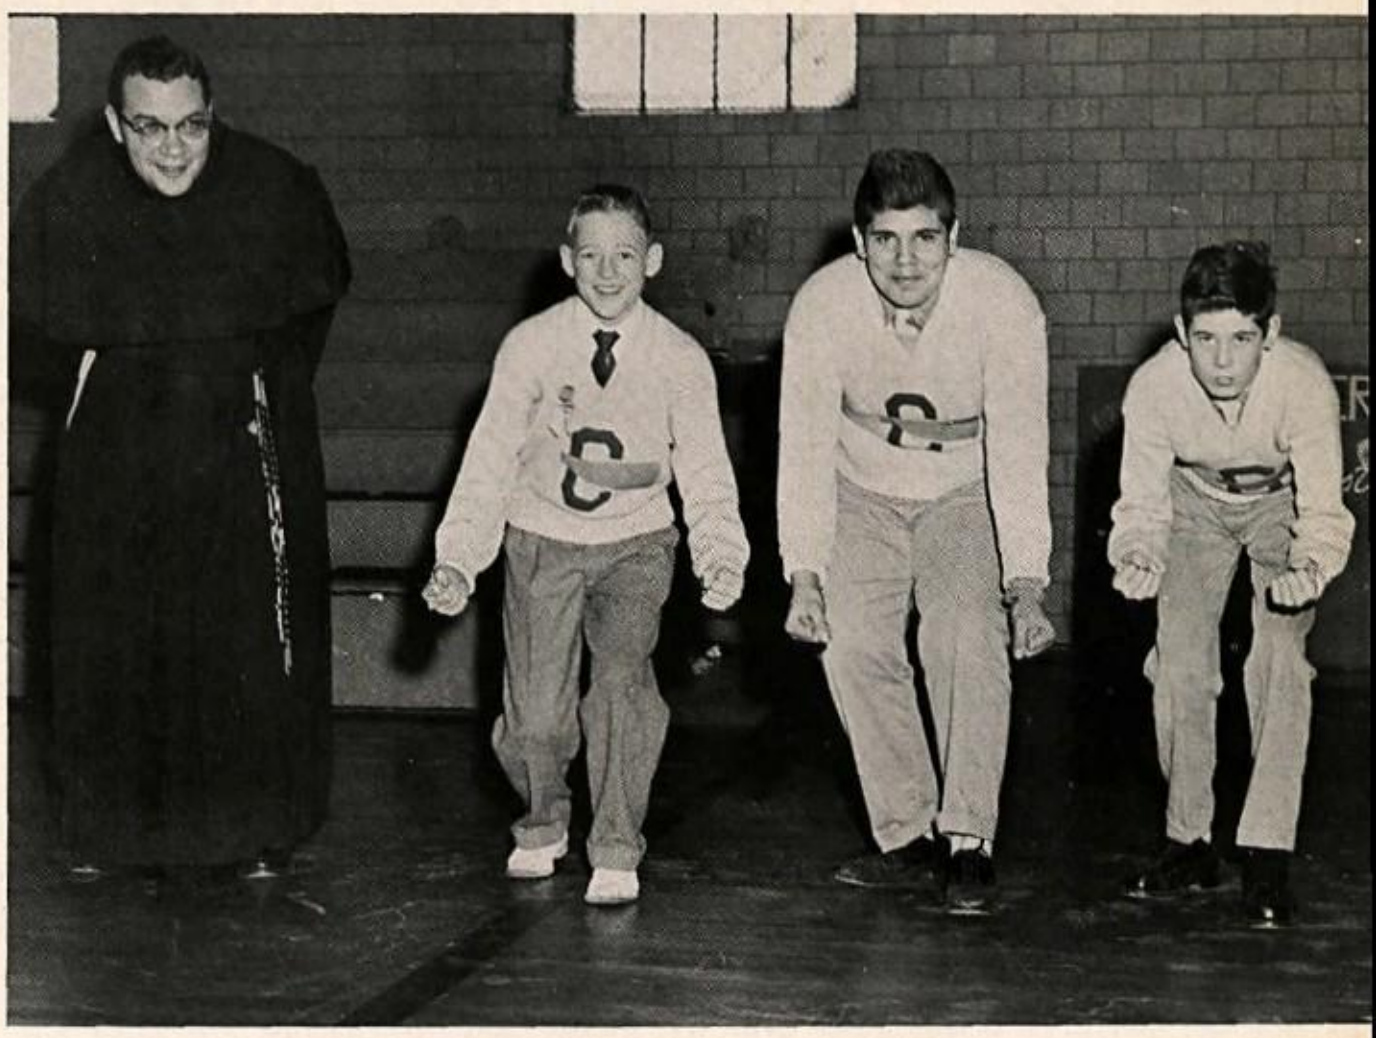
T. Donahue, S. Caloiaro and P. Gallagher whoop it up during the victorious basketball game against arch-rival, Trenton High.

CHEERLEADERS

The backbone of our heartened yells is the cheerleading squad. These boys inspirit the student body at pep rallies before the more important contests and carry through their fired animations at all football and basketball games.

The success or failure of our teams is due in a great part to the support given by the student body. The cheerleaders, in turn, support and bolster the morale of the crowd. These boys and their moderator, Father Casimir, deserve our applause for their wonderful work.





It's those fellows again, this time running through a few practice cheers with their moderator, Father Casimir.

Fight, team, fight! resounds in the football stadium as the cheerleaders signal an important play.

CURTAIN CALLS

In this section are seen those who in the future must play the lead roles in our quiet drama.

They are now playing those parts that we not too long ago soberly placed in our album of recollections.

Though comprising most of the student body, they have up to now played a relatively minor role, but they will in the future carry the burden of leadership which we who are graduating now lay upon their untested shoulders.

We hope that these underclassmen may surpass our achievements in and for this school we love.

Things to Do

1. Ask the members of the class what method is used in their homes to obtain hot water. How many different methods are used?

2. Check your water meter for one week to learn how much water is used on an average each day. In most homes this amount will include all the water used.

3. In exercise 2, if one third of the water is heated from 40° F to 160° F, find how many Btu are needed each month to heat this water.

4. In exercise 3, find how much it would cost to supply the heat, using an automatic electric heater that is 75 per cent efficient, a gas heater that is 45 per cent efficient, a coal furnace with a 30 per cent efficient, and the furnace that is 70 per cent efficient. Use your local rates.

5. Using a large glass tube, rubber stopper, glass tubing, rubber tubing, and a long metal tube for the heating coil, make a small water heater like the one shown on page 70. Place the heating coil in the flame of a Bunsen burner to see if it functions properly.

6. Go to different dealers and get as much additional information as you can about water

SENIORS

On the following pages we seniors introduce ourselves. We feel that we have not shattered any records by our performance of the drama of high school life, and we are conscious of the fact that whatever we have accomplished we owe in great measure to others. We were the main characters and it was up to us to show those who follow us how to play the "lead" parts.

One fact, above all, stands out in our minds—it is the rapidity with which the present production has come to an end. We agree that our high school career has run its course much too quickly.

As freshmen stepping to the stage, we found ourselves at times suffering from terrific "stage fright," but that began to wear away rapidly when we passed into our second year and began to know our parts better.

In our junior year we felt a certain ease at moving about and we gave definite and unique interpretation to our roles.

Now as seniors we come to the end of our high school performance. While revealing our "characters" and characteristics we must honestly say that we enjoyed it.

BLESSING OF ST. FRANCIS

The Lord bless thee and keep thee.
May He show His face to thee and have mercy on thee. May He turn
His countenance to thee and give thee peace. The Lord bless thee.
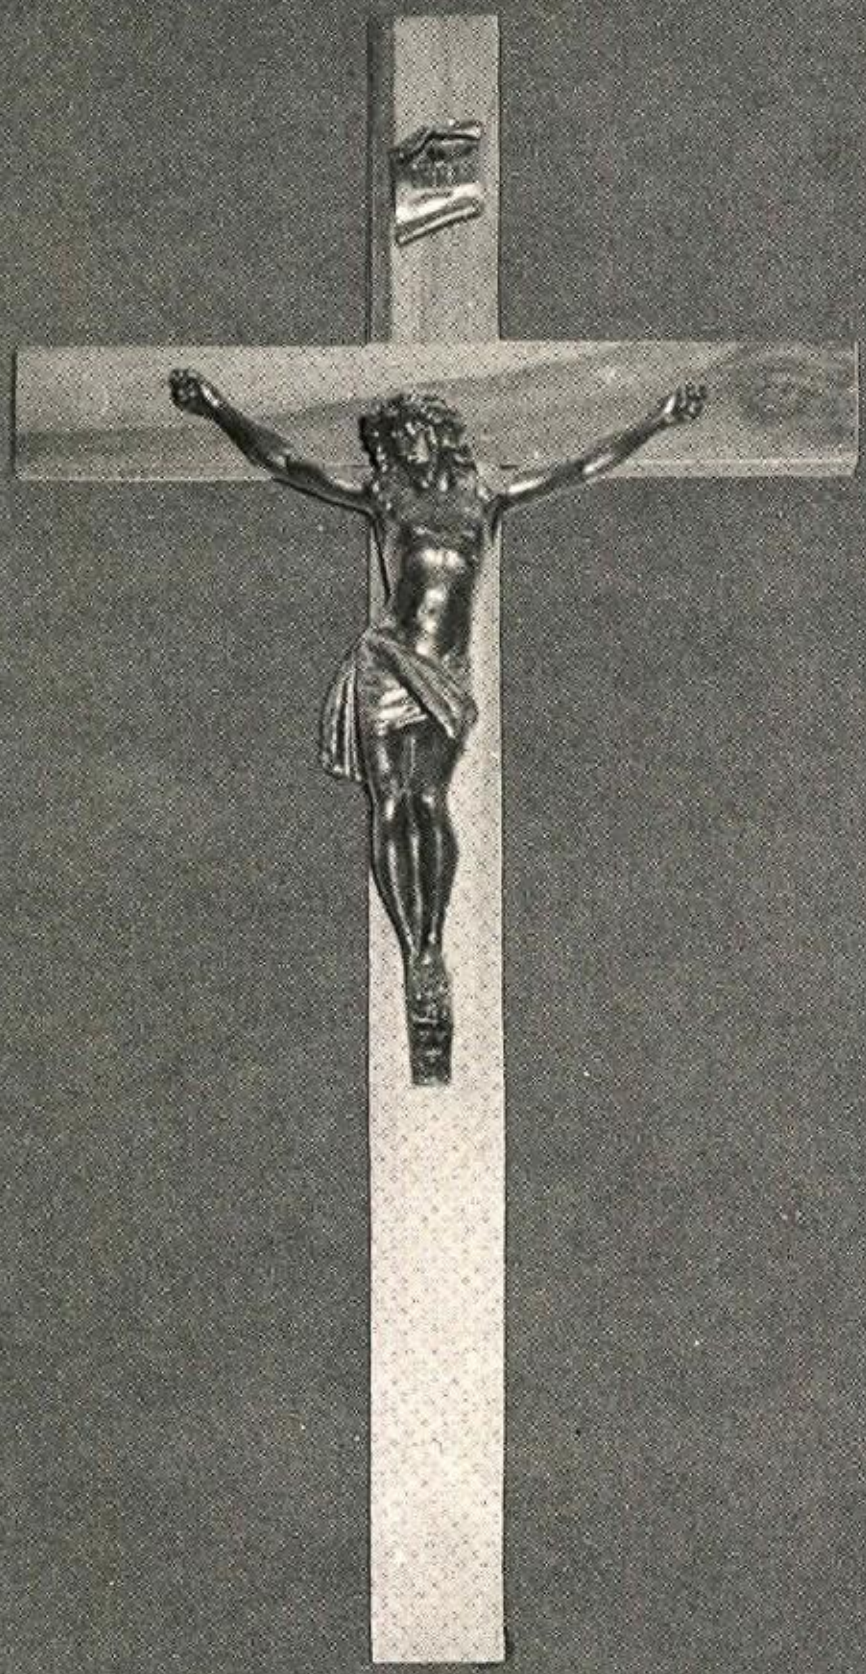
Amen



The cross is the reason for our drama. How closely we approach it and live by it truly determines the measure of our success here and hereafter. May it always be the inspiration of our performance now and in the years to come!
